

HUGE FIRES LIGHT SKIES OVER BERLIN AS RAF STRIKES IN SEVEN FIERCE WAVES

Third Airport Is Sought for Atlanta; All Civilian Flying Here Endangered

Need Revealed By CAA Ban on Pilot Training

Emergency Field Near Smyrna Considered Best Possibility Now.

By WILLARD COPE.

Civilian flying in Atlanta is in extreme peril. It is even conceivable that commercial flying — passenger flying — may find rough going in the months ahead.

The situation was faced frankly yesterday by all interests here concerned with aviation. It was pointed out the city had had repeated warnings over the past years that its airport facilities were nowhere in proportion to its needs and that failure to provide them was retarding the city's growth.

It was the drastic order of the Civil Aeronautics Board, announced Sunday, to cease training civilian pilots at Candler Field—the city's only airport—which brought the question fully into the open.

Immediate Action Needed.

"Action even a year ago might have prevented this," declared Professor Montgomery Knight, director of the Guggenheim School of Aeronautics at Georgia Tech. "We have been fearing it for months. There is no assurance that much more sweeping steps will not be taken. There is every need for immediate activity to cure this situation."

Although the "northside" airport, planned for the old Camp Gordon site, was declared to be proceeding satisfactorily on paper, even the completed facility there may prove of no value to Atlanta from the civil aviation standpoint. It was pointed out that the navy, which will have important elements at the new field, might decide to "take over" completely. An earlier possibility was said to be that the army would base an Air Corps group at Candler Field and require removal of commercial flying establishments.

Third Airport Necessary.

A third airport was declared to be vitally necessary now.

Those most familiar with the situation were looking for possible development of the emergency field now maintained near Smyrna. While inadequate, it was pronounced the best immediate bet, as it is but 25 minutes from Atlanta by motor. Flight training of the 50 CAB students at Candler Field, under direction of Professor Knight and Professor W. R. Weems, continued yesterday in the absence of orders to the contrary, but they were expected momentarily from Washington.

Examination of prospective par-

In Other Pages

|                                 |                    |
|---------------------------------|--------------------|
| Classified ads.                 | Pages 22, 23       |
| Comics.                         | 20, 21             |
| Daily cross-word puzzle.        | 20                 |
| Editorial page.                 | 6                  |
| Ralph McGill.                   | Ralph T. Jones     |
| Westbrook Pegler.               | Robert Quillen     |
| Joseph Alsop and Robert Kinner. | 8, 9               |
| Financial news.                 | 11                 |
| Dudley Glass.                   | 7                  |
| Louie D. Newton.                | 11                 |
| Obituaries.                     | 23                 |
| "Of Heaven's Benediction."      | 20                 |
| Picture page.                   | 11                 |
| Private lives.                  | 23                 |
| Radio programs.                 | 21                 |
| Society.                        | 13, 15, 16         |
| Sports.                         | 17, 18, 19         |
| Theater programs.               | 23                 |
| Weather.                        | 24                 |
| Women's page features.          | 14                 |
| Eleanor Roosevelt.              | Sheilah Graham     |
| Dr. William Brady.              | Ide Jean Kain      |
| Dress Patterns.                 | Caroline Chatfield |

KNOX CONFERS WITH NAVY CHIEFS.—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox discussed "the situation in the Pacific" and navy expansion yesterday in Washington with Admiral J. O. Richardson, commander-in-chief of the fleet. Present at the conference were (left to right) Admiral H. E. Yarnell, retired, former commander of the Asiatic fleet; Admiral H. R. Stark, chief of operations; Secretary Knox and Admiral Richardson.

Council Votes For Spending Of $122,000

City-Wide Improvements Approved; Fire Rules Ordered Enforced.

By HERMAN HANCOCK.

City council yesterday approved a $122,000 city-wide improvement program designed to provide $300,000 worth of WPA labor, called on Building Inspector Charlie J. Bowen to enforce ordinance against downtown firetraps, and sent to the ordinance and legislation committee a proposed charter amendment providing for nomination of future councilmen and board members by the votes of the wards they represent.

Items Included.

Major items included in the list are $22,000 for purchase of an aerial ladder for the fire department; $1,000 for fire department repairs; $23,000 for purchase and improvement of playground and park sites in the third and sixth wards; $9,000 as the city's share of widening North boulevard; $8,500 for repaving of Edgewood avenue; $7,252 for improvements on Ivy street; $1,500 for improving Ayon avenue; $15,000 for obtaining the right-of-way for widening Memorial drive from Whitehall street to Capitol avenue (the council also passed a resolution asking Fulton county to widen the thoroughfare after the city obtains the right-of-way); $6,123 for the salaries of 16 additional firemen for the remainder of the year; $2,500 for establishing a parkway and fountain at the intersection of Spring street and Carnegie way.

Although the budget commission anticipated only $113,583.13 in the program, other sums added from funds already anticipated forced the total to $122,000, Alderman Ed A. Giliam, finance committee chairman, pointed out. Councilman John A. White, chairman of city council's WPA contact committee, said the WPA projects included in the list would

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

Jim Farley Here in New Role Of Businessman, Not Politician

Ex-Postmaster General Regretfully Recalls Death of Crawford W. Long's Daughter; Refuses To Say Anything About Politics.

(Picture on Page 10.)

By RALPH MCGILL.

Mr. James A. Farley, one of America's up-and-coming young men, but lately launched on a business career, spent yesterday in Atlanta.

Mr. Farley has appeared in our town before. He once sold the first Crawford W. Long stamps at Jefferson, Ga., and yesterday found time to recall with regret, that the lady to whom he sold them, last surviving daughter of the discoverer of ether as an anesthetic, had died.

During the period he was making the United States Post Office Department do its greatest job, he frequently was in our town to present a watch to some retiring employee or to dedicate a building.

Associated With Politics.

His name has, on at least one or two occasions, been associated with politics. That was months ago. Today Jim Farley, the man everyone either likes or respects (most do both), was present as a businessman, one of the new vice presidents of the Coca-Cola Export Corporation. He took this new job September 1. He has gone to work and is mighty happy about it.

A businessman has no business making public pronouncements about politics. So, Mr. Farley has nothing to say about politics.

No businessman has the gift of second sight and so Jim Farley makes no predictions about the future of business or world affairs.

He is just a businessman learning a new job. He will visit other offices of his new association in various parts of the nation.

Once that is done he probably will go to South America to visit offices of the company in various countries there.

To Support Democrats.

Being a Democrat, who participated in the convention in a manner which earned him the respect and affection of thousands who before had entertained no emotion regarding him, he will, as he said at that time, support the nominees.

Jim Farley will answer no questions about politics. I am sure, however, his only connection with politics will be the casting of his vote. Very properly he will devote his time and his energies to his new position. It is an old Farley custom to give all he has to the job at hand.

Which is one reason why newspapermen, who don't like phonies, have a deep and abiding affection for Jim Farley. He is No. 1 in every newspaperman's book who ever knew him.

Mayor LaGuardia Starts Tearing Down Elevated

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(P)—Wielding an acetylene cutting torch, Mayor LaGuardia today started the job of tearing down the 72-year-old Ninth avenue elevated which straddles nine miles of west side streets from the Battery to the Polo Grounds.

U. S. Now Has Sent 137 Tanks to Canada

OTTAWA, Oct. 7.—(P)—Colonel F. F. Worthington's armored brigade at Camp Borden, Ontario, has now received 137 over-age tanks purchased from the United States, Defense Minister J. L. Ralston said today.

"Of 60 more tanks to come, 75 per cent will be ready for immediate training purposes," he said.

Ralston expressed "my warm appreciation of the prompt action of the United States in shipping these tanks."

Nazis To Build Powerful Bases On Black Sea

Balkans Excited; Threat to Turkey for Link With Britain.

(Map on Page 4.)

By The Associated Press.

Germany's historic dream—the march to the east—touched the very threshold of reality last night. The armies of Adolf Hitler strode into Rumania to build powerful bases on the Black sea and the Danube, to link them with the Reich by a great paved road, and to enforce upon all comers the "verboten" sign already posted over that troubled puppet kingdom.

All the Balkans tingled with the sensational news, which military observers were quick to cite as foreshadowing possible Rumanian-Bulgarian-Hungarian entry into the German-Italian Axis for a Near East campaign, or a likely military-backed diplomatic offensive against Turkey.

Rumania Like Colony.

In any event, the status of shrunken Rumania as a sort of colony of Germany seemed all the more certain.

The German army entry and its program gained confirmation half in Berlin and half in Bucharest while each capital cast some bit of doubt on the portion reported in the other.

Authorized German sources said the army had entered Rumania to prevent British sabotage of the vital oil fields and to make good the Nazi guarantee of Rumanian frontiers now that Hungary, Bulgaria and Russia all have had slices of the Rumanian territorial pie.

"We don't do these things for fun," said the Germans. "We mean business."

Cagily, they scoffed at Rumanian reports that they would build the big trans-Rumanian road, would erect a black and air base on the Black set south of Constanta, and vastly expand a submarine base opposite Galati on the Danube—facing Russian-held Bessarabia.

Nazis Lease Hotels.

Rumania officially called the reported entry of German troops "premature," but mentioned the existing close relations with the Reich, while military circles said bullets already have been prepared for several divisions of German troops.

Indications of the Germans' arrival were seen in the leasing of entire hotels and the reservation of dozens of the best rooms in others for German officers.

Ten suites were reserved in the Bucharest hotel across the street from the royal palace where young King Mihai reigns while Premier Ion Antonescu rules as dictator on the Iron Guardist pro-Nazi pattern.

Official circles in Yugoslavia said 3,000 German military police already were in the Rumanian oil fields and that large numbers of German officers had been assigned to reorganize the Rumanian army on Nazi lines.

The Germans lent strong color to the speculations on Turkey's danger when they said it could be assumed that one subject of last week's conference between Fuehrer Hitler and Italy's Premier Mussolini was the matter of putting pressure on the guardian of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus.

Turkey is a nonbelligerent ally of Britain, and the two only yesterday were reported completing a new broad trade accord providing for British shorehouses in Istanbul and British warships to convoy merchantmen.

Thus the fury of the air Battle of Britain and the secrets of a conference between two dictators in the chill Alpine setting of Brenner Pass converge to form an angle at the distant Hellespont,

Continued in Page 9, Column 5.

The International Scene

Berlin last night was battered in what was apparently one of the most severe air raids of the war. Page 1, Column 8.

The Germans were hammering at London on a 24-hour basis, striking at the heart of the city. Damage was heavy, casualties apparently few. Other sections of the country also were under heavy bombardment. Page 2, Column 6.

In Bucharest, German troops continued to arrive, and reports that a huge naval base and other military establishments would be built by the Nazis were circulated. Page 1, Column 6.

Italians reported a British submarine had shelled a coastal town, and also that Herbert Matthews, New York Times correspondent who said the Axis powers were working for the defeat of President Roosevelt, had been ordered to leave Italy within 10 days. Page 4, Column 1.

Japan at the same time officially denied Foreign Minister Matsuoka threatened war against the United States if this country insists on the status quo in the Pacific. The story was circulated by an American news agency (not the A. P. or U. P.) and printed by many American newspapers. Page 2, Column 4.

Alien Pressure On Defense To Be Investigated

Senate Orders Probe of Possible Influences on U. S. Rearmings.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(P)—The senate ordered its interstate commerce committee today to make a "thorough and complete" investigation of the extent to which foreign interests may influence American defense industry.

The chamber approved the inquiry despite a protest by Senator Austin, Republican, Vermont.

"I do not want to see congress furnish the Department of Justice with material to flub industrial enterprises over the head at a time when we want harmony in this country and want complete co-operation in building up the national defense," Austin said.

"There is no politics in it," Majority Leader Barkley, Democrat, Kentucky, assured Austin, adding that certain contracts entered into by business firms before the war "may very seriously handicap our own industries in the matter of national defense."

It said also that authentic reports indicate that German and other foreign corporations enjoy a measure of control over some of our most important defense industries.

'Invasion Guards' See Nazis Lay Mysterious Smoke Screen

DOVER, England, Oct. 8.—(Tuesday)—(P)—A German plane laid down a mysterious white smoke screen along the French coast across from Dover early today and a bustle of activity was reported shortly afterward among small boats off the continental coast.

The English channel was glassy smooth after several days of stormy, invasion-forbidding weather.

Shore watchers on this side were mystified by the unusual German operations. It was agreed

Bombers Blast Nazi Buildings For Five Hours

Several Killed, Wounded; Raiders Set Record for Violence.

By The Associated Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—(Tuesday)—British warplanes in a raid of record-setting violence on the German capital killed and wounded several Berliners last night and early today and struck storehouses, rail lines, various apartments and two hospitals with explosives and fire-bombs.

One British plane was shot down by the terrific concentration of anti-aircraft fire.

The alarm lasted four hours and 42 minutes and during the entire time there was scarcely a quiet moment in Berlin anti-aircraft cannon fired at the British planes whipping back and forth across the city, evidently trying to make up for the past three quiet nights.

Many Fires Started.

(A number of fires were started, the United Press reported. A bright red glow followed by billows of black smoke was visible on the northern horizon. Two of the fires burned for more than two hours and at one time more than five separate blazes were counted. Fire engines dashed through the streets at intervals all during the long raid, the RAF apparently coming over in seven waves.)

The spectacular destruction of the British bomber came fairly early in the raid when the plane was at a height estimated at 9,000 to 12,000 feet.

Rescue Attempt Fails.

Caught in the converging cone of at least 16 searchlights, the plane was held relentlessly in a quarter-mile patch of light into which the guns from the ground poured volley after volley of the heaviest caliber of explosive shells and shrapnel.

A companion plane, apparently seeking to divert some of the lights and gunfire, sped into the glare, but to no avail, and ducked out into the darkness again.

Intense Attack.

The raid lacked several minutes of being the longest Berlin has experienced, but it was one of the most intense, as measured by the din of artillery fire directed at the raiders.

Planes often were at several points over the city simultaneously while circling fingers of light sought to close around them and projectiles exploded with pink, orange and white brilliance in fancy clusters.

Several times four or more flashes in the air at one time, apparently from the planes, drew concentrated fire from small fast-firing guns on the ground.

At least two objects fell within easy hearing distance of the Associated Press offices, but whether

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Man Charged With Causing Forest Blaze

Jury Accuses Him of Starting Fire on U. S. Property.

Charged with building a fire without permission in a national forest and failing to put it out, Phillip Nichols, of Fannin county, was indicted yesterday by the federal grand jury.

Nichols was accused of building the fire May 22 on land owned by the TVA in the Chattahoochee National Forest near Three Springs and Blue Ridge lake. His campfire burned over three acres of woods before it was extinguished by forest rangers, it was said.

If convicted Nichols will be required to pay for the damage done by the flames and for the cost of fighting the fire, the only penalty in such cases.

The jury also indicted George H. Collier and Harold Whitfield McMahon on four counts of counterfeiting dimes September 27. Officers said Collier and McMahon made the bogus dimes and were testing them out by making purchases in liquor stores. They were arrested on drunk charges when they got intoxicated by drinking their test purchases, it was said. The true bill alleges they were in possession of 104 counterfeit dimes when arrested.

Alpharetta Youth Hurt When Auto Turns Over

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION.

CANTON, Ga., Oct. 7.—Everett Guthrie, 15, of Alpharetta, route 1, was in a hospital here today with injuries received in a wreck yesterday afternoon when the car in which he was riding blew the right front tire and overturned five times. Everett Hardin, 15, driver of the car, escaped with minor injuries.

Young Guthrie is the son of L. R. Guthrie. Both arms were broken and he received internal injuries.

Dr. C. A. Constantine
DENTIST
68 Peachtree 2nd Floor at Auburn

BUEHLER BROS.
25 Broad St. S. W. 855 Gordon St.
DOWNTOWN WEST END
DECATUR, GA.
117 E. Court Square

SPECIALS FOR TUESDAY

STRICTLY FRESH PORK

CHOPS 17 1/2c LB.

TENDERIZED MINUTE STEAKS 25c LB.

EXTRA CHOICE TENDERLOIN STEAK 15 1/2c LB.

DIAMOND U. SLICED BACON 21c LB.

UPPER CURCH SAUSAGE 15c LB.

FRESH CHUCK ROAST 12 1/2c LB.

CHOICE NO. 7 ROAST 15 1/2c LB.

BONELESS BEEF STEW 19 1/2c LB.

GROUND ROUND STEAK 17 1/2c LB.

BUEHLER'S STAR PURE COFFEE 12 1/2c LB.

Constitution Photo—Carolyn McKenzie.

Council Votes For Spending Of $122,000

Continued From First Page.

mean the expenditure of about $300,000, of which the city would be required to provide only about $75,000.

Resolution Read.

Bowen was directed to bear down on firetraps and "enforce existing city ordinances to eliminate them" when a resolution by the Atlanta Federation of Trades calling attention to the hazards was read. Councilman J. Allen Couch insisted that "the one responsible for the enforcement of the laws do so" and council agreed with him.

A complaint by the federation concerning the alleged equipment of the city prison farm for servicing city-operated motor vehicles was sent to the finance committee for further study.

In initiating the nomination of councilmen and board members by voters of the wards they represent, Councilman Couch said his measure was for the purpose of asking the Georgia legislature to amend the charter to restore the system which has been in vogue in Atlanta for several decades prior to the city primary this year.

Woodward Iron Profits Increase During Quarter

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Woodward Iron Company reported net income for the nine months ending September 30 as $1,383,611, equivalent to $4.52 per share on 305,913 shares of common stock outstanding on that date.

Earnings for the same period a year ago were $387,848, equivalent to $1.43 per share on 271,178 shares outstanding.

Third quarter income was $559,425, as compared with $150,797 in 1939. Woodward is a merchant pig iron manufacturer, operating coal and iron ore mines and three blast furnaces.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Students of the Berry Schools crowded around the feet of their beloved founder, Miss Martha Berry, yesterday as they help celebrate her 74th birthday. Pictured in the living room of her home, Oak Hill, with Miss Berry, her birthday cake with its 74 candles, her numerous gifts, and 74 Red Radiance rosebuds, are a few of the 1,200 students and Dr. W. P. Harbin standing, the school physician since its founding.

Rain Doesn't Halt Celebration Of Martha Berry's Birthday

Showers Interfere With Grand March But Students Present Great Georgia Educator With Gifts at Her Home.

By CAROLYN MCKENZIE.

MOUNT BERRY, Ga., Oct. 7.—Miss Martha Berry defaulted her birthday party to the weather man today as he sent showers of rain to halt the grand march of 1,200 students paying tribute to the founder of the Berry Schools on her 74th anniversary. Plans for an extended mountain day outing were deferred for a more sombre celebration before an open fire at Oak Hill, Miss Berry's home.

The students, undaunted and dressed in overalls and gingham dresses—adopted uniforms of the schools—went ahead with their celebration. They donned raincoats, hauled out umbrellas and gathered at the foot of Mount Berry for a picnic lunch of hot dogs, potato salad, cake, punch and bananas. But, following the noon hour, the rain fell in a heavier and more steady stream, so they called off their plans for exercises and adjourned to the school gymnasium for dancing.

Faculty members yesterday recalled a similar rainy anniversary several years ago when Theodore Roosevelt came to the school at the end of a "long dry spell."

Miss Berry borrowed the city water sprinklers from Rome in order that the then dirt roads might be robbed of some of their dust. And then came the rain, clouds and storms of it, on the night before the famous President's arrival. But he came to Mount Berry for a party and refused to let the rain cheat him out of it; so he turned up the collar of his top coat, pulled down his slouch hat, and wandered over the grounds looking at every phase of the school.

Highlights of today's observance which were carried out despite the rain included dedication by the students of the George Bartow memorial library for the boys' high school unit and presentation of gifts to Miss Berry.

The library, made of native Georgia stone, was constructed by students during their summer work period. It has three main reading rooms and a balcony and is nearing completion now.

Student Contributions. The students' annual contributions of one penny for each year of their life brought into the school well over $200—more than a vegetable basket filled with pennies which were placed at Miss Berry's feet.

The students', faculty's, and alumnae associations also presented to Miss Berry an electric organ for the John Frost Memorial Chapel which sits high on a knoll on the high school campus. Donations for this new organ came from alumnae clubs from Atlanta to Honolulu and from numerous individuals.

Miss Berry was given a large wooden key, carved by students at the school, as a symbol of their gift. The organ. She received this in the living room of Oak Hill where she left her bed, to which she had been confined for several weeks, and came downstairs to greet her many visitors. Among her other gifts were a birthday cake bearing 74 white candles and a bunch of 74 red radiance rosebuds.

Dr. Harbin W. Caldwell, president of the University of Georgia and a member of the board of trustees of the Berry Schools, was present to help Miss Berry celebrate the occasion.

Japanese Officials Deny War Threat
TOKYO, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The Japanese foreign office has issued an official denial that Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka threatened war against the United States if the latter nation insists on maintenance of the status quo in the Pacific.

In dispatches published by some newspapers in the United States last Friday Matsuoka was quoted as saying that if the United States "in her contentment is going to blindly and stubbornly stick to the status quo in the Pacific then we will fight America."

Yakichiro Suma, foreign office spokesman, issued a written statement saying such an interview had not been given.

Taft Memorial Highway 10-Mile Link Completed
SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION.
LAGRANGE, Ga., Oct. 7.—Another link in the north-south Taft Memorial highway connecting Canada and Florida was opened this weekend with completion of a 10-mile stretch of highway in Heard county, in and near Franklin, bringing to a close the hard-surfacing of the LaGrange-Carrollton route.

Work is still underway on a new bridge over the Chattahoochee river at Franklin, but use of the old bridge makes possible routing of traffic along the new completed road, David Smith, state highway resident engineer, announces. The new bridge will be completed early in January, officials estimate.

British Raiders Blast Berlin For Five Hours

Continued From First Page.

they were bombs or unexploded antiaircraft shells could not be determined.

16 Lights on Plane.

The lights caught their first plane about an hour after the raiders drew the first fire over the city.

Before the bomber could dive into the darkness, 16 lights were concentrated on it in a brilliant field.

The British plane twisted and turned directly over the city with exploding antiaircraft shells bracketing it on all sides and above and below.

It tried slowing down, then suddenly speeding up to spoil the gunners' aim, but so many were trained on it that it must have been punctured many times.

Ultimately the plane began settling in a slow, sloping descent toward the edge of the city with shell bursts almost burning it from sight.

Finally it came low enough for shots from the smaller but deadly rapid-firing guns to race after their victim like the lights spewing from a roman candle.

Horizon Lit Up.

Still in the center of fire, the plane finally vanished from view beyond the skyline.

The intensity of the artillery fire was such that the whole horizon of the city was a constant succession of cone-shaped flashes while light, medium and possibly heavy guns in the interior of the city chorused in such volume that windows of buildings rattled.

The roofs rattled with falling shell fragments.

(The drum of firing was incessant with few lulls, the United Press said, sometimes this rolling fire was completely blotted out by deep, rumbling explosions, apparently heavy bombs exploding.)

(For the first time, British attackers flew low enough to be visible from the United Press office in central Berlin. Searchlight beams sought them out. The raiders dropped dozens of parachute flares to guide their bombs and at times Unter Den Linden was as bright as day.)

Nazis List Toll.

A German communique issued shortly after the raid gave a terse outline of what happened in the four hours and 42 minutes of bombing and artillery fire which topped all previous raids on the German capital.

The communique said: "In the past night, British planes attacked the Reich's capital and dropped explosive and incendiary bombs at various places."

"Among other things hit were two hospitals, various apartment houses as well as stores and rail lines."

"The fires started were soon brought under control."

"Several dead and wounded are to be reported."

"One airplane was shot down by antiaircraft artillery."

RAF CONTINUES RAIDS ON NAZI WAR MACHINE
LONDON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—British bombers carrying the war to Germany in a campaign to blast and cripple the Nazi war machine pushed home daring daylight attacks on German objectives on the "invasion coast" yesterday despite consistently bad weather, the air ministry announced today.

The raids began at dawn and when they were over, the ministry said, hits had been scored on the Germans at Ostend, Belgium; Calais and Boulogne, France, and in the Dutch harbors of Harlingen, Stavoren, Enkhuizen, Dordrecht, and Den Helder.

Other British bombers went on over Holland into western Germany and bombed the airfield at Diepholz, 30 miles southwest of Bremen.

Diepholz already has felt the

Germans Bomb 10 Districts in London Area

RAF Battles 450 Planes; Fliers Clash Six Miles Over City.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—(Tuesday)—(AP)—Adolf Hitler's night raiders attempted to make up for lost time last night and early today by striking hard at a number of London districts following a day of fierce "subatmosphere" dogfights above the capital.

Deprived of their timetable assaults Sunday night by storm-swept skies for the first time in 30 days, the raiders swept back with the stars to lunge repeatedly at the metropolis. In all, 10 London districts and a number of provincial areas were sprayed with high explosive and incendiary bombs.

Nearly 500 Raiders.

The night attacks were a continuation of mass daylight forays in which the RAF broke up formation after formation of German planes four to six miles above the city. The number of raiders was declared authoritatively to have numbered about 450.

A "Molotov breadbasket" was dropped during the night near a large West End store adjoining others wrecked by heavy caliber bombs a fortnight ago. A high explosive bomb also damaged a famous West End structure now used as an office building and an incendiary fell near a bank in that vicinity but was extinguished.

Other Nazi formations dropped bombs in a thickly populated area of a southeast Scottish coast during the night, Exchange Telegraph reported. One explosive struck near a tenement and a number of people were cut by flying glass.

From before dawn until after dusk last night London had experienced six air raid alarms.

10-Minute Waves.

Despite the fairly widespread damage inflicted in the night assault there were no reports immediately of casualties.

The Nazi bombers, coming in very fast, frequently changed their direction in an effort to escape the sweeping searchlights and inferno of shell bursts sent up by ground batteries in full-throated unison. But they kept coming at 10-minute intervals.

British warplanes were on patrol in the darkness outside the great ring of lights.

As the night wore on, additional reports came in of raiders over northwest England, the highly industrialized midlands, the north-east and west coasts. Several bombs were dropped at Liverpool, causing a number of casualties.

A series of heavy detonations sounded in the central area of London, and many incendiaries rained down, hitting one bus, starting fires in a big block of apartments and causing the sky to flame red briefly.

The air ministry, describing the day's actions, in which 28 German bombers and fighters were said to have been sent crashing, said one invisible battle was fought between Hurricanes and more than 50 Messerschmitts zigzagging nearly six miles above London.

Fourteen British craft were reported missing.

Dive Into Raiders.

The British airmen speared into big Nazi formations totaling perhaps 450 planes which five times attempted to reach London during the day, and then tackled another mass of raiders which crossed the Dorset coast near the big naval base of Weymouth.

The German squadrons were said by the air ministry to have been forced upward by clear weather and to have "concentrated on height and speed."

Many of them were fighter planes loaded with bombs.

Messerschmitt fighter protected the usual order of Messerschmitt protecting bomber, and the air ministry said the RAF kept meeting them at 20,000, 25,000 and 30,000 feet.

The battle at Weymouth was a great, sprawling, sky-filling affair in which at least seven of the raiders were sent crashing.

An eyewitness said the raiders were "scattered in all directions" in a series of high dogfights, and that the British ground fire and fighter attack was so fierce the Germans were "penned up" for more than half an hour, unable to go into the interior or retreat across the sea.

LONG-RANGE PLANE TO RAID GERMANY, ITALY

LONDON, Oct. 7.—(UP)—Great Britain tonight was reported preparing to hurl against the Axis powers a new long-range fighter plane capable of operating over both Germany and Italy in an effort to offset the Nazi aerial advantage of bomber bases along the French Channel coast.

Because the British have been unable to send along fighter escorts, Royal Air Force bombing raids on Germany and Italy have been curbed.

The usually well-informed London Daily Mail asserted that the new long-range fighter plane is being produced and soon will be thrown into the air war.

The newspaper asserted also that a powerful new bombing plane is being turned out.

jar of British bombs in six previous attacks, according to a list of more than 200 "military targets" raided by the Royal Air Force up to September 20.

Berlin has been raided 15 times, the British striking at gasoline installations, utilities, railways, air-dromes and gun positions.

INDIGESTION

may affect the Heart
Gas trapped in the stomach or gut may act like a hair-trigger on the heart. At the first sign of distress—heart-ache, dizziness, faintness, or even death—take one of these "Heart-Protecting" tablets. They are the only medicine known for acid indigestion. If the first dose doesn't prove Bell-e's better, return bottle to us and receive DOUBLE MONEY BACK, 25c.

New York Truck Strike Ordered

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Ten thousand New York truck drivers were called out on strike tonight after Mayor F. H. La Guardia failed to get employers to grant union demands for a week's vacation with pay.

The walkout, effective tomorrow, was ordered by William S. Devery, president of Local 807, International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs (AFL).

Union officials said that the movement of perishable foodstuffs, newspaper and products necessary in carrying out the national defense program would not be affected.

La Guardia asked the union officials to confer with him tomorrow morning.

Dalton Station To Start Broadcasts November 15

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION.
DALTON, Ga., Oct. 7.—Dalton's new radio station, granted a license recently by the federal government, will go on the air November 15, it was announced here today by W. V. Williams. The new station has been given the call letters WBLD and will operate on 1200 kilocycles with a wavelength with 250 watts power and will be on the air 16 hours daily.

Studios for the new station will be located in the Kenemer building in downtown Dalton while the transmitter will be installed on a four-acre tract on Antioch road. The new station is owned by W. V. Williams, J. C. H. Wink, Baxter Roach and Mayor O. R. Hardin.

PURSE SNATCHED.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Policemen W. T. Sullivan and O. F. Love reported that a youngster snatched a purse away from Mrs. W. A. Furlong. But he was in such a hurry to get away from the pursuit that he dropped the purse without so much as taking a nickel.

Arthur Krock Tells of 'War' Against Press

Blasts New Deal; Charges Attempt To Discredit.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 7.—(AP) Arthur Krock, Washington correspondent of The New York Times, today described what he termed New Deal preachment of a "class war" against the press as a stepping stone toward efforts to discredit and restrict American newspapers.

Krock's censure of the Democratic administration before the New York State Society of Newspaper editors preceded another critical assault by Mark Sullivan, New York Herald Tribune writer. Sullivan, viewing the growth of the National Labor Relations Board and the Agricultural Adjustment Administration as encroaching on American property rights, said the right of property was the keystone of all American liberties.

You can never borrow on a stack of rent receipts, but you can on your own home. For Best Home Buys—turn to the Real Estate columns of The Constitution.

LEARN!

- Effective Speaking
- Human Relations
- Personal Development
- Salesmanship

ENROLL NOW
HENRY N. CASELL
EXECUTIVE INSTITUTE, Inc.
First Nat'l Bank Bldg., Jc. 1615

Kamper's

No Charge for Deliveries

Tuesday Market Day at KAMPER'S
Order Today . . . Stores Close 1 P. M. Wednesday

Enjoy these New Crop Items!

Cuban Guava Paste (with strip of jelly) 2 1/2 lbs. 40c
Granday's Cuban Sliced Pineapple, 9c—3 for 25c
No. 2 tins, 15c—No. 2 1/2 tins, 20c
Green Split Peas, 10c lb.

Brussels Sprouts 20c qt.
Cabbage, 2 lbs. 5c
Turnip Salad, 5c lb.
Rutabaga Turnips, 3c lb.
Fresh Broccoli 2 lbs. 25c
Cal. Grapefruit, 2 for 25c
Large Pineapple, 25c
Large Casaba Melons, 60c
Red Table Apples, 20c doz.
Fresh Papayas, 15c lb.
Large Avocados, 15c

Try These Flavorful Dishes for a Change!

Sauer Kraut (serve with wieners), No. 2 tins, 9c—3 for 25c
No. 2 1/2 tins, 10c
Armour Imported Style Frankfurters (large tins) 35c
Fresh Skinless Wieners, 23c lb.
Broadcast Prepared Spaghetti with Meat Balls, 2 tins 25c
Walker's Chili Con Carne, 20c
Walker's Mexican Style Beans, 10c tin
Mexican Chile Peas (also called Garbanzo, Peas, Nahiti) 13c lb.—2 lbs. 25c
Black Turtle Beans, 10c lb.
Snider's Oyster Cocktail Sauce, 25c

Large Boxes Matches, 2c ea.

Buy the Best Things to Eat at Kamper's

THE IRON HORSE

At the beginning of the 19th Century, when railroads were first proposed in the United States, the idea was fought with stubborn resistance: wealthy men, who had investments in turnpike, canal, stage coach and bridge companies; tavern keepers along coach routes; farmers, who foresaw a diminished demand for horses, hay and grain, set up strong and powerful opposition. Even state governments opposed the building of railroads because of fears of loss of revenue from the canals. But the wheels of progress could not be stopped, and the first railroad, The Quincy, was finally established in 1826.

Read THE STORY OF THE RAILROADS—a booklet prepared by Constitution Service Bureau, for details of the inception and development of the "iron horse" in the United States. Use the coupon below. Enclose 10 cents for return postage and other costs.

CLIP COUPON HERE:

F. M. Kerby, Dept. B-182,
Constitution Service Bureau,
1013 Thirteenth St., Washington, D. C.

Here's my dime: send my copy of the booklet "The Story of the Railroads" to—

NAME _____
ST. & NO. _____
CITY _____ STATE _____

I read The Atlanta Constitution.

The Little Man Who's Always There!

SOME folks let their shipping problems weigh on them as heavily as that load weighs on the mule! . . . And they travel about as fast toward a solution . . . That's why the little man belongs in this picture in a great big way . . . Santa Fe's fast, dependable service solves freight problems in a way that builds a world of confidence among satisfied shippers. Consult your Santa Fe representative now!

Or write:
J. L. Grogan,
Freight Traffic Manager,
Railway Exchange Building,
Chicago, Illinois

BLACKWELL and DAVIS MARKET
WE DELIVER
1019 Peachtree VE. 8813

TUESDAY ONLY

FANCY W. L.

HENS LB. 15c

3 to 3 1/2 lbs.

Children's SNIFFLES
MENTHOLATUM
Mentholatum
Quickly Checks Running
Sniffles
Sneezing

PROTECT YOUR EYES
L. N. HUFF OPTICAL CO.

54 Broad St. N. W., Healey Building

DAVISON'S PRESENTS LEOPARD-INSPIRED

Tawny Gold

Davison's says keep your eye on the color Gold. The fashion world is drenched in a flood of tawny leopard tones, like the great golden beast below. It sweeps on in great Midas waves of Yellow Gold, Green Gold, Pink Gold, Champagne Gold. You're going to see a gold bonanza this year. Davison's is proud to again be the first to bring you an important fashion flash—watch the Gold Rush.

Sketched above left:
SHINING GOLD CELLOPHANE, sculptured with high-breasted Directoire lines. The Peacock Room, Third Floor—$25

Sketched right:
TAWNY GOLD AND BLACK DRESS SUIT. The coat of gold herringbone tweed, Persian lamb trimmed. The slim dress of black broadcloth. The Peacock Room, Third Floor—99.95

BUTTER GOLD FLANNEL SHIRT, tailored like a T-square. Convertible neck. Sizes 12 to 16. The Sports Shop, Third Floor—5.98

WHITBEY TAWNY GOLD AND GREEN. Checked Wool JACKET 10.95; SKIRT 7.95. The Sport Shop, Third Floor.

CHAMPAGNE GOLD CHIFFON, the wide girde studded with tiger-eye gold sequins. The Peacock Room, Third Floor—22.95

TAWNY GOLD CREPE with GOLD NAIL-HEADS outlining the graceful pleats, cuffs, collar. The Peacock Room, Third Floor—29.95

Tawny OCELOT MUFF. Furs, Third Floor. $35

Sketched below:
TAWNY TOPAZE PIN shaped like a flower. Jewelry, Street Floor—2.98

YELLOW GOLD METAL BRACELET—with a square gold bangle to hold your own monogram. Jewelry, Street Floor—2.98

GOLD METAL LINK BRACELET, alternating links of green gold and pink gold. Jewelry, Street Floor—2.98

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
AFFILIATED WITH MACY'S NEW YORK

TAWNY GOLD BEAVER HAT, soft as an Easter chicken. Spiked with saucy brown bows. Millinery, Third Floor—$15

TIGER GOLD ANTELLE BAG, with zipper top and soft draped front. Bags, Street Floor—$15

TAWNY GOLD CREPE, the squared neck draped through chains of seed pearls and beads. Budget Shop, Third Floor. 17.95

GREEN GOLD CREPE with ruffled peplum apron. Topped with a gleaming sunburst pin. The Budget Shop, Third Floor. 17.95

Italian City Is Shelled by British Sub

Duce Expected to Speak on Axis Move; U. S. Reporter Ousted.

ROME, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Fascist legions, ready for war, displayed their prowess before Premier Mussolini today in northeastern Italy while Rome diplomatic quarters speculated on a variety of events, among them the possibility that Il Duce might be about to make a speech on the Axis' next move.

Mussolini was in the Verona area continuing his troop inspections along the Po. On Thursday he will review more units at Padua, in the same area, and informed circles expressed belief he might say something then about his Brenner Pass confab with Hitler.

The Italian high command declared a civilian was killed and six others injured when a British submarine shelled the city of Savona, in northwestern Italy near Genoa.

Italian naval casualties during September were listed officially as 55 officers and sailors, five African native sailors and two civilian workers killed, 60 wounded and 116 missing.

Press spokesmen predicted the Brenner conversations soon would be transformed into action and paid increasing attention to the United States.

Stefani, the official Italian news agency, announced that Herbert L. Matthews, New York Times correspondent, had been asked to leave Italy because of a dispatch in which Stefani said he had "falsely stated Italy was mixing in the United States presidential election and thus tended to disturb the relations between the two countries."

Matthews said he was asked to leave not so much for what he wrote as for the political use made of it.

(At his press conference last Friday President Roosevelt read, without comment, a Rome dispatch to the New York Times which said "the Axis is out to defeat President Roosevelt because of the President's foreign policy and because everything for which he stands in the eyes of the Italians and the Germans.")

REFUGEES ADRIFT EIGHT DAYS—Huddled in their life-jackets, six children and 40 other survivors of the liner City of Benares, after drifting eight days, finally approach a rescuing warship. The children, in bow of lifeboat, were in a group being evacuated from England to Canada. Britain said the liner was torpedoed.

LENOX PARK
Appeals to Those With a
"Sense of Value."
Desirable Lots—Reasonably Priced.
Vernon 3723.

Agree THAT
WHITE'S ROOFS
ARE RIGHT
10-Year Guarantee
36 Months to Pay
5,000 Roofs—Our Proofs

WHITE
ROOFING & REPAIR CO.
68 PRYOR ST. S. W.
ATLANTA, GA. 4567

Now Fly Direct to ST. LOUIS
3 3/4 HOURS

Also additional flight to Nashville, Jacksonville, Orlando, Miami—now 4 daily.

The Great Silver Fleet features Flight-Steward service; snack-bar service at all hours. Delicious full-course complimentary meals served at regular meal-times.

FOR RESERVATIONS: Phone Walnut 6040 or Calhoun 3131, or call your local travel agent or any hotel transportation desk.

Congress Recess Prospects Fade

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Prospects for a congressional recess grew more and more remote tonight, as house Republicans banded together to oppose any program which would deprive Congress of the power to reassemble itself in the event of an emergency.

Faced also with defections in its own ranks, the Democratic leadership was obviously reluctant to press a resolution already prepared under which a recess would be taken until November 18.

Representative Martin, Republican, Massachusetts, the Republican floor leader, said that a party conference, held late today, revealed a unanimous opposition to such a course. He said that if it were followed, not even the President would have authority to call the national legislature back to the capitol during the recess. This, however, was disputed in Democratic circles.

More Election Frauds Charged in Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The federal grand jury for the second time in 10 days struck against alleged election frauds today with the indictment of 14 commissioners who served in the September 10 and January 16 primaries.

Charges of mail fraud or civil liberties violations involved the first congressional district in which F. Edward Hebert, supported by the state and city administrations and the James A. Noe forces, defeated Representative J. O. Fernandez and Herve Ravitch for a House seat in the September 10 balloting. Specifically the commissioners were charged with erasing the markings on 72 Fernandez votes and 21 for Ravitch and marking them for Hebert.

Struck Down By Auto Here, Man, 42, Dies

Year's Traffic Fatalities in Atlanta Mount to Twenty-Five.

The city's 1940 traffic year with death gained a jump on 1939 last night with the death in Grady hospital of a 42-year-old white man, who succumbed to injuries suffered late yesterday afternoon.

The accident, the third fatality in three days, brought this year's toll of dead to 25, one more than the number recorded for the same period of last year.

The victim was listed as Samuel Brown, a carpenter, of Tallapoosa, Ga. He was fatally injured when struck by an automobile while crossing Western avenue, at the Gray street intersection. Another pedestrian, crossing at the same time, was also hit by the car.

The second victim's name was listed as McNeil Anderson, 45-year-old Negro, of 166 Walnut street. He was admitted to Grady hospital in a critical condition suffering two broken legs.

City Policemen Bob Holland and J. C. Bonds listed the driver of the car as R. G. Ratcliff, 32, of 849 Kennedy street, N. W. He was booked on a charge of reckless driving—accident and released under $500 bond.

Harvest Festival Opens Tomorrow

More than 200 automobiles will participate in a motorcade tomorrow which will open the third annual DeKalb County Harvest Festival at Panthersville.

A half holiday has been proclaimed by Commissioner Scott Candler, enabling motorists from every community in the county to gather at the courthouse in Decatur for the formation of the parade. With Sheriff Jake Hall in charge, the motorcade will move at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Meanwhile, Governor-elect Eugene Talmadge notified fair officials that he intended to visit the festival later in the week, provided he was not called out of town.

Pace Seeks AAA Control For Dixie Peanut Crop

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Representative P. C. Democrat, Georgia, today introduced a bill to bring the peanut crop under the AAA's acreage allotment program. Peanut producers of Georgia, North Carolina, Virginia, Alabama, Arkansas and Texas, Pace said, feel that their crop should be declared one of the basic commodities.

Effective Laxative Makes Happy Friends

This laxative makes friends that stand by it because it acts just as thoroughly as harsher ones but is a gentle persuader when taken by the simple directions.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a spicy, aromatic, purely vegetable medicine. Its chief ingredient is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps

Martin-Bluebird Club Is Year Old

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION. BALDWIN, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Dixie Martin-Bluebird Club will be one year old tomorrow.

Organized by Connie M. Watts, of Baldwin, it has grown from a few members in Banks county to where it is recognized in all 48 states, the District of Columbia, and England.

The club was organized to encourage the providing of nesting places for martins and bluebirds in the form of gourds and boxes. On its first anniversary, it will boast 2,000 members.

Watts said this is the only bird club of its kind in the world—organized for the benefit of birds that live in gourds or boxes.

Bill Voted To Protect Foreign Funds in U. S.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—The senate today passed a bill authorizing banks to deliver some $2,500,000,000 of foreign funds on deposit in this country to payees certified by accredited foreign representatives recognized by the State Department. The measure would bar any recourse to the courts by persons seeking to contest the payments.

Senator Wagner, Democrat, New York, sponsor of the bill, explained that $1,780,000,000 of earmarked gold and $820,000,000 in cash owned by central banks of foreign countries was held by the Federal Reserve banks, most of it in the account of banks in European countries which have been invaded, and Senator King, Democrat, Utah, said the measure would protect the funds from "the robbery, thievery and thuggery of the Nazis."

Simpson Is Nominated For Barton's House Seat

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Kenneth Simpson, deposed as Republican national committeeman in a factional fight preceding Barton's national convention, tonight was nominated for the congressional seat being vacated by Representative Bruce Barton.

Barton, like Simpson, an early supporter of Wendell L. Willkie, is running for United States senator against Senator James M. Mead, of Buffalo, a strong New Dealer.

Births

M. Tanner, 658 Elizabeth place, daughter: R. Rhea, Hapeville, Ga. son: P. C. Stancil, 492 McDonough boulevard, daughter: R. B. Coombs, 75 Central avenue, son: A. B. Jesse Jr., 822 Elbert street, S. W., daughter: A. P. Satterfield, 2308 Piedmont road, daughter: W. F. Rollins Jr., 348 Murray Hill, daughter: Z. H. McNeil, Route No. 3, daughter: W. B. Johns, 908 N. Highland, son: R. H. Deal, 421 W. Lake avenue, daughter: C. M. Pyper, 264 Park avenue, son: J. D. Roane, 1180 Reeder circle, son: L. A. Ivey, College Park, Ga., daughter: M. S. Edwards, Decatur, Ga., son: J. T. Shupe, Decatur, Ga., son.

600 Atlantans To Be 'Drafted' For F.D.R. Club

City Democratic Executive Committee Will Head Appointees.

Six hundred leading Atlantans will be "drafted" to form the nucleus of a city-wide Roosevelt-Wallace club, and the city Democratic Executive Committee will head the list of the appointees, it was decided last night.

Meeting at the city hall with members of the Democratic group, Ivan Allen Sr., president of the Fulton county drive to re-elect Roosevelt, called on committee-men not "to treat this Willie Wallace business too lightly" and warned of overconfidence.

"We have three classes of persons who are going to vote against Roosevelt, the greatest President we ever had," Allen said. "One is those who get their politics by mail from New York and other places. The other is that group which has had trouble with the government over taxes, labor and any other thing, and the third is that cross section of the electorate which just naturally votes against all in anyway."

Large Majority. "I think the county is going Roosevelt by a large majority on November 5. If it doesn't I'll be ashamed of Atlanta, and I have never been ashamed of it yet, but I want each one of you to turn heaven and earth to get out the vote—the largest vote in the history of the county."

After Allen's address, each of the dozen committeemen agreed to name a subcommittee of 50 lieutenants each to contact at least 10 other registered voters pledging those contacted to contact six other registered voters each.

That will make a total of 36,000 registered voters who will be urged to cast their ballots for the Roosevelt-Wallace ticket, Allen pointed out, thus assuring a big vote.

Mayor-elect Roy LeCraw appeared before the committee pledging his help in obtaining voting machines for the 1944 municipal primary, and close co-operation between the committee and the mayor's office for the next four years.

Voting Machines

"I am glad you are interested in voting machines because I believe they mean more efficient elections and more accurate counting than it is possible to do under the pressure and conditions which marked the September 4 primary," LeCraw said. "You can count on any help I can give you in obtaining the necessary machines."

Committee members decided to scan present primary laws with a view of revising them so that the committee may consolidate precincts and take other steps regarded as important steps in preparing for installing the machines.

Arthur Johnson, committee chairman, presiding at the meeting, and committeemen agreed to file their lists of Roosevelt-Wallace workers with Watson Cary, secretary, by tomorrow in order that the committee may be put to work before the end of the week.

Name 'Coco Cola' Barred by Court

CLEVELAND, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Use of the name "Coca Cola" on a candy bar wrapper was enjoined permanently today by Federal Judge Robert N. Wilkin.

The injunction simulated the soft drink trade name Coca-Cola. The order was directed against the Max Glick Candy Company, operating in this vicinity.

The injunction also restrained use of the terms "Coca," "Coco," "Cola," or "Kola" alone or in combination.

Amusement Calendar

Downtown Theaters
CAPITOL—"Sandy Is a Lady," with Baby Sandy, Misha Auer, Billy Gilbert, Eugene Pallette, etc. at 12:18, 1:55, 3:32, 5:10, 6:47, 8:24 and 10:01.

FOX—"Spring Parade," with Deanna Durbin, Robert Montgomery, Misha Auer, etc. at 1:25, 3:05, 5:25, 7:35 and 9:35.

LODGE—"Strike Up the Band," with Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland, Deanna Durbin, Robert Montgomery, William Tracy, etc. at 11:32, 2:04, 4:36, 7:08 and 9:40.

PARAMOUNT—"Rangers of Fortune," with Fred MacMurray, Patricia Morison, Robert Montgomery, etc. at 12:17, 2:34, 4:51, 6:58, 7:55 and 9:42.

RIALTO—"The Howards of Virginia," with Charles Scott, Alan Marshall, etc. at 10:15, 12:22, 2:36, 4:50, 7:05 and 9:15.

RHODES—"Foreign Correspondent," with Joel McCrea, Laraine Day, Robert Benchley.

ROXY—"My Love Came Back," with Charles H. Boyer, Ann Gillis, etc. Newsreel, short subjects.

ATLANTA—"Stole a Million," with George Raft, and "Ghost Town Ride," with Bob Baker, Jack Le Marre and Johnny Cym. Dancing nightly from 9 p. m.

CENTEX—"Next Time I Marry," with Lucille Ball.

Night Spots.
HENRY GRADY HOTEL—Spanish Room. Saxie Dowell and His NBC Orchestra. Dancing 10:15 to 1:15. Great shows, playing dinner-dance music nightly from 7 p. m. until 11 midnight.

ATLANTA BILTMORE HOTEL—Al Apollonius Orchestra. Dinner-dance, featuring Jeanne Renard, songstress, playing 10:15 to 12:15. Dancing from 7 p. m. until 12 midnight.

WISTERIA GARDENS—Tommy Rose and his orchestra. Playing dinner-dance music nightly from 7:30 p. m. until 11 p. m.

ANSLEY MOTEL—"Rainbow Roof," Hal Kemp and his orchestra, featuring Bob Allen, Janet Blair, Jack Le Marre and Johnny Cym. Dancing nightly from 9 p. m.

5 MINUTE RELIEF FOR ITCHY SKIN OR REMEDY FREE!
If Tetradene doesn't relieve skin itching due to itching, Ringworm, Surface Rash, Athlete's Foot, Scabies or innocuous insect bites, it costs you nothing. Get Tetradene from any drugstore (or direct from Shuprine Co., Dept. 1, Savannah, Ga.) for 60c, use as directed, and if itching does not relieve in five minutes, keep the box and get your 50c back on book. (adv.)

BLACK SEA BASE FOR NAZIS—Berlin reports said German troops had entered Rumania to assure uninterrupted delivery of oil and gasoline to Germany. Rumania also said the German troops were the forerunner of a plan to build a large naval and air base near Mamaia (1) on the Black Sea; and to help enlarge the submarine factory and base at Galati (2). (Story on Page 1).

Throngs Cheer Roosevelt on 75-Mile Tour

President Visits One of Army's Biggest and Oldest Arsenal.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 7.—(AP)—President Roosevelt made a 75-mile tour of upstate New York today, saw steel being processed into mammoth guns and looked over the rolling hills where an American army defeated the British exactly 163 years ago in the decisive Revolutionary War Battle of Saratoga.

And, whether he wanted it or not, the trip took on some of the aspects of campaign swings of the past, with huge crowds turning out to cheer him on his way, and a car and bus smothered with Democratic campaign banners crowding into his motorcade at Troy.

Democrats were holding a political rally here tonight and agreed to call it off in time to make a demonstration at Union Station before the chief executive departed for Washington.

A special train took Mr. Roosevelt from his home at Hyde Park, N. Y., to Watervliet, where he drove through one of the Army's biggest and oldest arsenals. The plant is expanding production of guns for the Army and Navy, and soon will be turning out 14 instead of 6 completed weapons a day.

Setting out for Saratoga battlefield, with Mrs. Roosevelt and Governor Herbert H. Lehman, of New York, riding with him, the President toured through Troy. Yelling people in unnumbered thousands lined the streets, children on bicycles wheeled along beside the caravan of cars, factory whistles and fire engine sirens wailed lustily.

Two Suspects Arrested In Burglary of Home

Two white men charged with the burglary last week of a summer home on Bull Sluice road, owned by James R. Little, of Peachtree road, were arrested yesterday afternoon by County Police H. W. Reed and Fred Stephens.

They were listed as Joe Dickerson, 29, of Grogans district, and J. T. Kirk, 26, of near Alpharetta. The officers recovered two target rifles, a shotgun, a portable radio, and some clothing which they reported were taken from the Little house last Friday night.

2 Fulton County Convicts Escape

It is easier to get out of Lakewood Park than it is to get in the fair without paying.

Two Fulton county convicts proved it yesterday by escaping from a work gang removing Southeastern Fair exhibits from the property.

The missing convicts were L. D. Blackburn, serving a three-year sentence from Habersham county for manslaughter, and William Weaver, who is serving 12 months for larceny from Fulton, police reported.

Leaping over the fence, they escaped in a parked car which bears Florida license plates. The men were wearing blue denim overalls.

Mayors To Urge Draft Holiday

Mayors in 260 Georgia towns in a few days will sign proclamations setting aside October 16 as selective service registration day and recommending that all employees between the ages of 21 and 35 be granted a holiday with pay.

Copies of the proclamation were mailed yesterday by Major Cliff Hatcher, assistant director of selective service in Georgia. The mayors of the various towns may use their discretion in issuing the proclamations.

A uniform proclamation is desired, according to Major Hatcher, so that each community in the state will be observing similar registration regulations. This is especially necessary in the clause that recommends a full holiday with pay to registrants.

Atlanta Woman Named Leader of Flying Club

Mrs. Charlotte Frye, of Atlanta, Sunday, was elected governor of the Southeastern Section of the Ninety-Nine Club—an organization of licensed women airplane pilots of the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee—at the club's annual meeting in Charlotte, N. C.

Other officers are: Mrs. Nell Behl, of Anderson, S. C., vice governor; Miss Ann Johnson, of Atlanta, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Betty Hamilton, of Charlotte, parliamentarian.

GORDON NOW PLAYING
MICKEY ROONEY
"ANDY" MEETS
DEBUTANTE

PLAZA Ponce de Leon at Highland "SPORTING BLOOD"
ROBT. YOUNG

RIALTO Held Over
Cary Grant—Martha Scott
THE HOWARDS OF VIRGINIA

Now! OLIVIA DE HAVILLAND JEFFERY LYNN
in
"MY LOVE CAME BACK"
ROXY

Now Playing! Deanna DUBBIN
in
"Spring Parade"

Starts Friday!
"KNUTE ROCKNE, ALL AMERICAN" with Pat O'Brien

5 Jay 10 ATLANTA
DOUBLE FEATURE
I STOLE A MILLION

GEORGE CLAIRES
RAFT TREVOR

DICK FORAN—HENRY ARNETTA
VICTOR JOBY

ALSO
BOB BAKER
"Ghost Town Riders"

"The American Way"
starring Herbert Rawlinson
Miss Florie Nadel

23 Scenes—Cast of 100
—Presented by Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce
Auditorium
Oct. 10, 11, 12, 13
RESERVED SEATS NOW!—$1.00 UPWARDS

"The town's best bet is The Baker's Wife"
Walter Winchell

Baker's Wife
(La Femme du Boulanger) English titles by JOHN ERSKINE
PLAZA—Oct. 12-18

Ralph McDaniel Dies After Traffic Accident

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Oct. 7. (AP)—Ralph McDaniel, 27, an employee of the State Highway Department, died early today in a Milledgeville hospital of injuries received in an accident Sunday while en route from Covington to visit his parents at Louisville.

CONSULT DR. KAHN
Scientific Eye Examination
Glasses Expertly Fitted
Easy Terms Arranged

Board To Act On Registration Plan of Sutton

Atlanta Principals Will Get Instructions on Thursday.

The Atlanta Board of Education today will be asked to approve plans for registration of the city's 45,000 draft-age males October 16, Dr. Willis A. Sutton, school superintendent, announced yesterday.

Sutton has perfected plans for participation of Atlanta schools in the nation-wide program affecting all males from 21 to 35 years of age, and has issued a call for all local principals to assemble at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the city hall to receive instructions as to what is expected of them and the teachers.

This was in anticipation of board approval of the program which has been tentatively set up.

Principals of white schools will meet in the city council chamber while Negro principals will meet at 10 o'clock Friday morning on the 12th floor of the city hall to receive their instructions.

The principals in turn will pass instructions along to the 1,800 teachers of the Atlanta system.

Registration will begin October 16 in the city's 72 schools at 7 o'clock in the morning with the first shift of teachers working until 2 o'clock in the afternoon, when the second shift will take over and work until 9 o'clock at night, under the Sutton plan.

Every precaution will be taken to facilitate prompt registration, thus obviating long waiting lines. In each school, persons applying to register will be directed to rooms in alphabetical groups. This division, it is believed, will speed up the formality.

May Work Later. If necessary, however, the registration will be later than 9 o'clock in order that every eligible male may comply with the law and take his proper place in the national defense program.

Eligible patients in hospitals, jails or other institutions will be registered by special deputized representatives of the school department. In schools, representatives of the Parent-Teacher Associations will serve as information clerks, and will co-operate by directing prospective registrants to the proper rooms.

Sutton said he has investigated the law to ascertain whether or not representatives could be sent to large business and industrial establishments to register workers, but since the work is restricted to public buildings it has been decided to use the schools only.

MEETINGS CALLED OF DEKALB TEACHERS Meetings of DeKalb county school teachers and principals were called yesterday by Superintendent W. M. Rainey, who will explain directions and procedure for selective service registration in the county.

White school principals from 32 institutions will meet at the Avondale High school at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. Teachers from the 16 Negro schools will meet at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

FULTON MEETING CALLED TO PLAN REGISTRATION Plans for registering between 15,000 and 18,000 Fulton county residents will be mapped Thursday and Friday, County School Superintendent Jere Wells said last night. Wells has called a meeting of all Negro teachers for 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the courthouse and white teachers will meet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at Fulton High school.

Wells said last night members of the Fulton county unit of the State Defense Corps, numbering more than 400 men, have agreed to assist the county school department in any way possible and that the P-T-A. has offered to serve lunch and dinner for the teachers engaged in making the count.

Juvenile Court Salaries Show $24,000 Gain

Ten Paid $11,606 in 1925; 17 Received $35,413 in 1939.

Cost of salaries for employees of the Fulton juvenile court has increased approximately $24,000 annually since 1925, compilation of figures in the office of the county commission showed yesterday.

Following is a year-by-year table of the number of employees in this county department and their annual salaries:

| Year | Employees | Salaries |
|------|-----------|----------|
| 1925 | 10        | $11,606 |
| 1926 | 11        | 15,661   |
| 1927 | 12        | 19,790   |
| 1928 | 12        | 22,270   |
| 1929 | 13        | 31,123   |
| 1930 | 18        | 34,476   |
| 1931 | 18        | 32,068   |
| 1932 | 19        | 32,466   |
| 1933 | 16        | 24,068   |
| 1934 | 16        | 27,269   |
| 1935 | 16        | 28,589   |
| 1936 | 16        | 30,350   |
| 1937 | 17        | 33,672   |
| 1938 | 17        | 34,228   |
| 1939 | 17        | 35,413   |

The number of employees in this court remained at 17 during the first six months of 1940 and the total salaries paid them for this period was $18,749.

2 Die, 3 Rescued In Blast at Sea

OCEAN CITY, Md., Oct. 7.—(AP) A Delaware state senator and his wife perished today in an explosion which rocked their 39-foot cruiser 2 1/2 miles off in the Atlantic. Three others were rescued after the captain, his clothing aflame, plunged into the sea, then climbed back aboard to distribute life preservers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Steel, of Ocean View, Del., were the victims, and Captain T. F. Phillips of the Coast Guard said both apparently died from heart attacks. Steel was knocked into the sea by the blast and his wife died in the water, kept afloat by a life preserver.

All survivors were picked up by a Coast Guardsman and passing boatman. They were treated for burns and their 30-minute exposure in the water.

ATHLETES FOOT ITCH
Clearing-up help, healing aid helped by antiseptic of Black and White Ointment soothes out burn, itch. First try does it or your money back. $2 Vital in clearing is good soap, get famous Black and White Skin Soap at all dealers today.

The Army IN GEORGIA

Defense housing projects for army officers will be erected in four Georgia towns from an appropriation announced yesterday at Washington by John M. Garmody, federal works administrator.

On the municipal airport reserve at Augusta, the government will build 125 housing units; 350 will be built at Fort Benning; 50 at Fort Oglethorpe in Rossville, and 325 at the municipal airport in Savannah.

The dwelling units will be occupied by army officers and their families. The average unit will include a living room, combination dining room and kitchenette, two bedrooms and bath.

EXPERIENCED POLOISTS - ARRIVE AT BENNING

FORT BENNING, Ga., Oct. 7.—A number of experienced poloists have arrived at Fort Benning since the close of the 1939-40 season. Among those who will be seen in action this fall will be Brigadier General George L. Patton, former captain of the army polo team and an accomplished horseman; Captain W. G. Stephenson, former member of the First Division team at Governor's Island, N. Y.; Captain W. G. Bennett, well-known high-ranking poloist for several years; Lieutenant Colonel Thomas W. Herren, Fort Benning polo representative and veteran Benning player; Lieutenant Colonel Samuel T. Williams, captain of the Freebooter team; Captain Carleton MacNeeley, local veteran for several years; Captain Jimmy Hill, also a veteran Benning player and accomplished horseman; Captain John Jeter, who was out last season because of injuries, and Captain William W. Cornog, hard player and powerful hitter.

Lieutenant Colonel William R. Hamby, an experienced umpire and an excellent player, will umpire and Major James S. Rodwell, Texas, where he was on duty with a cavalry unit, will assist with umpiring.

Games between local teams will be free to the public. There is ample parking space available around the field for automobiles. On game days a sign will be posted on the building at Outpost No. 1, reading "Polo Today."

ARMY CHAPLAINS TO GET TRAILERS

FORT BENNING, Ga., Oct. 7.—The War Department announced recently that each division chaplain in the army is to be provided with a one and one-half-ton delivery truck and a mobile public address system mounted on a trailer. This public address system is to be used for recreation and religious purposes. Each will be suitable for an outdoor gathering of about 2,000 persons.

The office of the chief of chaplains plans to install in each trailer the following items of professional equipment: A field desk, with typewriter; filing cabinets, locker for confidential records; a field safe; a portable altar; portable pulpit desk; mass kit with elements for the celebration of the Catholic mass; communion kit with elements for holy communion (Protestant); container with hymn and service books; container with testaments, prayer books, Bibles, rosaries and medals; chaplain's flags and tentage for personal effects.

COLONEL RICHARDSON ORDERED TO BALTIMORE

Colonel John B. Richardson, adjutant of the Fourth Corps Area, has been transferred to duty in Baltimore. His successor will be Colonel Clarence A. Mitchell, now with the First Cavalry Division at Fort Bliss, Texas.

J. J. FLYNT JR. ORDERED TO ACTIVE DUTY

John James Flynt Jr., of Griffin, who is an assistant United States district attorney, has been ordered to a year of active duty at McDill Field, Florida, army orders yesterday announced.

Flynt is a first lieutenant in the cavalry reserve and will have that rank. As an assistant district attorney in the office of Lawrence Camp, he was scheduled to participate actively in the trial of numerous cases in district court this fall.

Alfred Madison Waits, second lieutenant, of Atlanta, was ordered to McDill Field for a year of service also.

ENLISTED MEN GIVEN PROMOTIONS

FORT BENNING, Ga., Oct. 7.—Recent promotions involving enlisted personnel at Fort Benning included: Joseph H. Bishop, sergeant, Headquarters Company, 94th Antitank Battalion, to the grade of staff sergeant; Nancy J. Sizemore, private first class, Headquarters Company, 94th Antitank Battalion, to the grade of sergeant; Ellis L. Jones, private first class, Headquarters Company, 94th Antitank Battalion, to the grade of sergeant; Arley G. Hall, private first class, Company C, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Ben F. James, private first class, Company C, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Albert W. Loftin, private, Company E, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Hubert P. Poe, private first class, Machine Gun Company, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; John W. Shea, private first class, Machine Gun Company, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; William M. Barry Jr., private first class, Company H, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Elsie Tapley, corporal, Company E, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of sergeant; Chester K. Hoover, corporal, Company I, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of sergeant; Theodore R. Wilfong, private first class, Company I, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Lawrence W. Green, private first class, Company H, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Johnny W. Weaver, private first class, Company H, 68th Armored Regiment, to the grade of corporal; Samuel N. Roberts, corporal, Company K, 39th Infantry, to the grade of sergeant; Paris R. Garrett, corporal, Company K, 39th Infantry, to the grade of sergeant.

Many men and women who hold responsible positions got their start through a Situation-Wanted ad in The Constitution. The ads that employers read—the cost is small—phone yours NOW!

The Georgia Conservatory and Music Center considers it an honor to have as instructor of French and Italian, Dr. George Raffalovich, Bachelor es Lettres, M. A., Ph.D. He has taught French and Italian at Dartmouth College, St. John's College, Emory University and the American Day School in Paris. In 1926 he was Secretary-Interpreter of a special mission of study of the Rockefeller Foundation in Italy. Dr. Raffalovich is the author of several books, a reviewer, lecturer and translator. He owned and edited the Roman Mercury in Italy. His classes at the conservatory offer a real opportunity for study in French and Italian with a cultured and renowned teacher. Registrations now being received at the Georgia Conservatory and Music Center, 160 Peachtree St., N. W., Phone MA. 8322—(adv.)

Woman Sentenced; Closet Too Little

Georgia Jones, Negro woman, was sentenced to eight months in jail yesterday because she couldn't squeeze 350 pounds into a small linen closet.

State revenue officers testified in Fulton criminal court they raided her house and found large quantities of non-tax paid whisky. Later they found a large quantity of Georgia Jones that couldn't hide in the closet.

Judge John S. McClelland found her guilty of violating state liquor laws and sentenced her to eight months. "That was a great piece of detective work," commented Leonard Crawford, assistant solicitor.

AUTHENTIC FASHION NEED NOT BE EXPENSIVE

A. SHOUT "FORE" in a Parker Wilder flannel Norfolk jacket. Indian Earth, Soldier Blue, wine, green. 12-18 ..... $3.99

B. MOUNT YOUR STEED dressed in whipcord riding jacket with Talon front, club collar, action back. Plaid flannel lining. 12-20 ..... $2.99

C. HIT YOUR STRIDE in a corduroy button-front dress with set-in waistband. Wine, green, rust. 9-15 ..... $7.95

D. GRANDSTAND FAVORITE Clipped Velvet-and-Gabardine Reversible Topcoat with detachable hood. Water-repellent! Red, wine, royal. 12-20 ..... $7.00

E. FLANNA-SPUN shirtwaist frock with pigskin belt. Teal, green, blue, rose. 12-18 ..... $3.99

F. BIKE wearing a sleek jersey shirt with flattering long sleeves, stud-effect buttons. White, green, red. 32-40 ..... $1.99

Play the game and play it fair! And play it for all the fashion flattery it's worth! Here are thoroughbred togs in traditional styles, tempered with the season's brightest ideas. Our active sports togs are functional as well as eye-appealing. Our spectator togs are interchangeable and provide your casual wardrobe with endless variety. Each represents a sound value at champion low prices! Play the Game . . . with Sportswear from HIGH'S!

A. SHOUT "FORE" in a Parker Wilder flannel Norfolk jacket. Indian Earth, Soldier Blue, wine, green. 12-18 ..... $3.99

B. MOUNT YOUR STEED dressed in whipcord riding jacket with Talon front, club collar, action back. Plaid flannel lining. 12-20 ..... $2.99

C. HIT YOUR STRIDE in a corduroy button-front dress with set-in waistband. Wine, green, rust. 9-15 ..... $7.95

D. GRANDSTAND FAVORITE Clipped Velvet-and-Gabardine Reversible Topcoat with detachable hood. Water-repellent! Red, wine, royal. 12-20 ..... $7.00

E. FLANNA-SPUN shirtwaist frock with pigskin belt. Teal, green, blue, rose. 12-18 ..... $3.99

F. BIKE wearing a sleek jersey shirt with flattering long sleeves, stud-effect buttons. White, green, red. 32-40 ..... $1.99

SPORTSWEAR—HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

REDUCED PRICES

|                                  |            |
|----------------------------------|------------|
| 7 1/2, 15, and 25 watt, now only | 10c |
| 40, 50 and 60 watt, now...       | 13c |
| 75 and 100 watt, now....         | 15c |
| 100-200-300 watt 3-lite....      | 60c |

Made to stay brighter longer

G-E MAZDA LAMPS
GENERAL ELECTRIC

Buy Your Bulbs and Lamps From Any Power Company Employee
Ask About Our Sensational 2-for-1 L.E.S. Lamp Offer!
GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and Publisher
Ralph McGill
Executive Editor

H. H. Trotter
V. Pres. and Bus. Manager
Ralph T. Jones
Associate Editor

Entered at the Post Office at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Walnut 6565.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
By Carrier: 1 Mo. $3.00, 3 Mo. $8.00, 6 Mo. $15.00, 1 Yr. $28.00.
Daily and Sunday: 1 Mo. $1.10, 3 Mo. $3.25, 6 Mo. $6.50, 1 Yr. $12.00.
Daily only: 1 Mo. $1.00, 3 Mo. $3.00, 6 Mo. $6.00, 1 Yr. $11.00.
Single Copies—Dc. 5c, Sunday 10c.

BY MAIL ONLY:
1 Mo. $1.00, 3 Mo. $3.00, 6 Mo. $6.00, 1 Yr. $11.00.
10c 4c 10c 25c

Mail Rates on Application.

KELLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representatives, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 8 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hotelling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third Street (Times Building corner). Request a copy of The Constitution to be delivered to your room each day when you register at a New York hotel.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., OCTOBER 8, 1940.

To Penalize Cottonseed Oil?

No sooner has the industrial south succeeded in defeating one movement from other sections to alter freight rates so they will make competition harder for southern shippers than another movement is started.

This time it is an effort by midwestern packing industries to place a new interstate freight rate on refined cottonseed oil—a product of the south, originating in the cotton fields and giving employment to many hundreds of refinery workers.

Walter R. McDonald, chairman of Georgia's Public Service Commission, has called attention to this new attack. Mr. McDonald also is chairman of the freight rate section of the Southern Governors' conference, in which 11 states participate.

Protest by that conference has resulted in postponing the hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission from October 8 to December 10, giving southern interests time to prepare a defense.

Mr. McDonald points out that the great packers of hog fat—lard—have seriously been affected by loss of export trade, growing out of the war in Europe.

They desire to eliminate or reduce the competition of cottonseed oil in the manufacture of various finished products. Their natural weapon is an increase in freight rates from point of production to point of ultimate use—in the factories of the east.

Nearly all cottonseed oil shipped from the south is refined. It can be used by housewives in that state but the bulk of it goes into the making of other products.

Refined and crude cottonseed oil are shipped in similar containers—tank cars or barrels. It costs a railroad no more to carry one than the other. The two have enjoyed equality in freight rates.

It is shown by Mr. McDonald that confiscatory rates on refined cottonseed oil might result in the closing of southern refineries. We would then have to ship crude oil to refineries in the east, just as we once shipped raw cotton to New England instead of spinning and weaving it into fabrics.

Freight rates present a dull subject to the man on the street. But they are vital. If they are vital to his employer they may mean the difference between the employee holding his job or finding no job to hold.

The postponement of the hearing to December 10 may—and should—result in retaining for southern cottonseed oil industry an opportunity for equal competition with the lard producers of the middle west.

A wife is one who decides they can't afford a $200 trip, and, besides, she'd rather put $50 with it and buy a coat.

Not Atlanta—But Georgia

Georgia's National Guard has been allocated by the federal government an airplane squadron.

A unit of planes and pilots designed to be a defense in case of war—a part of the great scheme of national defense upon which this nation is working so hard.

The base of the squadron has not definitely been fixed. That will be up to the Governor of the state, who presumably would be guided largely by the recommendation of the adjutant-general, commander of the National Guard forces.

It appears reasonable to point out that the logical base of such a squadron is Atlanta.

Because if ever there comes an attack by invaders certain key cities will be made the center of such attack. The navy yard at Charleston, to mention one objective in the south. And especially Atlanta.

Why? Because Atlanta is more than any other center in the southeast the "key." Even in the 60's General Sherman realized that and his conquest of Atlanta was the turning point, in that war.

Atlanta is the converging point of railways and airlines. It is the home of vast industries. It is a center of military operations. The government plans spending some sixteen millions on a great supply depot. An enormous military airport is planned for Camp Gordon.

Centrally located, such an air squadron would find Atlanta the best of all bases for the defense of Georgia.

It hardly is likely that the authorities will choose another base for a squadron of airplanes intended to defend the state.

Actually, says a Nazi experimenter, wood may be a source of superior food. The Berlin gourmet calling for a steaked plank is a solemn thought.

Atlanta's Community Fund

The time has rolled 'round again when Atlanta's Community Fund must be subscribed.

It isn't welcome news, any more than a tax notice or a bill from the power company is greeted with joy.

But the civilized world has come to understand that taxes and electric bills must be met as a matter of course. And it is more and more becoming imbued with the idea that the wealthy and the well-to-do and even the man-with-a-job has a duty toward the less fortunate. A genuine duty.

No newspaper, no group of committees, ought to feel forced to "sell" the Community Group idea to the Atlanta public.

The men—big men and medium-size men and energetic young fellows who hope to become big men—who are devoting their time and brains and energies to this cause have nothing to gain from it—except that as their city prospers they prosper. Which means you prosper. They serve without reward or hope of reward.

Atlanta must look after its own. It must see that nobody starves or freezes to death. Cold-bloodedly, that wouldn't be good for Atlanta. Not to mention the element of human charity which is innate in the most hard-boiled of all of us.

The Community Fund has figured just what it needs. Not by guesswork but by a compilation of the requirements of the numerous agencies which share in the money. Just as a great business corporation figures its next year's budget.

This year it needs $572,726. It expects to raise it—in cash or subscriptions, by November 2. Then the great charitable organizations of Atlanta will be able to turn on the green light and go ahead.

Carl Wolf has accepted the arduous job of general chairman. He has able assistants in charge of definite fields of action. The advance gifts division already is at work. Its workers call on a "big shot" and inform him what he's expected to give. They have figured him out. That really makes it easier for him. Because he hates to contribute a thousand, only to learn afterward that an equally important neighbor has got off with half of that.

But the "big shots," individual or corporation, can't carry all the load. The Community Fund thinks there are just two classes of people—those on relief and those who are not. It thinks everybody who has a job can spare something for the luckless who haven't.

But there is no use in preaching a "my brother's keeper" sermon to the people of Atlanta. They always have been generous to the Community Fund and they can be counted upon again this year.

A New York manufacturer thinks the country needs two vice presidents, but we don't know. One seems plenty, except when you have to holler all over a Texas farm for him.

"The name of the animal you just shot," replied the guide to the nearsighted hunter, "is Jones, he says."

At a military wedding there were not enough swords to form the customary arch. One trusts it was unnecessary to shoot the cake.

In the west an eccentric is found who had not left an attic in 22 years. That's the danger in starting a long serial in a pile of old magazines.

Editorial Symposium

LONDON BOMBARDED

"One of the few cheering aspects of the ruin and tragedy in London is the comparative immunity of the city's architectural glories," says the NEW YORK TIMES. "It is almost as if some secret device had told the bombs where not to fall," although, "There have, of course, been losses to beautiful buildings." One loss has been "the famous Inner Temple of the equally famous 'benchers,'" reports the WASHINGTON POST. "At least two bombs have already alighted there. . . . Without the Temples, London could never be the same city."

Meanwhile, "Time is running against Hitler and in favor of Britain," says the INDIANAPOLIS NEWS, although, as the DESERET NEWS of Salt Lake City asserts, "The civilian population of London and other parts of England are subjected to a much heavier physical and nervous strain than the noncombatants of Germany. . . . The fact that the United States is now providing Britain with 500 planes a month, to be increased to a maximum of 1,000 a month, gives some assurance that the disparity in air strength may actually be decreasing." And the CHICAGO NEWS points out that "now, with her war production booming, and our help still hourly increasing, England is again strong—so strong, as we think, that Hitler dares not make the invasion attempt at all." On that note, the ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT says, "Hundreds of American planes are in the air, fighting off raiders and bombing invasion bases. It may not be too much to say that they caused Hitler to postpone or cancel his invasion."

The RALEIGH NEWS AND OBSERVER, however, looks at the possibility of a blitzkrieg against the United States, and says, "If Great Britain wins over Germany the fear of invasion of this country will be dispelled. If, on the contrary, Great Britain loses, that fear will be greatly increased. . . . although, 'Unquestionably, the people of this country want to do everything possible to aid Great Britain. . . . the people do not want to see our own defenses stripped of material that will be needed in the event Germany wins.'"

THE CAPITAL PARADE

By JOSEPH ALSOP AND ROBERT KINTNER.

KENNEDY, UNWILLING SOJOURNER WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—The London story of Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy's impending retirement, which seemingly emanated from the mercurial ambassador himself, may prove the last move in an obscure but exciting little game. The players are Kennedy and the President. For Kennedy, the goal has been to come home as soon as he decently could; for the President, to keep Kennedy in London as long as possible. In informed quarters, the London story has been taken as a sign Kennedy is ready to lead his ace of trumps, by simply refusing to stay on any longer.

The circumstances of the game reveal the occasional peculiarities of our diplomacy. Kennedy has been kept in London although his position has been outwardly untenable for a considerable period. He was not much loved at the White House when he left for his embassy. The President's lingering warmth toward him was finally chilled by unfortunately accurate reports of the language he used about the administration in the presence of important Englishmen. Nor has he been much loved of late in London. The war swept from power his chief friends in the government, the appeasers, Neville Chamberlain, Sir Horace Wilson and Sir John Simon. His defeatism about the war killed his early general popularity, and made him heartily disliked. Finally, the Washington policy-makers have steadily ignored the advice he has tendered, the predictions he has made, and even on occasion, the facts he has collected.

Instances of this are numerous, and range all the way from our co-operation in the English child refugee scheme despite Kennedy's assertion that a change in immigration rules was not needed, to the utter rejection of Kennedy's views on many basic questions. Generally speaking, even when right he has been too defeatist in tone to command an audience here. After a brief period of good cheer this summer, he is now plunged in gloom again. Only last week he virtually warned the State Department, in one of his dispatches, that the British Empire was too weak and too near defeat to be of any value as an ally. Yet it must be clear to everyone that the conception of the British Empire as our only ally, and our only protection against world catastrophe, is central in American foreign policy.

KEEPING JOE QUIET Under the circumstances, as London is not a particularly pleasant place to live in at the moment, it is easy to see why Kennedy wants to come home. On the surface, the President's insistence that Kennedy remain in London is more difficult to understand. But the mystery is solved by a striking and highly vouchered fact. Putting it bluntly, the theory is that the President regards Kennedy as likely to do less harm in London than in New York. An emotional fellow, he has strong convictions and less than no remaining fondness for his chief. He will certainly express his opinions to every available American listener the instant he gets through the customs. He will be in a position to speak impressively and persuasively. The President is represented as fearing he will reduce large numbers of leaders of opinion to such a state of hopeless blue funk that our foreign policy will be half-immobilized by fear. In short, the President has repeatedly urged Kennedy to remain in London in order to keep him quiet.

KENNEDY'S GLOOM It must be admitted that the reasoning attributed to the President is distinctly persuasive. The question remains whether Kennedy's views and evidence are misleading, in which case the President is wise to try to bottle up his ambassador, or whether Kennedy is, after all, right.

Kennedy has predicted the worst from the day of the outbreak of war, when he almost came unstuck while telephoning the news to the President, and had to be soothed and calmed at some length. The worst happened with dreadful regularity until the beginning of the battle of Britain. During that period he was correct in general outline, although even then alarmist in detail. At the start of the battle of Britain, while British fighters were still intercepting German bombers over the channel, he had his brief spasm of optimism. On August 20, British strategy was changed to save pilots. Interception over the channel was stopped. The bombers began coming over the vital areas of the British Isles. And although American military authorities are firmly convinced the change in strategy was the wisest step yet taken by the British high command, Kennedy shortly went into another nose dive of gloom.

Gloom is now so intense that while the American military mission headed by General George Strong was in London, Kennedy constantly tried to persuade them they had not seen the worst. For example, when the Vickers plant at Waybridge was badly hit, Kennedy took the view it was wholly out of commission. Strong hurried to the spot to inspect the damage, talked to the shop foreman, and came back convinced the plant would be producing again in seven days and going full blast in 25. The foreman was only five days off. Against the first week of September, night bombing, production in many industries was cut 50 per cent by workers going to bomb shelters during the raid. Kennedy was certain this would be a permanent condition, although the solution of raid-watchers was found within a week. If Kennedy does come home, therefore, it will be well to listen to him carefully but to take his jeremiads with a grain of salt.

SILHOUETTES

By RALPH T. JONES

We Must Stand Together.

Every now and then, even in these tragically crucial days for the democracies of the world, an expression is heard, or read, that can only serve, if it has any weight at all, to sow a little dissonance between Britain and the United States. At such a time as this, when the fate of man's aspirations for freedom depend on what happens within the next year, or month or two, it seems to me that such ideas would do far better off unexpressed. Against the forces of hate and cruelty and "overlordship" now loose in the world, neither Britain nor America can stand alone. Together, they have a chance, either one is doomed alone.

With the aid of our supplies of war materiel and material, Britain can in all probability eventually crush the forces of totalitarianism. With Britain still standing as the first bulwark of our joint defense, this country can probably find time to arrange itself with Britain fallen, we would face almost certain defeat, if not at arms, certainly on the economic battlefield.

Both Britain and the United States have faults. Neither country could be a part of the human world without them. Both have made tragic mistakes in the past. But the past is done. Munich is but a name in the history books and the abandonment, by this country, of Europe after the World War is but a regrettable item in the record. Let us forget these errors, and more ancient ones, and as loyal comrades stand, two great Christian democracies, saying to the forces of evil and of neo-paganism, "You shall not conquer."

And it seems further, that anyone who would encourage any small dislikes between the two at such a time as this, is working a disservice to both.

In Days Of Youth. I think I know a little about the life of the people of England toward the people of the United States. Remember, I was born there and educated there. I didn't cross the Atlantic until near manhood. So, when I hear people assert, didactically, that "England has never liked us and never has," I don't like us and never has," I can't help recalling my own impressions about America, before I had ever seen this country, and the evidences of the impressions the average English people, those around me, among whom I grew up, had.

I never heard anyone say anything about not liking America. They regarded the United States somewhat erroneously, to be true, but that erroneous viewpoint tended to better liking, rather than less. They never thought of the people of this country as different from themselves. Because the English language is spoken in both countries, because America's first settlers were predominantly British, because the states had first been British colonies, they always thought of this country as, simply, another and larger England, inhabited by British people who had objected to the same sort of injustices of their government and the crown of a bygone era, that they themselves had objected to. The only difference was these British subjects seas had shown their resentment with arms, whereas the British at home had used the weapons of peace and parliamentary government to end the injustices.

In the theaters and music halls I frequented as a youth, the surest trick to win wild applause was to wear, under the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes.

The favorite theme for boyish literature, the thrillers and adventure stories, was the theme of Britain and America, together, defeating a world at arms. That theme seems to have become reality, after all.

Only Over Here. I never entered my head, as boy or young man, that there could be anything save warmest friendship between these two nations, until I came to this country. Then, for the first time, I was hurt and surprised to hear Americans, and to read of Americans, who made political capital out of anti-British sentiment. It does seem to me, even today, that if there is any small friction between the two peoples, as peoples, it is preponderantly from this side of the fence.

And it seems further, that anyone who would encourage any small dislikes between the two at such a time as this, is working a disservice to both.

Twenty-Five Years Ago Today. From the news columns of Friday, October 8, 1915:

"A campaign to make the Chattahoochee a navigable river was formally opened last night with a most enthusiastic body of citizens pressing their way into the hall of the Commerce building."

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Who Cared, NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—My own political childhood ended and adolescence set in about 1932 when I voted for Franklin D. Roosevelt and the repeal of prohibition. The economic crackup, which began in 1929, did not then seem to me to be anything worse than a few caulked fenders and a smashed windshield. I was still thinking of the crash as a just come-uppance for a lot of swindlers in the banking and promotion rackets and a mishap to many comparatively petty gamblers who were nickeling down dinky bets in the market.

Many of these had run up an original total of $100 or $500 to $100,000, or half a million in paper profits; and it was too bad for them, but, after all, no worse than they had a right to expect, because, in gambling, if you don't know when to take down, you are sure to be knocked into the creek eventually. They were just back where they started.

I had seen a lot of country-bank bankers and corporation boosters around the ringside at the big fights and following the golf tournaments, and sometimes had wondered when they ever found time to put in any links at the exclusive business which was yielding them such great wealth. They were an excited, money-proud lot—most of them rather young, too—and they had bars in their homes and offices and vaults full of liquor which ran up to $90 a case for Scotch and $125 for champagne. It just didn't seem sound to me that men with responsibility for the affairs of companies in which the people were investing their money should have saloons in their offices. In my newspaper experience there had been men who would keep a slab of coddy in the desk and gnaw off an inch now and again during the day, and an occasional old growler with a tomato nose who was supposed to suck up his quart at home every night after work, but we never had any bars.

He Was My Hope

Well, so, as I say, when we left the tree, back in 1929 and began combing splintered glass out of our hair, I thought we would soon have her running again. I am a little reticent about such emotions in print, so I guess I didn't write it, but I thought it. I felt it.

I didn't cover the banking inquiry in Washington, but I did follow the story, and nobody took more pleasure from the spectacle of those crooks getting their lumps from Ferd Pecora. But I still didn't realize what the boys in the administration were up to, and I doubt that many Americans did, or do yet. The town was full of strangers which, of course, was natural, because the Democrats were closing in for the jobs and the Republicans were thumbing it out of town by every road. But a lot of these strangers were not merely strange but politically queer, and there were so many rumble-haired, tweedy-looking, study-mugs and rather sallow, flat-headed females among them, talking ideology stuff that I began to wonder, "What is this, anyway—a government or college?"

Silly Question One of the male double-domes who has since become a very big man in the New Deal once explained to me that economics was very much a matter of psychology, and I asked him why they didn't get an alienist to look after the boys in the administration were up to, and I doubt that many Americans did, or do yet. The town was full of strangers which, of course, was natural, because the Democrats were closing in for the jobs and the Republicans were thumbing it out of town by every road. But a lot of these strangers were not merely strange but politically queer, and there were so many rumble-haired, tweedy-looking, study-mugs and rather sallow, flat-headed females among them, talking ideology stuff that I began to wonder, "What is this, anyway—a government or college?"

Well, what I thought was that they were going to junk and salvage the busted banks and companies, pass some laws to prevent the recurrence of any such fabulous nonsense, send a lot of gyps to prison, particularly lawyers who had devised the clever little schemes, and start over. And, of course, prohibition was to be repealed so that the government could get out of the nasty business of poisoning the hooch and a frisking people's homes and a man could make his vest buttons against a bar again and be a man. And the billion dollars a year which we would get out of the liquor taxes and the additional taxes which the states, counties and towns would take from the dealers and saloons would solve everything, and we would all go back to work again. I was that dumb.

Constitution Quiz

Can you answer seven of these test questions? Turn to want ad pages for the answers.

1. The character "Henry Van Porter" is presented in the radio program, "The Johnson Family," "Plantation Party," or "Amos 'n' Andy?"

2. Which tree leaf is an emblem of Canada?

3. In what year was Abraham Lincoln assassinated?

4. Who wrote "On Borrowed Time?"

5. Where is the Eads Bridge?

6. A truth assumed to be self-evident is called . . .

7. What does the abbreviation f. o. b. stand for?

8. When a person thinks deeply, what is he said to be doing?

9. Name the first child of English parents born in America.

10. Which state has no air-mail service?

ONE WORD MORE

By RALPH MCGILL.

THE TECHNIQUE OF FEAR From a source in New York which I consider entirely reliable, because of its contacts abroad and in this country, comes this personal report:

"Current threats to Egypt and Gibraltar should not obscure biggest current conflict, which is for influencing American public opinion. Triple Axis now badly frightened. War may be lost unless technique of fear campaign succeeds in preventing larger aid to Britain and also China. As equinoctial storms were deadline in battle of Britain, so election is deadline in battle of America. Aggressors fear worst if either Roosevelt or Willkie get away to unimpeded start on collaboration with England. Just as Hitler timed coups by French political crises, so Axis now hopes to use election uncertainty to bog down direct American help to England as well as our efforts to strengthen our own defense through new Pacific bases."

"Insiders say triple Axis treaty, although announced on schedule, missed full force because original plan had England scheduled to fall first, in five weeks after campaign beginning July 10. Then America, facing aggressors alone, was to receive cold chill as stimulus to appeasement as first step to force our surrender."

This undoubtedly is true. Failure to defeat England, or rather failure to capture the British Isles, has forced a change in plans. The Axis powers do not want war with us, but, unfortunately for this country, they cannot retreat without defeat and they cannot be defeated without destroying themselves. Consequently, they will be forced to go to war. If the tides keeps running, we can't miss it.

NO APPEASEMENTS It is absurd for those few Democrats who have done so to attempt to portray Wendell Willkie as a friend of the Axis powers.

One of the finest things Willkie has done was to state he was against Hitler and the Hitlerian philosophy. He did not waver on it and he did not evade it as he might have done. He has not stooped to any appreciable extent in seeking votes.

He disapproved the support of the dangerous and unworthy Father Coughlin group. He came out for conscription in his opening speech.

The Axis powers do not want to go to war with us because they know we probably will win it, working with Canada. They know and appreciate that.

That is why they earnestly and constantly seek to build up the appeasement policy; the policy that we should cease aiding England and let things work out as they will because it does not concern us.

A great many persons believe this. As fine and sincere a person as Mrs. Anne Lindbergh believes it. She has written that the Axis powers have taken hold on modern means and methods to create a new order. That is absolutely true. She thinks it the correct attitude.

For us to follow would be to adopt the same policy. It is a realistic one. It would have led us to assist in the defeat of England in exchange for Canada. It would have led us to launch an aggression against Mexico and Central America. From that point we would have gone on until we had absorbed most or all of South America.

That is what the Axis powers seek to do with Europe. It safely may be assumed that Russia will, in the years to come, few or many, be forced to fight for part of her possessions. They seek to dominate and control the economics and the materials of all Europe.

FATTED CALVES The realist must know that we were a fat calf and that had we not armed we would have been next on the list. We still are on the list.

But the fact we have begun to arm, the fact we possess great resources and are the world's great producers in mass production of first-rate manufactured goods and machines, gives the Axis powers concern.

The source absolutely is correct when it says the great battle now is to slow down American opinion. Undoubtedly the Japanese movement was done long ago and the release was to have come when England was done.

It was planned to say to the United States, "The whole world is against you. Watch your step." Within a few weeks we may expect a puppet government in unoccupied France. France belongs to Germany and the plan is to make of it a farm to supply the Reich. It no longer will be a manufacturing country. It will become a fat, war farm.

France will be taught to hate us, on the basis we did not help her.

There was much propaganda in England to teach them to hate us. Some of it was successful. The deal by President Roosevelt whereby we exchanged destroyers for bases, dissipated much of that feeling.

Now that England has held out, it was necessary to go ahead to seek and make this country afraid. One thing will save us. We are not old enough to have become too decadent and too fat. There is enough of the pioneer left in us to save us; the span between the rifle and the conskin cap and today is too short for us to shiver at an announcement from Japan or anyone else.

It will be interesting to see. And I think it means war. For the very simple reason the Axis powers cannot do anything else but fight.

Life Seems to Offer Nothing Greater If Football Fame Makes Him Feel Immortal

By ROBERT QUILLEN.

A current popular magazine gives national notoriety to a young man who seems significant only as a symbol of a mythical youth movement. Apparently he has achieved no more than other boys of his age, yet the story of his life occupies pages in our most widely circulated magazine.

How does he "rate" so much publicity? Simply by being a rebel. His boyhood was free of discipline. If he disliked a teacher, he quit school. He wouldn't attend Sunday school because he didn't like it. When a course of study required hard work, he chose a snap course that taught him nothing useful.

Thus he came to the prime of his young manhood without an education or a trade or profession. He has some reputation as a radical, as a baiter of capital and a rebel against authority, but this does not provide a living.

Why doesn't he try to climb higher? Why doesn't he buckle down to work and make something big of himself? If he dreams of being a great radical leader, why doesn't he follow the example of Lenin and Trotsky who burned the midnight oil for many years to acquire the knowledge that is power? Whatever may be said of their theories, their minds were trained and disciplined by hard work.

But this youth has never had reason to believe hard work necessary. Why? Simply because he discovered in boyhood that he could win applause, and attract the attention that satisfied his ego, merely by mounting a soap box and holding forth as a rebel against authority.

The boyish cheers that rewarded his first public harangue determined the course of his life. Why should he work and study to win fame when he had already found an easy way to get all his ego required?

It is our nature to desire the approbation of our fellows. Few can feel respectable without it. And thus local public opinion sets the standard, whether high or low, that determines what each of us shall make of himself, or try to make of himself, in order to win the public approval that satisfies his ego.

A few great souls get inspiration from a source unseen. But most of us do no more than local public opinion requires. If the slum boy can win applause by acting tough, his vanity is content and toughness becomes the limit of his ambition.

OFF THE RECORD—By Ed Reed

"Reckon there's been some

Judge Russell Raps Citizens' 'Duty' Laxity

Too Many Consider Their Rights First, U. S. Jurors Told.

The duty of all citizens of the United States "to stand firmly against all movements and efforts to weaken the force of law or to change our system of government" was stressed yesterday by Judge Robert L. Russell as he delivered his first grand jury charge to the jury sworn in the October term of federal district court.

W. Eugene Harrington, Atlanta insurance man, was named foreman of the jury, which will serve for the next six months.

"In times fraught with such perils and problems as the present, we can have scant sympathy for those who only seek to use the rights and privileges afforded by the constitution as a shield and protection of their efforts to undermine and destroy it," Judge Russell commented as he emphasized that Americans sometimes are more inclined to dwell on their rights than on their duties as citizens.

"We must consecrate our lives and efforts to the maintenance of our American system of government, of the people, by the people, for the people," he asserted. "The individual citizen is the republic's strength and hope. He has a duty and responsibility which he may not transfer to his government nor to others, because he is the government."

The jurist outlined the duties of the grand jurors and cited to them the federal laws they must consider in their deliberations. He told them, though, they have the power to investigate any federal law violations they may wish.

"You should be careful not to let suspicion, passion, prejudice, public clamor or sensational stories of any sort influence you in your deliberations," he warned.

Judge Russell presided over district court. Judge E. Marvin Underwood is ill.

Stretch your horizon. Go Farther. See More. Enjoy the beauty nature has created for you with a good reconditioned used car advertised in The Constitution.

Try this quick relief from HEADACHE and NERVE STRAIN

You'll agree that Capudine is wonderfully fast and effective. Relieves so quickly because it's liquid. Used over 25 years. Follow directions on label. All drugists, 10c, 50c, 60c bottles.

Liquid CAPUDINE

KIDNEY TROUBLE

Stop Getting Up Nights

To harmlessly flush poisons and acid from kidneys and relieve irritations of bladder so that you can stop "getting up nights" get a 25 cent package of Gold Medal Haarlem Oil Capsules and take as directed. Other symptoms of kidney and bladder weaknesses may be scant, burning or smarting passage—backache—leg cramps—puffy eyes. Get original GOLD MEDAL. Refuse a substitute.

Common Sense About Constipation

A doctor would tell you that the best thing to do with constipation is get at its cause. That way you don't have to endure it first and try to "cure" it afterward—you can avoid having it.

Chances are you won't have to look far for the cause if you eat the super-refined foods most people do. Most likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines.

If this is what you lack, try crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Brain for breakfast. It contains just the "bulk" you need.

Eat All-Brain often, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." Made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek. If your condition is chronic, it is wise to consult a physician.

Consider the Accessibility OF THE BILTMORE

Direct elevator and stairway connections with Grand Central... to all that is best in luxurious comfort, high quality meals and perfect service. To heighten the enjoyment of your visit to New York... stay at The Biltmore.

Single Rooms, $5.00 up
Double Rooms, $7.00 up
With Twin Beds, $8.00 up

THE BOWMAN ROOM for Dancing and Entertainment at Dinner and Supper

BILTMORE

David B. Mulligan, President
MADISON AVE. AT 43RD ST., N. Y.
Direct elevator and stairway connections with Grand Central

Finding a Job Is Like Getting Married, Emory Professor Says

By CHARLES GILMORE.

Getting a job is like getting married.

That axiom was coined yesterday by Dr. H. W. Martin, associate professor of psychology at Emory University and the school's expert on vocational problems.

After drawing up five rules for successful job getting, Dr. Martin urges his senior students to "start looking now" instead of waiting for last-minute opportunities when the June rush begins.

"You don't wait for wedding bells to ring before asking the girl for a date," Dr. Martin points out. With the same reasoning he says the groundwork for getting a job should begin months in advance.

The job hunter, in his opinion, should:

1. Analyze himself by probing aptitudes, likes and dislikes; be

Ivan Allen Sr. Franklin Scott To Run F. D. R. Less Nervous, Drive in State Jailer Reports

Atlanta Recently Named President of Fulton Democratic Club.

Ivan Allen Sr., of Atlanta, has been named Georgia campaign manager for the Democratic ticket in November, James S. Peters, chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, announced yesterday.

Allen, an Atlanta merchant, served on the campaign committee for President Woodrow Wilson's campaigns and each of President Roosevelt's campaigns. During the World War he was director of war savings for Georgia. He also is a former state senator.

Last week he was elected president of the Fulton County Roosevelt-Wallace Club.

Headquarters will be opened in Rooms 308-310, Ansley hotel.

A. T. & T. Shows Gains In Phones in September

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—A gain of 109,900 telephones in service during September was reported by principal subsidiaries of American Telephone & Telegraph Company. In the previous month a gain of 66,300 phones was reported.

The sharp September rise was attributed to faster general business activity in the United States, although usually here is a pronounced gain in new subscribers at this time of year. In September, 1939, an increase of 83,900 phones was reported.

For the first nine 1940 months, additional phones put in service aggregated 647,500, compared with 527,300 in the like 1939 period. Total phones in operation in the system at the end of September this year numbered 17,181,800.

For your own security, for your children's sake—why don't you definitely decide on home ownership today? The Real Estate For Sale ads in today's Constitution afford this opportunity.

Good Morning—By Louie D. Newton

Mark Twain's remark about folks always talking about the weather but never able to do anything about it, did not, I am sure, intend to imply that we can't be thankful for such extended seasons of fine weather as we have had in this part of the world for the past 40 or so days. Indeed, for the year.

There may have been September's of more pleasant weather than we experienced this year. I wonder. And, as for these first few days of October, who can describe it? I notice the weather man says there is something in the offing. I hope we will have some rain, and every farmer, who doesn't happen to have some hay down, or some dry peas he hopes to get in the next few days will join me in that wish. I have never seen such a fall for gathering. But the late maturing crops do need a rain right now. And we've got to get those winter crops sowed, including the lawns.

And speaking of the weather brings me next to the World Series. What about it? The first five games have developed a pattern that I don't remember to have seen in a World Series. Detroit turning loose unlimited power in her three, and Cincinnati coming back with pitching in her two that would have won in any series any time. The pitching of Buck Newsom for Detroit, with the background of his father's death, belongs to the book of baseball history. I am pulling hard for Bucky Walters Monday, and for Derringer Tuesday. I would like to see the thing balanced up this time with the National winning a series. But that is not to forget any of the excellencies of Detroit. Both teams are good, plenty good. And when you have a good baseball team, you've got something.

Which brings me on to those football games last Saturday. It looks to me as if we are in the peak of the football season already. The way those Tennessee boys played last Saturday means that we are in for a season of football. And what about Wake Forest? And Auburn? I was glad to see the good showing of Tech and Georgia.

And now comes the word from friends up in Paulding that the

To relieve Misery of

COLDS
666
LIQUID TABLETS SALVE NOSE DROPS
COUGH DROPS

Try "Rob-N-Tum"—a Wonderful Linctant

certain that the general field he has selected is best suited for him.

2. Familiarize himself with the practical aspects of the business or profession he will enter. Visit the places where he may seek employment later so that he will not feel strange when he goes there in quest of work.

3. Develop contacts now with successful men who are doing what he wants to do in a few years. Learn from them and let them learn of him.

4. Decide upon a specific job. This is the only way to avoid the unimpressive approach of one who asks "if there's any work."

5. Cultivate a feeling of confidence. A request for a position is not a request for charity but for an opportunity to render service. Avoid overconfidence as well as humility.

Man Who Shot Postman Much Quieter in His Cell.

Some improvement in the nervous condition of Franklin Scott was observed yesterday as DeKalb county police pursued investigation into his earlier years in completing the picture of his erratic reign of terror in the Oxford road, North Decatur, region Friday afternoon when he shot a postman to death and fired a repeating rifle at two neighbor families.

Mrs. Jake Hall, jailer, said the prisoner, against whom a murder charge had been lodged, was much quieter in his cell. He also accepted food. His talk remained incoherent largely, however, and he made vague references to "fifth columnists," of whom he seemed in fear, she added.

Investigators were told of an alleged outbreak about ten years ago in which Scott was said to have shot several dogs and some pigeons of Bishop Warren A. Candler. Close friends declared Scott had grown progressively nervous in the past decade.

New Atlanta-New York Air Schedule Launched

A new round trip from Atlanta to New York was begun Sunday by Eastern Air Lines when a 21-passenger plane made the initial flight on the new schedule. This brings the total of Eastern Air Line round-trip flights from Atlanta to New York to six.

Here is the schedule for the new flight: Leaves Atlanta 10:30 o'clock (central standard time) each morning; arrives in Washington at 2:55 o'clock (eastern standard time); and arrives in New York at 4:45 o'clock (eastern standard time). The return trip leaves each morning at 6:30 o'clock (eastern standard time); arrives in Washington at 8 o'clock (eastern standard time); and arrives in Atlanta at 11:05 o'clock (central standard time).

DAVISON'S

Supreme Court Holds Session Of 23 Minutes

500 Cases Up for Decision as Jurists Open New Term.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—A 23-minute session started the supreme court today on its 1940-41 term that may produce far-reaching decisions on national problems.

Approximately 500 cases, 50 more than last year, confronted the black-robed jurists as they marched into the packed courtroom for the first meeting since last June 3.

The pending cases include litigation involving constitutionality of the wage-hour law and a dispute between the government and Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation concerning the amounts that should be paid Bethlehem under World War shipbuilding contracts. The Justice Department has called this case of major importance, in view of the present defense program.

DAVISON'S

Atlantan Speaker At Safety Meeting

America's great national defense program is a challenge to American industrial executives and workers alike, W. E. Mitchell, Atlanta utility executive, said yesterday in an address in Chicago before the annual American Safety Congress.

"It means the taking of hundreds of thousands of men out of their present work and their replacement by new, untrained people. If the program is to be successful, it means organization and training for mass production in new fields."

"The great numbers of new employees must be started off right, must be trained to work safely, as well as rapidly. Because we are preparing to defend ourselves from possible destruction doesn't lessen the need to avoid injury and death during the preparation."

Small wonder that the first thought of young couples is to own the house which shall become the setting for their family life. Yours is being offered for sale in the Want Ads of The Constitution.

MEMO Tonight

Career Woman's Dinner and Fashion Show at 6. Phone Iris Lee for reservation.

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

Affiliated with MACY'S - NEW YORK

DAVISON'S

MRS. ROBERT B. CHURCH, JR.

Will Review FOUNDATION STONE

by Lella Warren

Gorda and Yarbrough with a tremendous love that withstood hardship and anguish hewed a foundation for their children in the wilderness of Alabama and amid "all the bitter things that could crowd in on a family" the Whetstones proved the power of that love.

Wednesday, October 9, at 9:30 A. M.
Davison's Sixth Floor Restaurant

THIS IS RED CROSS DEMONSTRATION WEEK

October 7 to 12, at Davison's

This is the week we've set aside to show you why more women wear Red Cross Shoes than any other shoe in America. To show you our tremendous assortment of almost 10,000 pairs. See our dramatic window, exhibiting over 25 different styles of Red Cross Shoes. Then let us show you how young-looking Red Cross Shoes can bring you old-lady comfort. Sizes 4 to 10, AAAA to B.

6.50

Shoe Centre, Third Floor

BLACKSTONE WASHER

Washes 8 lbs. dry wash at one time

39.95

Make wash day a holiday with this perfect family-size washer. Toss in laundry (up to 8 lbs.) and Blackstone does the hard work for you. A time saver, and built for years of service with sealed mechanism that never needs oiling. Equipped with improved overhead Lovell wringer and Westinghouse motor. Guaranteed by Blackstone, America's oldest name in home washing appliances.

Phone and mail orders filled promptly.

Terms to Suit You

Blackstone Washers, Fourth Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
Affiliated with MACY'S - NEW YORK

New York Club

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Following is list of transactions on the New York Curb Exchange giving stocks and bonds traded:

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

Live Stock

These prices, quoted by White Provision Company, are on strictly confined basis.

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

Local Securities

We offer subject to prior sale and change in price.

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

Investing Companies.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(National Association Securities Dealers, Inc.)

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

Sugar and Coffee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(National Association Securities Dealers, Inc.)

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

RASHES

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Mrs. E. A. Camp Dies in Palmetto

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION. PALMETTO, Ga., Oct. 7.—Mrs. E. A. Camp died at her home here today. She was 87 years old.

She is survived by one son, F. G. Camp, of Fairburn; three daughters, Mrs. J. A. Jones, of Fairburn; Mrs. J. A. Steed, of Palmetto; and Mrs. A. P. Condon, of Palmetto.

Funeral services will be held from the Palmetto Methodist church tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock and interment will be in a cemetery here.

Max Smith, 76, Retired, Dies; Funeral Today

Former Merchant Well Known Figure in Jewish Community.

Max Smith, 76, of 479 Washington street, S. W., retired drygoods merchant and one of the best known figures in the Atlanta Jewish community, died yesterday at a private hospital.

He was a charter member of Ahavath Achim synagogue and one of the founders of the Free Loan Association.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. Sol Isenberg, Mrs. Sophie Cohen, Mrs. Abe Levy, Mrs. Louis Lane, Mrs. Hyman Pollock, and Miss Zeldia Smith, and six sons, Morris, Isaac, Abe, William, Joseph and Dr. Simon H. Smith.

2 Die as Plane Strikes Mountain

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 7.—(AP) Two army fliers died today as their two-seater attack ship crashed against the side of a mountain.

The victims were believed to be Lieutenant James E. Mathed, of Salt Lake City, and Private Homer C. Lloyd, of Rosebud, Mont. Both were burned.

The plane was said to have crashed head-on into the base of Patsy Marley mountain and exploded. A witness to the crash reported:

"Bob Olsen, foreman of a forest service project up here, attempted to pull one of the men out. The man was still alive, it seemed, but unable to help Bob any."

Waycross Church Shows Progress

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION. WAYCROSS, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Rev. W. L. Barber has accepted a call as pastor of the Crawford Street Baptist church for the ensuing year. It will mark the third year of the Rev. Mr. Barber's ministry here.

The past year has brought purchase of the building used by the congregation. It has been improved with a new roof, new brick steps, and other alterations.

John W. Mitchell, 74, Succumbs in Hospital

John W. Mitchell, 74, of 211 Barry street, Decatur, died yesterday in a private hospital.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Loy and John W. Mitchell Jr., and four daughters, Mrs. Annie Owens, Mrs. Roy Holcombe, Mrs. J. L. Smith and Miss Mary Mitchell.

Sugar and Coffee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(National Association Securities Dealers, Inc.)

| Stocks        | High   | Low    | Close  | Change |
|---------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| 1st Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 2nd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 3rd Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 4th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 5th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 6th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 7th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 8th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 9th Nat Bank  | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |
| 10th Nat Bank | 10 1/2 | 10 1/4 | 10 1/2 | +1/4   |

RASHES

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Due to Internal Cause

Due to External Cause

Civilian Flying Periled; Third Airport Sought

Continued From First Page.

Participants in an advanced training course, arising from the summer primary course in which 75 pilots completed the instruction, was suspended, however.

Concession of No Value.

In the announcement from Washington, it was said that civilian training programs still could use the Candler Field as a base or headquarters, but Professor Weems pronounced this concession of no value to the Tech course.

"The training necessarily includes a certain amount of teaching in taking-off and landing," he said. "This is the activity at which the order is aimed. We have no other place to go to carry it on."

Candler Field's 75 privately owned and operated planes were not affected by the order. Plans for the north side airport contemplate their removal to this point, but officials viewed their ultimate fate, in the absence of further airports, with dubiety.

Can't Delay Longer. "Atlanta is the only city of its size in the entire nation to depend upon a single airport," Mayor Hartsfield said. "For 10 years I have been urging additional airports, but I hope that this happening will bring some effective action."

"An important consideration is that the land around Atlanta is uniformly rolling—making it necessary to create level landing spaces. Such fields ought long ago to have been provided, certainly, in the present situation, we cannot delay them longer."

"If it seems likely, as is said, that the Navy may take over the Camp Gordon field exclusively as its own demands increase, then by all means Fulton county now should begin itself to obtain land south of the city and begin developing another port."

CAA Officer Sympathetic. S. A. Kemp, administrative officer of the Civil Aeronautics Authority, emphasized that expanding airports and civil flying programs made additional facilities extremely necessary.

"There is no question that Atlanta needs more airports," he said. "From a defense point of view, as well as from that of the national and commercial aviation growth, airports are a prime necessity. It is a problem for Atlanta to solve. The federal government naturally is greatly interested."

Strong possibility of a need for "three absolutely top grade airports" here was stressed by E. J. Nilson, in charge of the civil pilot training activities of the CAA.

"With the Army, Navy and manufacturing elements advancing so rapidly in aviation," he said, "it seems clear as a bell that Atlanta will need airports to keep entirely to civil and commercial flying."

City Outgrows Facilities. "Use of airplanes privately is expanding so rapidly that the early days will see them in a role analogous to the automobile. The airport is, of course, to the flying machine what paved highways are to the automobile. Without them, there is no flight possibility."

"Atlanta has outgrown its airport facilities in the same proportion that it has outgrown some old railroad shanty of a hundred years ago."

"It is tragic that Atlanta has not been able to meet the government's requirements for the civil training program. That program has provided the best potential reservoir of military talent to which anyone can point. It is advanced training results, and plan, are superb."

Work To Be Speeded. "Safety Atlanta must discover its present situation and then to where it will stand in the future—a city, so to speak, without highways when the airplane becomes what the automobile is today—and proceed with all speed to rectify the condition."

Formal designation of the north side airport as a defense facility, previously announced in Washington, was received here yesterday by C. A. Strickland, acting WPA administrator. The work will now be expedited, it was announced.

The airport is to consist at the outset of 315 acres, three runways of 3,800 feet each and two hangars.

Belief that all preliminaries virtually were finished was expressed last night by Scott Candler, DeKalb county commissioner, who acted for his county in acquiring the land without cost to the federal authorities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Coffee traders kept hands off the futures market today as they awaited further developments in plans for formation of a Latin-American marketing program.

Santos futures closed 1 to 2 points down but only one contract changed hands. December, 3.73; March, 3.91; May, 3.98; July, 3.98; September, 4.17; Rio was unchanged at 1.00; Santos, 3.90; March, 3.98; May, 3.98; July, 4.03; (b-Bid).

In a steady raw market Santos 4s were quoted at 6 1/2 to 7 1/2; Rio 4s at 5.00 and freight offerings included Santos Bourbon 3s and 4s at 6.50/7.10.

Russian Envoy, Welles Resume Their Parleys

Continued From First Page.

reverse "Japan's foreign policy." Unofficially, there was some conjecturing as to whether the navy might be planning the use it would make of the strongly fortified British naval base at Singapore in the event that John Bull made it available to Uncle Sam.

Talk of the United States getting the use of facilities at Singapore persisted as the British government prepared to announce in parliament, within the next few days, whether it would deny Japan by reopening the Burma road, vital supply line for China.

Among other possible subjects of discussion were: A suggested visit by American warships to Australia. The need for additional enlisted men to operate the expanding fleet.

Additional auxiliaries and stores for the fleet in the Pacific for use in event of operations far from home ports.

Secretary Hugh L. Hottel conferred again today with Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, and later Richard G. Casey, Australian minister, saw Undersecretary Welles.

W. H. Flowers Dies at Home; Lumber Broker

William Hampton Flowers, Atlanta wholesale lumber broker, died yesterday at his residence, 31 Lafayette drive.

A native of Greenville, Ala., he had been a resident of Atlanta for 18 years. During his business career here he was actively engaged in the wholesale lumber business until six years ago when ill health forced his partial retirement.

He attended Vanderbilt University where he was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. He was also a member of the First Methodist church here.

Surviving are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. John Fitts; two sisters, Mrs. R. E. Steiner and Mrs. Bernard Steiner both of Montgomery, Ala.; and five brothers, E. P. John J. and J. D. Flowers, all of Montgomery; Brooks Flowers, of Birmingham, and A. H. Flowers, of New York.

Services will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from the residence, with Dr. Edward G. Macfarlane officiating. Burial will be in West View cemetery under the direction of Brandon-Bond-Condou.

Americus Man Accused Of an Assault Attempt

AMERICUS, Ga., Oct. 7.—(AP) Sumter county Sheriff W. P. McArthur said today that a man whom he identified as Charles P. Davis, a dentist and lifelong resident of Americus, was arrested yesterday and accused of an assault attempt on charge. The sheriff said that Davis had made $10,000 bond.

The arrest took place in Davis' office, which the sheriff said was the scene of the alleged assault.

One Albany Candidate Is Opposed in Primary

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION. ALBANY, Ga., Oct. 7.—J. N. Penick Jr., Albany attorney, has announced for commission on the second ward against the incumbent, Garrett Fleming, to provide the first opposition in the municipal primary November 18.

He opposed Commissioner Fleming in 1938. Commissioners C. M. Shackelford in the second ward and R. F. Armstrong in the fifth are unopposed thus far. Entries close October 18.

DO YOU KNOW that on the Want Ad page of The Constitution a man is advertising who wants to lay your new cement walk or do any kind of concrete work?

DR. E. G. GRIFFIN
Dr. I. G. Lockett
DENTISTS
Hours: 8 to 6, Sunday 9 to 1
113 1/2 Alabama St. W. A. 1612

NEW RECLINING CHAIR CAR COACHES
AIR CONDITIONED
TRAINS NOS. 29-30
TRAINS NOS. 35-36

between WASHINGTON • CHARLOTTE • ATLANTA

YOU WILL LIKE the deep individual chairs cushioned with latex rubber... the attractive modern interior decorations... the electrically-operated drinking water fountain... the special seat lighting... the extensive baggage racks... ladies' lounge and men's smoking rooms with latest lavatory facilities... and many other features assuring personal comfort.

Ride these Modern Coaches at the first opportunity
LOW ONE WAY and ROUND TRIP COACH FARES
*We favor adequate preparedness for National Defense and recommend enlistment in the U. S. Army to eligible young men.*

CLAUDE T. HUNT, A. G. P. A.
Telephone WA. 1961, 57 Luckie St., N. W., Atlanta, Ga.
SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM

Rivers, Harbors Measure Passed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP) Congressional action was completed by the house today on a $34,500,000 program of national defense projects on rivers and harbors. The authorization bill, approved by the senate earlier in the day, was sent to the White House.

Largest authorization in the bill was $17,674,000 for a 21,000-foot breakwater off Los Angeles and Long Beach, Cal., for the Navy. Other items included seaplane basins and channel dredging.

Eliminated from the compromise bill was a $16,400,000 flood control dike proposed for East Hartford, Conn.

House Rejects Ramspeck Civil Service Bill

Georgia Congressman Wins on Motion to Seek New Conference.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP) A loose coalition of house Democrats and Republicans late today dealt a possibly fatal blow to the Ramspeck bill, which would have empowered the President to extend civil service to 200,000 federal employees and raise the wages of 320,000 others.

"This bill is not civil service, it's a service," asserted Representative Res. Republican of Kansas shortly before the house rejected the conference-revised measure, 181 to 132.

The principal author, Representative Ramspeck, Democrat, Georgia, succeeded by the narrow margin of 123 to 119 a motion to ask the senate for a new conference. This was a doubtful victory for Ramspeck, however, because the house immediately instructed its conferees to hold out for the so-called Nichols state job bill.

The amendment proposed that the bill be "blanketed" some of civil service positions is more than filled should be given a civil service appointment until states with unfilled quotas were cared for.

The principal complaint against the bill voiced by Republicans was that it would "blanket" some of 200,000 persons into civil service with only perfunctory non-competitive examinations in which a 70 per cent grade would be considered passing.

Draft Officials Don't Want To Stop Marriage

No Discrimination Will Be Shown Against Newlyweds.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP) Selective service officials emphasized today there would be no discrimination against newly-married men in choosing conscripts.

"The selective service law operates for five years, and we don't want to stop all marriages during that time," remarked Frederick Osborne, chairman of the President's advisory committee on the draft.

Questioned about recent reports of a rush of marriages in the face of the draft law, Colonel William Draper, another member of the President's committee, emphasized that the question of deferring from service those men recently married would be decided on the same basis as the cases of all other married men.

Georgia Boys and Girls Here is Your Opportunity to Win a Free College Education

Or One of Many Other Valuable Educational Prizes

Enter this state-wide educational contest. Get your Contest Rules Booklet from your teacher.

TO ENTER CONTEST GET YOUR BOOKLET NOW... ASK YOUR SCHOOL PRINCIPAL OR TEACHER

THE SUBJECT OF THE CONTEST

College scholarships and other educational prizes will be awarded to students submitting the best essays of 500 words or less on the subject: "THE IMPORTANCE OF THE COTTON MILLS TO GEORGIA."

ASK YOUR SCHOOL TEACHER FOR THIS BOOKLET TODAY

40 BIG PRIZE AWARDS FOR STUDENTS

2 Two-Year All-Expense College Scholarships
9 Cash-for-Education Awards of $100 Each
9 Cash-for-Education Awards of $50 Each
20 One-Year Memberships in the Junior Literary Guild

AWARDS WILL BE GIVEN TO STUDENTS IN GRAMMAR, JUNIOR AND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOLS

Two separate groups of prizes will be awarded: One group for High School students; another for Grammar School students of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades. Junior High School students will enter the Grammar School group. Students in all parts of Georgia have equal opportunity because an award will be made in each Congressional District.

CONTEST OPENS OCTOBER 14—CLOSES NOVEMBER 23

It is a known fact that the boy or girl with a good education stands a better chance of getting ahead in life. This is your opportunity to get a two-year college education FREE, with all expenses paid or win other valuable educational prizes. Get your contest booklet from your teacher now. Start working on your essay at once. The rewards are generous—worth working for. Their benefits will last a lifetime.

House Rejects Ramspeck Civil Service Bill

Continued From First Page.

Fund Workers Open Drive for Company Gifts

Groups Division Begins Soliciting 1,200 Firms in Atlanta.

Community Fund "early birds" are not seeking the proverbial diet of worms this year, they are definitely out after "bear meat."

That was the tenor of a breakfast meeting yesterday morning when nearly 100 solicitors in the groups division heard inspirational talks, received supplies of pledge cards and then went to work to raise their share of the $572,726 goal set as the minimum needs for 34 agencies sharing in the fund.

Members of the division, headed by George T. Marchmont and J. E. Mellett, will call on executives of 1,200 local firms employing 10 or more persons, with a total list of 80,000 potential subscribers.

The "early birds" of the groups division will try to complete organization of the 1,200 organizations before general Community Fund solicitation begins October 21 for a two-week period.

"Set your sights at 20 per cent increase over previous gifts from all firms and employees," H. Carl Wolf, general appeal chairman, urged the groups division workers. "That is what will be required for us to realize our goal of $572,726."

Chairman Wolf injected a note of early success into the gathering when he reported that one of the most generous past contributors to the fund had promised to double his previous gifts and then told of a large national concern, never before in the fund picture, which had pledged a substantial gift and full co-operation.

While the groups division solicitors are busy contacting their objectives, other volunteer workers in the two sections of advance gifts divisions, led by DeSales Harrison and Donald Oberdorfer, will be seeking to raise the bulk of the goal from persons capable of giving $50 and over.

Oberdorfer's Group.

Oberdorfer's battery of some 190 men will contact prospects in the $50 to $250 range while the Harrison division will be after all contributions of $250 and over.

Marchmont and Mellett, co-chairmen of the groups division, along with Boyce Edens, fund executive director, pointed out that all such gifts secured in advance of the campaign, would be credited to firms with which the large donors were connected.

Grand division leaders who shared the speakers' table at the breakfast, Ralph Paris, George Ripley, Jackson P. Dick, E. F. Pearce, L. D. Sandy, Humphrey, Robert J. Foreman Jr., Joe Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

As follows: Manufacturers and distributors, Charles B. Nunnally, Louis H. Moss; automotive, Robert L. Foreman Jr.; food, Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

Food and allied lines, second section, John L. Parks, M. B. Hargrave, E. D. Smith Jr., Forest L. Fowler, hotels and restaurants, Robert L. Foreman Jr., Joe Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

Life insurance, C. M. Wallace; educational, Frank J. Schaefer, O. M. Jackson; fertilizers and chemicals, B. R. Askew; financial, Eric Cooke; food, Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

General insurance, C. M. Wallace; educational, Frank J. Schaefer, O. M. Jackson; fertilizers and chemicals, B. R. Askew; financial, Eric Cooke; food, Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

Life insurance, C. M. Wallace; educational, Frank J. Schaefer, O. M. Jackson; fertilizers and chemicals, B. R. Askew; financial, Eric Cooke; food, Westbrock, first section; Oscar Coe, second section; construction, Edwin S. Dick and E. F. Pearce as division leaders.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

CREOMULSION for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning! It's the only liver medicine that goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 points of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 10¢ and 25¢.

RESINOL RELIABLE HELP for PIMPLY SKIN

Due to Surface Irritation

The itchy, burning soreness of those ugly surface pimples can be quickly relieved, the impulse to pick and scratch checked, and faster healing thus aided with dependable time-tested Resinol. Its valuable ingredients, combined in an oily base, have prolonged beneficial action.

Begin today to improve your skin. Cleanse with bland Resinol Soap and apply the comforting Ointment to irritated spots.

Use Resinol also to relieve eczema, itching, chafing and chapping.

Free sample of each sent on request to Resinol 40, Baltimore, Md.

RESINOL OINTMENT AND SOAP

relieves NEURALGIA in a hurry!

When the pains of neuralgia start bearing down, you want relief, and wait in a hurry. The quick-acting ingredients in the "BC" formula work fast on pains of this type. Nerves ruffled and upset by neuralgia pain are gently soothed and you begin to feel lots better in short order. Keep a 10c or 25c package of "BC" handy. Use as directed for the relief of headaches, muscular aches and functional periodic pains. Always consult a physician when pains persist or recur frequently.

Women Suffer Bladder Weakness More Than Men

BY DR. R. A. GOODALL

As a practicing physician it has been my observation that many more women than men suffer from so-called Bladder Weakness, of the functional rather than the organic or systematic type. Such cases usually are troubled by burning, stinging, often have to get up to go to the bathroom at night, and are troubled by severe backache, nervousness, circles under eyes and find it an effort to keep going.

Probably the functional upset attending child-birth represent one reason for more women suffering, however, domestic and financial worries, heavy housework, wrong foods and drinks, frequent colds and nervous strain may prove a greater burden to women than men.

In my practice I frequently find that one of the best things I could prescribe was a Kidney Dietetic such as the prescription called Cystex. The reason for this is that it helps the kidneys flush out excess acids, poisons and wastes.

Men are inclined to neglect themselves so I urge wives who read my articles to not only take care of their own health but to guard their husbands'. Because it is so successful in such a high percentage of cases I unhesitatingly recommend Cystex to those suffering from non-organic and non-systemic Bladder or Kidney troubles. And since Cystex costs only 25c at drug stores and is backed by a guarantee of money back on return of empty package unless completely satisfactory, everyone can afford to use it without delay.

Editor's Note: Dr. Goodall is a former Public Health Officer, a graduate of King's College, London, England, now Medical Director for the Knox Community, and is also a licensed, registered physician, with years of experience in general medicine and the treatment of various diseases of the United States.

CATCHES UP—Catching up on a little work is James A. Farley, now a vice president of the Coca-Cola Export Corporation. He paused in Atlanta yesterday long enough to look over the local headquarters and have his picture taken at his desk. (Story on Page 1).

East Point Library Has 3,700 Books

Completion of its first year of operation finds the $40,000 East Point Public Library with 3,700 books that have circulated to 2,648 customers a total of 34,915 times, it was disclosed yesterday.

A reading club for children has been formed, with a membership of 352, of whom 194 read enough books to win certificates.

Owned and financed by the city of East Point, the library is headed by William F. Howell, as chief librarian, with Miss Jeanette Carroll as assistant. Trustees are Standish Thompson, H. W. Ragsdale, M. A. Hipp, C. N. Martin and R. O. Weaver.

Buying of New Autos Restricted by Britain

LONDON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Henceforth only persons engaged in "work of vital national importance" will be allowed to buy new automobiles, the Ministry of Transport announced today. The step was said to have been taken to increase the number of cars available for export.

Elliott Roosevelt Leaves For New Army Air Post

FORT WORTH, Texas, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the President, and his wife left by automobile today for Wright Field at Dayton, Ohio, where he will report for duty as a captain in the Procurement Division of the Army Air Corps.

Superhighway Bogs Under Heavy Traffic

SOMERSET, Pa., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's new $70,000,000 superhighway bogged down under its first Sunday traffic load. Bargain prices and ideal weather for sightseeing lured thousands of motorists onto the all-weather toll route, creating jams as long as five miles which required hours to untangle.

A turnpike commission official estimated at least 10,000 automobiles used the 160-mile Pittsburgh-Harrisburg road during the day. Cars edged along almost bumper-to-bumper at interchanges.

Tombstone Celebrates First Church Service

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Oct. 7.—(AP)—The town that still boasts it is "too tough to die" paid tribute today to the good men and women of Tombstone when it was the wildest mining camp in the west. The occasion was the 61st anniversary of the first sermon preached in Tombstone—on Sunday evening, October 7, 1879. Typical of the town's spirit was the refusal of the chairman of trustees to accept the keys to a new church from the contractor.

"This is a wide open town and we will have a wide open church," he said.

Man Describes Efforts to Bring Body to Life

Tells Police How He Worked Seven Years on Corpse.

KEY WEST, Fla., Oct. 7.—(AP)—An aging unemployed X-ray technician related to police today how he kept the carefully preserved body of a young woman in his bedroom for seven years while experimenting with all his medical skill to bring her back to life.

The man, Karl Tanzler Van Cosel, 70, was charged with removing a body from its grave without permission.

He was arrested yesterday at his home—part of a dirty, ramshackle warehouse—where the life-like body of the young woman lay in bed, reconstructed and preserved in wax.

"I tried many experiments to restore her to life," Van Cosel told Deputy Sheriff Ray Elwood and newsmen. "I still hope if I live long enough to bring her back."

When he first removed the body of the woman from its crypt more than seven years ago, Van Cosel said he secretly slipped it into the Key West Marine hospital and kept it there a week while he used available chemicals to restore decomposed portions.

Then, hiding the corpse in an old airplane he had purchased, he had it carted to his makeshift home.

The prisoner said he was driven by hopeless love to keep the corpse beside him and work year after year to restore its life. He described how he hoped to keep the outer tissue sculptured to its original likeness with beeswax and then reactivate the inner cells through X-ray treatments.

Trail Club President—F. I. Smith, of Atlanta, Was Elected President of the Georgia Appalachian Trail Club at the 11th Annual Meeting Held in Clayton, Ga., over the weekend.

New Officers Are Selected By Trail Club

F. I. Smith, of Atlanta, Named President; Dr. Harold Guest Speaker

F. I. Smith, of Atlanta, was elected president of the Georgia Appalachian Trail Club at the eleventh annual meeting of the club held Saturday and Sunday at the Bynum House, Clayton, Ga. The club supervises and maintains the hundred miles of the Appalachian trail that lie in this state.

Guest speakers at the meeting were Dr. Charles C. Harrold, of Macon, noted archeologist, who spoke on the "Historical Paths in the Southeast." Following the business session Saturday a square dance was given for the 85 members of the club who attended the convention.

Other officers elected were: Walter MacAdams, first vice president; Willa Reed, second vice president; Elizabeth Molsinger, recording secretary; Maude H. Sewell, corresponding secretary; Maureen W. Snow, historian; Lovejoy Harwell, member of the executive council, all of Atlanta, and T. Carlton Carter, treasurer, of Decatur.

Wage-Hour Unit Inspects by Mail

The "mail-order" campaign whereby the Wage and Hour Division of the United States Department of Labor conducts its plant inspection by means of a questionnaire has proved highly successful, T. M. Forbes, secretary of the Georgia Cotton Manufacturers' Association, declared yesterday in a communication to officials of the division.

Members who did not understand the method of filling out the form used have been instructed, Forbes said, and the results have been gratifying in clearing up a number of cases without the necessity of personal inspection.

More than 100 forms have been sent to employers against whom employees had made complaint and personal inspection follow-ups have been necessary in only about 1 per cent of the cases. Around $6,000 has been given in restitution through use of the "mail order" forms.

Nazi, Italian Emissaries Will Pay Visit to Spain

MADRID, Oct. 7.—(AP)—High ranking emissaries from Germany and Italy are coming to Spain soon, it was announced officially tonight.

Heinrich Himmler, chief of all German police, is coming as an official envoy of the Nazi party to study the organization of the Falange, Spain's state party.

Marshal Emilio de Bono of Italy is arriving soon to present Generalissimo Francisco Franco the grand collar of the Order of the Annunciata.

Unit Members For War Relief Fund Selected

Volunteer Contributions Committee Here Collects Gifts.

Volunteer contributions committee of the Atlanta Unit of the British War Relief Society, headed by Mrs. James L. Dickey, announced yesterday members of the divisions of the committee.

The committee has placed 300 glass jars, resembling syrup jars, in various buildings throughout the city for Atlanta's donations which will be used for supplies for refugees and other war sufferers in Britain. The supplies are distributed by the British Red Cross.

Members of the divisions are: Theaters, Mrs. W. K. Jenkins, chairman; Mrs. Joseph Taylor Jr., Mrs. Charles Kessner, Mrs. Roy Avey, Mrs. Harry Ballance, Mrs. Robert Lyons, Mrs. L. F. Wynne, Mrs. Robert Frost, Mrs. Joseph Harrison, Mrs. Fred Coleman, Mrs. R. B. Wilby, Mrs. McRae Jett and Mrs. John Mangham.

Clubs, Mrs. Ryburn Clay, chairman, and Mrs. Arthur Harris, drygoods, Mrs. Julian Hirschberg, chairman, Mrs. Frank Perst and Mrs. Addison Taylor; Mrs. Mrs. William Elias, chairman, Mrs. W. J. Gray and Mrs. Ed Danforth.

Recreational concerns, jewelry, mail order, and hardware stores, Mrs. Gabriel Schoen, chairman, Mrs. Eugene Oberdorfer Jr., Mrs. Louis Regenstein Jr., Mrs. Oscar Strauss Jr. and Mrs. Robert Perst; hotels, Mrs. Henry Hirsch, chairman, Mrs. B. F. Noble Jr. and Mrs. Harvey Reinhardt; airport and flower shops, Mrs. William Dickey, chairman, Mrs. B. M. Gattling and Mrs. Richard Hager; grocery stores, Mrs. B. F. Noble, chairman, and Mrs. Fannie Durand Williams.

Drug stores, Miss Sara Jenkins, chairman, Mrs. James Whitten, Mrs. Rufus King, Mrs. Collett Munger, Mrs. Robert Lorton, Mrs. Dulaney Fitch, Miss George Dargan, and Miss Claire Hunnicutt.

Scalise Gets Sentence Of From 10 to 20 Years

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—George Scalise, former president of the Building Service Employees International Union (AFL), convicted September 14 of forgery and grand larceny charges in the theft of funds from his own union, was sentenced today to from 10 to 20 years in State Prison.

Cabinet Officers Called In House Study of NLRB

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Chairman Smith, Democrat, Virginia, said today the house committee investigating the Labor Board would ask two cabinet officers and two other officials to explain tomorrow whether decisions by the board may prevent the awarding of some defense contracts.

The committee, Smith said, has arranged for subpoenas to be issued for Secretary Knox, Attorney General Jackson, Robert Patterson, assistant secretary of war, and Sidney Hillman, labor member of the defense commission.

PAY CITY OF ATLANTA TAX NOW

October 15th last day without fl. fa. and penalty

SCIENTIFIC EYE CARE
L. N. HUFF OPTICAL CO.
64 Broad St., N. W., Healey Building

PONTIAC PRESENTS A NEW Low-Priced "Torpedo" Six

Model Illustrated: De Luxe "Torpedo" Six Two-Door Sedan $874* (White sidewall tires optional at extra cost)

Just arrived—and now on Special Display—the Value Leader of Three Great New Lines of "Torpedo" Sixes and Eights

THIS IS WHAT YOU GET WHEN YOU BUY A 1941 PONTIAC!

1. NEW BEAUTY AND LUXURY
2. ENCLOSED RUNNING BOARDS (On Two Series)
3. GREATER OVER-ALL LENGTH
4. INCREASED POWER
5. RECORD GAS AND OIL ECONOMY (Built-In Oil Cleaner)
6. LARGER, SAFER BODIES
7. NEW, TRU-ARC SAFETY STEERING
8. NEW INTERIOR LUXURY
9. PERFECTED "TRIPLE-CUSHIONED" RIDE
10. CHOICE OF A SIX OR EIGHT IN ANY MODEL (Only $25 more for an Eight)

Plus 99 other improvements and outstanding features that make Pontiac more than ever "America's Finest Low-Priced Car."

BOOMERSHINE MOTORS, INC.
425-35 Spring, N. W. JA. 1921

EARL PONTIAC COMPANY
118 West Court Square Decatur

Dudley Glass

Discovers Revenge Usually Forgotten As Years Go By.

Chat with a veteran of the last—I hope—World War revealed his affection for the captain who rode him ragged in France. They've been pals since the Armistice.

"But there were times," said the vet, who had emerged a mere corporal, "when I used to lie awake and swear that if we ever got out of the army and out of uniform I'd kill that guy if I had to trail him to China."

I recalled a particularly venomous school teacher of my boyhood days who had been picked as the victim of our gang if we ever grew big enough to venture on murderous vengeance. But somehow we forgot it.

Wonder how many military despots were ever slain or even "beaten up good" by their former subjects. And how many martinet school teachers have been lynched by former pupils who had brooded for years over poor grades.

Toughest tyrant of pedagogy I ever heard about was old "Sawney" Webb, of the famous Webb School for Boys at Bell Buckle, Tenn. He rather welcomed bad boys at his institution, lads fired from various other prep academies. He had an old-fashioned idea that a leather strap, applied scientifically, accomplished more than demerits.

How the boys did hate "Old Sawney." And how, after leaving Webb, they'd praise the old villain. I've heard a couple of them almost fight over their brag on how many times he or one of his nefarious hirelings had taken their hides off. I think Mr. Webb, in his later years, was appointed United States senator, to fill out an unexpired term. I've often wondered if he tried to use a strap on his colleagues in that august body. It might have improved legislation, at that.

Never-Ending Story.

Frances Allen, of the Moultrie Observer, confesses to a habit of reading newspaper serial stories. I've never acquired it because I get so many periodicals at home I can't keep up with them. I usually let the magazines stack up until the serial is finished, and then settle down with a fresh pack of cigarettes and maybe a bottle or two of beer and revel in the murder mystery until 2 a. m.

I can remember one serial called "Confessions of a Wife," which ran in a now defunct afternoon paper. Sometimes the installment was long. Sometimes exigencies of space cut it short. At various times efforts were made to abandon it. Leave the heroine right in the crux of a crisis. But subscribers protested. So the editor of that department had to dig back into the accumulated copy and resume the narrative of the troubles of George and Gwendoline—or John and Adele. I can't remember their names.

Miss Allen has become wrapped up in another serial. Because the author has just completed 25 years of her story. She is in her 60s and still going strong. She has written more than 8,000,000 words about her hero and heroine and has no intention of quitting. I do hope and trust she has let them grow up during those 25 years. My favorite strip heroine—I mean comic strip, not a Minsky tease—is Little Orphan Annie. But she seems exactly the same age as when I first fell for her, some 10 years ago.

Placid Existence.

Tifton Daily Gazette runs a paragraph about a farmer of Ellaville who died last week at 102.

He never had smoked or chewed tobacco, never took an intoxicating drink, never had ridden on a train, never had talked over a telephone, never had used spectacles and saw only half of his only movie—because it "looked too much like lightning."

Grand old man of the old school! Model for the younger generation!

O. K. He liked to live his own life and did. Peace be to his ashes. I like to live my own life and do—up to where the Mistress of the Manor disapproves.

But folks have different ideas of what constitutes life and living.

This farmer of Ellaville probably lived a happy life. He liked fields and corn land and hogs and cows and cotton and corn and maybe tobacco.

But it wouldn't have been much fun for me. Nor, perhaps, for you.

From Editor and Publisher—The Sentinel-Echo of London, Ky., carried the following page one correction recently:

"Esquire T. W. Williams calls our attention that he was misquoted in an article in this paper last week. He says he called Judge Jones a 'd—liar' and not a 'G—D—liar'."

California newspaper also hurries to get something straightened out:

"The statement in last Saturday's issue of the Union that a 'dusky' 11-pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Henry on Friday afternoon was a typographical error. The item should have read that a 'husky' 11-pound girl was born."

DOCTORS TO MEET.

DOUGLAS, Ga., Oct. 7.—(AP)—A study on hookworm disease in this county, prepared by Dr. Justin Andrews, of the State Department of Public Health, headed the scientific program of the Eighth District Medical Society convening here tomorrow.

LUCKY FELLOW Who said peeling spuds was tough? Joe Franklin, 165th Field Artillery at Fort Dix, N. Y., doesn't mind because Shirley Forrester helps. The catch—it was visitors' day.

SURROUNDED Flanked closely by police, GOP Nominee Wendell Willkie makes his way through huge Jersey City crowd to speaker's stand, where he described Mayor Hague as "puny Hitler."

STUDY Young Mexico takes to the air. Three officers of the Balbuena section, Lt. Pablo Luis Rivas, Lt. Fernando Molina Dominguez and Lt. Fernando Suarez y Suarez, study flying technique from the cockpit.

Fascist Spain and Adolf Hitler A-Courting

CONFERENCE World-wide interest centered around this meeting between General Ramon Serrano Suner (left), Spanish minister of government and brother-in-law of Generalissimo Francisco Franco, and Adolf Hitler, which took place at the chancellery in Berlin. What took place, the world has not been informed, but at any rate Fascist Spain remains neutral despite Germany's best courting.

MURDER Big Bill, sullen polar bear at San Francisco Zoo, stands in triumph over his fatally injured mate—Min—while attendants sought in vain to drive him away by pouring heavy streams of water on him. A minute after this picture was made, Big Bill, remorseful, dragged Min to a pool of water and held her in it as if to revive his wounded mate. Zoo attendants said Big Bill went mad during a dedication celebration. They expressed the opinion the huge polar was upset by the new surroundings of the "natural habitat" type zoo.

READY Lieutenants Rivas and Dominguez climb aboard their plane and are shown just ready to slip into the snug compartment, spin the motor and soar away for another fight in their training work.

Wilson Ready To Put Linder's Name on Ballot

Stone Loses Fulton Battle, To Carry Issue to Supreme Court.

By LUKE GREENE.

Secretary of State John B. Wilson last night prepared to certify the name of Tom Linder for inclusion on the general election ballot as the Democratic nominee for state commissioner of agriculture after Guy Stone, defeated for the farm post in the state primary, lost a Fulton-superior court fight to prevent Linder's name from appearing on the ballot.

Soon after Judge Paul S. Etheridge dismissed an injunction petition seeking to restrain the secretary of state from certifying Linder, Stone withdrew as a candidate for commissioner of agriculture in the November election, but said he was carrying the case to the supreme court "to clarify all points raised during the hearing."

Stone, who filed the injunction petition Saturday, announced at that time he would run for the commissioner's post in the general election, declaring he had the endorsement of the Democratic Farmers' party.

He charged in his petition that when Linder left the commissioner's office in 1936 he was short in his accounts approximately $7,000 and was not eligible to hold the office.

Judge Etheridge held that this question was not one to be decided on at this time, since Linder was still a candidate for office, and could not be decided until the candidate had been elected and was ready to be inducted into office.

W. George Thomas, attorney for Stone, read at length from cases which he said were applicable to his case, but Judge Etheridge contended that they dealt with the qualifications of office holders.

Attorney General Ellis Arnall represented Wilson and contended, among other things, that the secretary of state was a "ministerial officer" and only certified the names to the Governor, who actually made up the ballot.

Stone, in announcing his withdrawal from the race, said his only purpose in bringing the action against Linder was "to find out whether he had made restitution to the people of Georgia of the public funds due the state as disclosed by the auditor's report for the Department of Agriculture for 1936, and is qualified to take the oath of office as commissioner of agriculture." He added:

"The decision of the court on my petition for a restraining order to keep his name off the ballot as the nominee of the Democratic party in the general election does not answer these questions."

"Therefore, I have instructed my attorney, W. George Thomas, to pursue the case to the courts of last resort in order to clarify all points raised during the hearing and to find out whether Linder is still holding funds belonging to the people of Georgia and unaccounted for. The public is entitled to this information."

"While I am withdrawing my name from the official ballot as a candidate for commissioner of agriculture in the general election and will support the Democratic party, as always, this will not affect the purpose I have in mind." Sam Hewlett, Atlanta attorney and a strong Talmadgeite, was present at the hearing yesterday morning and had his picture taken with Linder, leading observers to interpret the court's decision as a Talmadge victory.

It is generally regarded that Linder had the Talmadge influence in his successful campaign, and that he is now in the good graces of the Talmadge camp.

Several men who have been identified with Columbus Roberts and the State Department of Agriculture figured in Stone's effort to keep Linder's name off the ballot, but Roberts vigorously denied that he had anything whatsoever to do with the move.

In a telephone conversation yesterday with Alton Cogdell, who worked in the Roberts campaign for governor, Roberts said that Thomas came to him and asked him if he wanted to get behind the plans of the Stone group, and Roberts replied that he did not, explaining that he had promised to co-operate with the Talmadge leaders.

E. P. Long, who served as chairman of the Democratic farmers' convention which nominated Stone, is director of the food and drug division of the State Department of Agriculture. Thomas also worked in Roberts' campaign for governor.

New Officers Elected By Norman Park F. F. A.

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION.
NORMAN PARK, Ga., Oct. 7.—Newly elected officers of the Norman Institute chapter of the Future Farmers of America for the 1940-41 session were announced yesterday by Professor H. D. Ridgway, faculty leader. Daniel Gray, of Lenox, is president of the group; Russell Rentz, Norman Park, vice president; Paul Sauls, Ty Ty, secretary; Edwin Norman, Norman Park, treasurer, and Baker Sutton, Ellenton, reporter.

Decatur Commissioners Approve Paving Job

Sewer and paving project for Ansley drive, between Adams and South McDonough streets, has been approved by the Decatur board of city commissioners, it was announced yesterday.

City Manager A. F. Newman also announced the beginning of a paving project on Glenn street, between East Ponce de Leon and Sycamore drive.

RICH'S New BASEMENT

If you can't come in . . . call WALnut 4636, and ask for our Telephone Shopping Service!

Whatever your style—you'll find it in

MUNSING***
Wear Panties!

in THREE LENGTHS!

75¢

Sizes 32 to 44

Whether you like your panties knee length for winter wear, medium length, or snug little briefs—you'll find just what you're looking for in these neatly tailored panties by Munsingwear. In two-bar tricot knit rayon, a super-smooth fabric in tearose shade. You can get fitted top vests to match your panties.

Loomcraft
QUALITY SLIPS

Wear-a-Year

"Percale-Tex"

SLIPS

59c

In Finely Woven Cotton!
With a Year's Guarantee!

When you buy Loomcraft you know you are getting a smoothly tailored cotton slip that will wear and wear. Cut on the straight of the material, with four-gored skirt for perfect fit. In finely woven "Percale-Tex," a cotton fabric that launders beautifully. T-rose, white. Sizes 34 to 52.

"Percale-Tex"
GOWNS

1.00

Wear-a-Year!
Cozy Long-Sleeve Styles!

Gowns that bear Loomcraft's Wear-a-Year guarantee in smooth white cotton. Full cut-for comfort in yoke style with button front, sweetly embroidered and trimmed in tiny tucks. Sizes 16 and 17.

Percale-Tex gowns in extra sizes . . . $1.25

Stretch! Twist! Bend!

Your NuBack

FOUNDATION

Fits in your every Position!

Girdles and Corsets!

Girdles in smooth brocade. Side hook styles with elastic side inserts, long skirt and average hip measure. Four hose supporters. Sizes 26 to 36. Corsets in brocade and madras. Front lace style with elastic waist. For average waist and full hip measure. Six hose supporters. 26 to 36.

3.29

Brocade All-In-Ones!

Average hip and full bust styles in brocade with built-in lace uplift brassiere. With inner belt for greater support. Makes your clothes fit more smoothly, your whole appearance more youthful. The famous NuBack insert at the waist will keep your foundation from riding up. 34 to 46.

5.00

NUBACK has a patented back section that automatically adjusts the corset to any desired position of the body—that's WHY NuBacks are so comfortable!

For Your Fall Silhouette!

5.00

Give yourself a fashion treat—see how much more trimly your smart new frocks fit over one of these smooth brocade foundations. The long skirt and built-in brassiere give a lovely unbroken line. 34-44.

Rich's NEW Basement Corset Shop has a complete line of foundations from $3.29 to $6.98

One TRY-ON is worth 1,000 words!

Make Walking a Glorious Adventure with

American Girl SHOES

Exclusive in Atlanta in Rich's Basement!

$5 pr.

Nationally Advertised!

No matter what your preference in smart shoes for every day may be, there is a beautiful American Girl style to suit you to a T. Pumps and ties with open or closed toe in black or brown. All-over alligator calf. Suede with lizard or gleaming patent trim. They're comfortable, too, with arch support features that make walking a glorious adventure for every American Girl. 4 to 10, AAA to D.

THE AMERICAN GIRL
SHOE

Miss Jacoby Becomes Bride Of Mr. Hensley at Quiet Rites

Of interest to relatives and friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Audrey Irene Jacoby, only daughter of Mrs. Loren Homer Jacoby and the late Mr. Jacoby, to James Ernest Hensley which was solemnized yesterday at 4:30 o'clock in the study of the Druid Hills Baptist church by Dr. Louie D. Newton in the presence of the immediate families.

The only attendants were Miss Mary Lou Hall and Julian Peter Harris.

For her marriage, the lovely bride wore a becoming ensemble of Indian earth brown trimmed with London-dyed squirrel. Her accessories were of a matching shade and her hat was a smart off-the-face model featuring a shoulder-length veil. She carried an exquisite lace handkerchief which was carried by her mother at her wedding. Her flowers were Talisman roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride is a graduate of North Avenue Presbyterian school and attended Mercer University. She received her musical education at the Atlanta Conservatory of Music and is a talented pianist.

Mr. Hensley received his education in the Atlanta schools and for a number of years has been connected with The Atlanta Constitution in the circulation department.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Hensley will take possession of their new home at 518 East Lake drive, Decatur.

Camp Fire Guardians To Meet Today.

Camp Fire Guardians will get help from their group nature programs at the October meeting of the Guardians' Association to be held today at the home of Mrs. L. I. LeMasters, 1467 Ponce de Leon avenue. Mrs. Frank Phillips and Mrs. J. D. Martin Jr. will assist. Mrs. Walter R. Thomas will have charge of the program.

Mrs. Arthur Anderson, member of the executive board of the Atlanta council, will speak at the training course on Friday, in the recreation room at Techwood, 116 Pine street, N. W. Her subject will be "Ways to Secure Group Publicity."

Fidelis Class.

Fidelis Class met recently at the home of Mrs. Ruby Hollingsworth. After the meeting the class gave the hostess a surprise kitchen shower.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jorgensen Honored at Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Noble were hosts at a buffet supper Sunday evening at their home on Seventeenth street in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jorgensen who have recently returned from an extensive tour of the west and points of interest in Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Jorgensen were married in June, Mrs. Jorgensen having been before her marriage Miss Lois MacDonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Paul McDonald, of Bolton.

Invited to meet the honor guests were members of their wedding party and a few additional friends.

An unusual color motif of purple and red was expressed in the novel decorations of the beautifully appointed supper table. A serpentine arrangement of green candles in porcelain molders graced the center of the table, the recesses banked with huge purple grapes and red princess feather. Miss Elizabeth Cole poured coffee.

The guest list included in addition to the honor guests Mr. and Mrs. William Elsas, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George Pettley, Mr. and Mrs. Athos Menaboni, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Berg, Dr. and Mrs. Harold McDonald, Miss Elizabeth Cole, Miss Marie Mauldin, Miss Adelaide Porter, Cobb Torrance, Ike Williamson, Pierce McDonald and Paul Heffernon.

A. A. U. W. Meets.

The Study Group in Education of the American Association of University Women meets today

British War Relief Society To Meet.

The knitting unit of the British War Relief Society meets this morning at 10 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church with Mrs. F. Phinizy Calhoun instructing. The group meets every Tuesday from this date forward. The warm clothing group of the society meets at the Piedmont Driving Club Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Jesse Draper and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun in charge.

at 3 o'clock at Fernbank, home of Miss Emily Harrison, 849 Clifton road. The group will study for the year "Our Children and Their Schools."

A general survey of the field from nursery school through high school, will be discussed, discussion leaders to be Mrs. Seth Snyder, Mrs. Percy Rich, Boisfeuil Jones and H. O. Burgess.

Georgia Women Will Attend Meeting in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. J. F. Heard, diocesan president of the Woman's Auxiliary, together with Mrs. John Gilmore, Atlanta, diocesan chairman of the religious education; Mrs. L. A. Bailey, Atlanta, diocesan secretary; Mrs. Mildred Rhodes, Athens, diocesan supply secretary, and Mrs. Marshall Ellis, Macon, past diocesan president, will be delegates to the triennial meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary which will be held in Kansas City October 9-13.

On the morning of October 10 at the corporate communion service, at which the presiding bishop, the Most Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, S. T. D., will be the celebrant, assisted by 30 missionary bishops, the United Thank Offering of all the women of the entire church will be presented. The triennial will elect eight board members on the National Woman's Auxiliary Board and four members to the national council.

Mrs. Theodora Wade, of the supply department; Dr. Adelaide Case, educational adviser of the Woman's Auxiliary, and Miss Grace Lindley, for 30 years the executive secretary of the national Woman's Auxiliary, will all three retire at this triennial meeting.

Some of the leaders speaking will be Mrs. D. D. Taber, Miss Margaret Marston, Dr. Henry S. Leiper, Lewis B. Franklin, treasurer of the national council; Mrs. James Cain, of Columbia, S. C., and member of the national executive board, and other outstanding workers, both in the mission field and at home.

for you who live graciously on

Quality Street

the quality fashions of Maurice Rentner

For years Rich's has brought you in "Quality Street" the creations of one of America's most talented designers. The name of Maurice Rentner has long been a synonym for beautifully finished fine clothes. Today we are privileged to show you M. Rentner's complete Winter 1940 collection . . . as inspired, as exquisite as any in the world. With all America at last recognizing its great originators, Rich's is particularly proud to climax our long association with M. Rentner with this significant fashion event . . . rivaling in brilliance the former openings of the Paris couture!

85.00

79.95

Tuesday is Fashion Day at Rich's. The stars of Maurice Rentner's Quality Street Collection will be dramatically presented in our tearoom from 12:15 to 12:45 and from 1:15 to 1:45. Models wearing Helena Rubinstein's "Classic" make-up.

Special Fashion Show of the Complete Rentner collection in the tearoom Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Maurice Rentner costumes from our Specialty Shop, Third Floor

Rich's

175.00

Set Definite Time Each Morning To Exercise

By Ida Jean Kain.

So it's all settled and you're going to lose 20 pounds for Christmas... but you also want a beautiful figure by that date, and that means you are going to slim a good three inches off the waistline, firm the midsection, and trim three to four inches off the hips.

Having been a bit lazy about your exercises for the past several months—or years—it will pay you to start gently. There's nothing to be gained by getting right into the spirit of the thing and keeping it up until you are exhausted. Two days later you will feel as if you had been riding mule-back over the Rockies! Naturally, that would be the end of your exercise!

Take it easy. Start with just five minutes of limbering exercise for the first few days and gradually up it to 10 minutes. Then in a couple of weeks work up to 20 minutes a day.

Since you probably are not enthusiastic about this, you'd better make a habit of doing your exercise at a definite time every morning. Then your conscience will hurt you when you miss it.

Stretch to limber up quickly. Lie on your back on the floor, and pull yourself slim through the middle as you stretch from tip to toe. Lying down exercises have their points—they take the weight off your feet and keep you in perfect posture.

To slim the waist, add a twist to the stretch. Swing the right leg across the left, touching toes to floor on the opposite side, then stretch until you feel a pull all along the right side. Repeat for three times, rest and change sides.

It is very important to relax between exercises. In this way you avoid building up tension. With any strenuous exercise, it is best to shake the limbs loosely afterwards to rid the muscles of tension and to prevent stiffness.

To tone the muscular girdle while slimming the waistline, bring one knee to chest as you lie on the back on the floor, then, twisting at waist, touch knee-point to the floor on the far side of the other leg. Hold for a second, return to beginning position and alternate sides, continuing for 12 counts. Relax.

The side-scissors is a streamlining special. Here it is: Position: Lie on the left side on the floor, head pillowed on left arm and right hand braced in front, legs straight down.

Movement: Work the legs in a scissors action, keeping knees straight. Hold the legs slightly off the floor for freedom of movement. Swing the legs back and forth for 12 counts, rest, then perform 12 counts on the other side. Later you can swing 100 counts on each side, resting between each 25 counts.

When you exercise make each of the movements accurate.

Weight Control Menu.

BREAKFAST— Calories
Orange juice, 1-2 glass 55
Crisp bacon, 2 strips 70
Toast, 1 slice 50
Butter, 1-2 pat, 1-4 inch thick 25
Coffee, 1 tbsp. cream, 1 lump sugar 55

LUNCHEON—
Hot scrambled egg sandwich 250
Stewed tomatoes 35
Glass skim milk 80

DINNER—
Broiled cubed steak 200
Baked potato 100
Butter, 1 pat, 1-4 inch thick 50
String beans, 1-2 cup 15
Celery, radishes and carrot sticks 15
Grapefruit, 1-2 50
Coffee, clear 50

Total calories for day 1,055

Jaunty Pair of Comfortable Pajamas

By Lillian Mae.

Every teen-ager likes the tailored nonchalance and the smart comfort of pajamas. This jaunty pair designed by Lillian Mae is a two-piece style, Pattern 4593. You'll find it very easy to stitch up if you use the accompanying Instructor Sheet. The long or short-sleeved jacket has pert novelty in curved front and back yokes and in optional, low-slung patch pockets. See the gay button duets down the front opening! The top may be worn tucked inside or on the outside in loose, boxy style. The trousers are nicely cut and have a neat, wide waistband. For a striking effect, you might try making the top in gay contrast to the trousers...

...it's smart this year! Pattern 4593 is available in teen-age sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 12 takes 4 3/8 yards 35-inch fabric.

Send 15c in coins for this pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

The new Lillian Mae Winter Pattern Book takes the American Way to Fashion, with its many colorful pages of original designs. There are "just right" patterns for every age; every type of American girl and woman. You'll find spirited styles for toddler, "teen-ster," collegiate, young-married and matron. Latest silhouettes in shirt-frocks, two-pieces, home-maker modes, afternoon and after-dark wear are presented. Send your order now! Book 15 cents.

Send your order to Lillian Mae, Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Pattern 4593 is available in teen-age sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 12 takes 4 3/8 yards 35-inch fabric.

Send 15c in coins for this pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

The new Lillian Mae Winter Pattern Book takes the American Way to Fashion, with its many colorful pages of original designs. There are "just right" patterns for every age; every type of American girl and woman. You'll find spirited styles for toddler, "teen-ster," collegiate, young-married and matron. Latest silhouettes in shirt-frocks, two-pieces, home-maker modes, afternoon and after-dark wear are presented. Send your order now! Book 15 cents.

Send your order to Lillian Mae, Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Pattern 4593 is available in teen-age sizes 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 12 takes 4 3/8 yards 35-inch fabric.

Send 15c in coins for this pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

The new Lillian Mae Winter Pattern Book takes the American Way to Fashion, with its many colorful pages of original designs. There are "just right" patterns for every age; every type of American girl and woman. You'll find spirited styles for toddler, "teen-ster," collegiate, young-married and matron. Latest silhouettes in shirt-frocks, two-pieces, home-maker modes, afternoon and after-dark wear are presented. Send your order now! Book 15 cents.

Send your order to Lillian Mae, Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

A quart of milk a day should be included in every child's diet. Some may be drunk and some may be used in dishes cooked.

A Child's Daily Diet May Include Milk In Many Appetizing Forms.

By Sally Saver.

A quart of milk a day is the amount urged by nutritionists for every growing child. Bone and teeth development may be retarded with grave consequences if a child fails, over a period of time, to get this important food so rich in calcium. It is not necessary for the child to drink the entire amount of milk needed; some may be used in cooked dishes, such as custards, puddings and soufflés. And when such cooked dishes also include vegetables and eggs, the cause of nutrition is greatly helped. Here are excellent examples of how milk may be put into the diet in appetizing form acceptable to children.

Asparagus Custard
1 can condensed asparagus soup.
1 can milk (using soup can for measuring).
3 eggs.

Stir milk into the soup. Add eggs, slightly beaten. Pour into a casserole or custard cups and bake in moderately slow oven, 325 to 350 degrees, until custard is set. Casserole of Vegetables and Cereal

1 can condensed celery soup.
1 cup milk.
2 cups cooked potatoes, diced.
1-2 cups cooked carrots, diced.
1 cup cooked green peas.
1-2 cups cornflakes or similar cereal.
2 teaspoons butter or margarine.

Mix celery soup and milk. Add cooked vegetables. Pour half the mixture in a buttered casserole, then put in a layer of cornflakes. Add remaining vegetables, top off

Woman's Quiz
Q. What can I put under my dial phone to keep it from slipping while dialing?
A. Brush white rubber cement over the felt on the base of the phone.

Q. I have some unwashable material that is stained with mud. How can I remove the stains?
A. When the stain is thoroughly dry, brush away as much of the mud as possible. Then sponge the stain with denatured alcohol, using a clean pad under the material to absorb the stain and excess alcohol. If the mud contains oil or grease, sponge the spot with carbon tetrachloride, after brushing off as much as you can.

Q. What are some inexpensive cuts of beef, suitable for roasts?
A. Rump, round, chuck, shoulder, clod and boned brisket.

Bit of Iodine Helps Your Disposition
By Dr. William Brady.

In order to keep the record clear I hereby solemnly declare that I have never said or intentionally implied that taking the iodine ration or supplementing the diet with vitamin B complex or both together will restore the natural color to gray hair. Numerous readers have assured me that one or both of these have had some such effect, but in printing these reports I have invariably taken pains to express my own skepticism. So, if anyone tells you that Dr. Brady's iodine or vitamin B or anything else will restore lost color to the hair advise him or her that they are misinformed.

This disavowal is occasioned by the following testimonial: "...and I would like to say that I will be 46 years old this month, that I had quite a few gray hairs before I started taking the iodine ration and the vitamin B complex capsules. For the last seven months I have not had one gray hair. You know it is a great stimulant to a woman to 'look so young'."

I know this. When I am in fine fettle, say on coming home after an afternoon on the bowling green where I have trimmed a couple of the big shots, I can scarcely notice any gray hairs. But when I'm feeling pretty weary, say after a too long day here at my desk, I can see a great many gray ones where all was sleek before. I am compelled to conclude that one with a more cheerful outlook does not discover gray hairs in his or her head as readily as does one who is in comparatively low spirits. A nip o' iodine now and then helps to keep one in a cheerful frame of mind. A fair daily intake of vitamin B complex—more than one can get in foods nowadays—helps to keep one's health status at the optimal level instead of just fair, and that, too, tends to make everything in life seem better.

What I do say about gray hair in the "Instructions for Taking an Iodine Ration" (for copy send with corn flakes and dot with butter. Heat in a moderate oven 350 degrees for 40 minutes. Serves 6.

It should be remembered that custards and other dishes containing milk should be cooked in moderately slow oven. Too fast cooking will cause milk to curdle. Questions about foods, cooking, meal planning and serving will be answered by Sally Saver. Write or phone The Constitution, or WA. 6565.

MY DAY: The Arts Answer Creative Needs

By Eleanor Roosevelt.

HYDE PARK.—I lay in bed on my porch this morning and watched the little yellow leaves drifting slowly down to the earth. It is warm still and the air is soft, but the leaves are covering the ground and that burning smell we all associate with autumn is prevalent around us.

There is something rather helpless about these leaves as they drift slowly past the window. I often think they are very like us, strong and proud so long as they are tightly attached to the branch on which they grew, but rudderless once they leave that center of strength. How strong we are so long as we have within us some central core of courage and conviction, and how weak and rudderless when that is shaken.

We all attended the dedication of the schools yesterday and the President reaffirmed a belief which has always been ours in this country—that no dictatorship can take hold when there is free education. The point, however, is that it must be free and it must grow with the needs of the day.

I wonder, sometimes, whether we shall insist on keeping it free. Freedom must include the permission to examine and discuss unpopular subjects and a tolerant attitude towards those who think differently from the way the majority may think at the moment. I think growth to meet the needs of the day has lagged in education during the past few years. We require open minds, for changes are needed and what they are we have not yet agreed upon.

Last evening we drove down to New York City to attend the pageant and concert presented by the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union in Madison Square Garden. With rare foresight this union has put the arts to work. They have recognized the need which human beings have for bread and for dignity in labor, but they have also proved the need for inspiration and idealism. The arts answer this need. Labor needs music and marching songs. Labor needs the creative satisfaction gained through the drama, the dance, and many other avenues of self-expression.

A pageant on the nation's growth and based on Walt Whitman's poetry called "I Hear America Singing," was the high point of the evening. With labor's growth, the country has grown, for, after all, labor is the country.

It is a curious distinction that we have made for ourselves between capital, as represented by people who handle money, and labor, as represented by people who do the actual work. We are all people and we must work to fulfill our destiny. If only we would all recognize this fact and work together and make money work for us all without division and as one great group of working people, what a different place our world would be.

We reached home at 1:30, tired but with a feeling of inspiration gained from the evening.

Bit of Iodine Helps Your Disposition

By Dr. William Brady.

stamped envelope—bearing your address) is this:
As a manifestation of iodine shortage adults may show a chronic tired feeling and lack of usual or former ambition, energy or pep, with little refreshment from rest or a vacation... tendency toward depression of spirits or melancholia, premature aging, premature graying of hair... mental torpor... poor circulation, cold hands and feet...

I also say something about preventing high blood pressure and hardening of the arteries. But I'm stalling in Missouri in regard to restoring natural color to gray hair.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.
Nose and Throat Specialist.
Denise of a nose and throat specialist at height of his career in midwestern city makes an opening for a young man with such training, especially if he can carry on the tonsil diathermy work. The deceased specialist's nurse, familiar with his practice, is still available. (E. D. K.)

Answer—I'll be glad to give the address to any physician who sends stamped envelope or a postcard with his request.

Mineral Food.
Which minerals are essential for the health of the body? Do you agree with — that one must take 16 minerals daily... (Mrs. E. M. S.)
Answer—That is just mail-order hokum. If you get sufficient calcium, phosphorus and iron you needn't worry about the other minerals. Foods richest in these are listed in 90-page booklet "Feeders Digest"—for copy send 25 cents coin and 1-cent-stamped envelope bearing your address.

Every Youngster Loves a Kitten
By ALICE BROOKS.
Get started now on your Xmas gifts with this pretty puss that will be everyone's favorite. She's an easy kitten to make and you'll enjoy doing it. Lovely in a cotton print, she measures 11 inches finished. Pattern 6813 contains a transfer pattern of the kitten and instructions: materials needed.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in coin to Household Arts Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

PATTERN 6813.
Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Pattern 6813.
Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Pattern 6813.
Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Pattern 6813.
Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Pattern 6813.
Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Hedy Wants Quiet Home Life

Stepmother's Tasks Are Difficult

By Caroline Chatfield.

The average step-mother has a hard row to weed and she doesn't get proper credit, either. The sympathy of the public is usually with step-children, rather than with the step-mother. The very term step-child is synonymous with being pushed out in the cold. Yet anybody that has had many closeups on "step" situations knows that as often as otherwise, the children being jealous, suspicious and envious, put up a stone wall of resistance to their father's wife which she can't get over. Sometimes it is a result of their mother's warnings to them before she died. Only recently I heard a lady in hale and hearty health say to her daughter: "If your father outlives me and brings in a new wife, don't you let her wear my jewelry or use my fine linens." It was said in joke, but it carried weight and if that man should outlive his wife and bring in a step-mother, that daughter would make a hot time for her.

There are other ways to account for children's animosity to step-mothers. They frequently feel wrongly, of course, that number two has usurped their mother's place. Wrongly, they imagine that their father's first and only duty is to them. They can't understand that his marriage is not a desecration of his mother. Being children they have no conception of his need of companionship with one of his own age.

Dear Miss Chatfield:

I married my husband with some misgivings because he had three high-spirited children and I wasn't sure I could make them happy or that they would let me be. If ever a woman went at a job with conscientious determination to succeed I did then. I tried to win them separately and together. I interceded with my husband for them when I thought him too hard on them. But whatever I did or didn't do I was met with stony resistance. The oldest girl is now 17, having dates (too many for her good, I fear) and she needs the counsel of a mother but she won't have it from me. Her father expects me to supervise her social life which I can hardly do when she doesn't confide in me. What on earth shall I do? I am at my wits end.

Answer:
I know a step-mother who was in much the same fix with a 20-year-old step-daughter. She called the girl in one day and said to her: "Now I had wanted to be a real mother to you but you plainly don't want me to stand in that relation to you. Until you are married the three of us have got to live together in this house. As it is we are all unhappy. Your father is the most unhappy of the lot. Can't we come to an understanding of any sort that will enable us to have a pleasant home life?" The daughter agreed and from there out the surface was smooth. You may be able to come to such an understanding with the oldest child and the younger ones will follow in her footsteps. You see if nobody expects anything but common courtesy from a housemate nobody's feelings will be hurt when there isn't any more.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

By Sheila Graham.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 7.—"I'm shy—people terrify me—crowds make me go like this inside," says Hedy Lamarr, and clenches her hands tightly to show me the effect of people on her nervous system. "That is why," she continues, "I'm so happy now." Hedy refers to her recent divorce from Gene Markey. One of her chief causes for complaint was that her husband preferred cafe to home life.

"I am a home girl," Hedy assures me, solemnly. "I do not like dressing up. I do not like always being on show. An actress or an actor must have a place in which to relax. They cannot be on exhibition 24 hours a day. And if you haven't home life in Hollywood, I think you would go crazy in time. I'm a girl who likes to wear slacks. I like to eat at home. But when I do go out, I like to slip into theaters and restaurants on the back way. When I found that Gene disagreed with me on all this, I decided quickly to get the divorce. I'm like that—I do things quickly. I hate anything like that to drag on."

Hedy says she is happy. But her sad looks belie her words. She is sniffling, too. And tells me that "I'm not so sure, I've got four more pictures to do after this." The next two are "Come Live With Me"—Jimmy Stewart is her leading man—and "Ziegfeld Girl"—her first musical.

"That's why," continues Hedy, "I asked to do that little part in 'Boom Town.' I knew it would lead to other pictures and better opportunities." (But how Hedy complained while she was doing it!)

Hedy is still wearing the dirty gray nightdress—her covering for most of the picture—now topped with Gable's overcoat. "Don't you wear any glamorous dresses in the picture?" I asked her.

"No. Isn't that wonderful?"

HEDY LAMARR.

crowds Hedy. I'm not so sure, I like my glamor girls to be glamorously gowned.

You'll see a complete new Miss Lamarr in "Comrade X," a comedy played on a high C. She has a tremendous fight with Gable on their wedding night. She starts I hope. I shall never marry again, unless the man wants a real home life." At the moment Hedy's most persistent caller is John Howard.

RICH'S Announces the Latest, Greatest Radio News in Town!

RCA Victor
PERSONAL RADIO

A Mere 4 1/4-lb. Handful, but a Real Radio!

... it PLAYS while you walk!
... it PLAYS while you eat!
... it PLAYS while you wait!
... it PLAYS while you ride!

$20

Space for your name inside!

Just a beautiful handful of radio entertainment, no larger than a small camera: Yet it's a real radio... a sensitive RCA Victor Super-heterodyne with Automatic Volume Control; Dynamic Speaker, Built-In Antenna... and four tiny tubes that give six-tube performance... all built into a striking, attractive case. Open the lid—it's on! Close the lid—it's off! Plays loudly enough to fill a room... or in a soft, intimate whisper for your ears alone.

For Special Telephone Shopping Service, Call WA. 4636

Radios

RICH'S

Sixth Floor

Ben Hill Garden Club Holds Meeting.

The Ben Hill Garden Club met recently at the clubhouse with Mrs. W. A. Jones and Mrs. C. P. Suber as hostesses.

Plans were made to improve the school grounds by giving bulbs and plants and assisting their planting. A plant exchange was planned for the November meeting.

The program was on "Bulbs." Miss Eunice Baker told what to do for tulips which were left in the ground.

Mrs. W. M. Crawford gave a brief talk on daffodils. Mrs. John Wallace suggested that each member try out a new bulb during the coming year, later giving the club the benefit of her experience.

Contests were won by Mrs. E. A. Van Norden, Mrs. C. P. Suber and Mrs. Marcus Cash.

Ribbons were awarded as follows: For dahlia arrangements: blue, Miss Eunice Baker; red, Mrs. Ray Baker; white, Mrs. Hugh Stephens; for dahlia specimen: blue, Mrs. W. M. Crawford; red, Mrs. C. P. Suber.

A "MUST" FOR FISH SALADS

Series of Parties Announced For Miss Alma Wilby, Fiancee

Many prenuptial parties have been planned for Miss Alma Elizabeth Wilby, whose marriage to James Redd, of Kansas City, Kan., will be a brilliant event of November 12.

The marriage of this popular couple will be solemnized at the home of the bride-elect on Tuxedo road and will be followed by a reception.

On Tuesday, October 15, Mrs. Sam Johnson will entertain at a luncheon at her home on Virginia avenue and on Friday, October 18, the bride-elect will be complimented at a bridge luncheon at which Mrs. Fred Coleman will be hostess at her home on Walker avenue in College Park.

Miss Alberta Bell has selected Tuesday, October 22, as the date of the bridge luncheon at which she will honor Miss Wilby, and

Evergreen Club.

Mrs. H. B. Nelson and Mrs. S. B. Naff entertained the Evergreen Garden Club members and their husbands at a steak fry recently at the home of Mrs. S. B. Nelson on Piedmont road.

F. L. Rand showed moving pictures in color of various gardens, mountain scenery in and around High Hampton and Highlands, N. C., and the Smoky mountains, the peach orchards in full bloom in the Fort Valley section, also pictures taken during Atlanta's heavy snow last winter. Many colored slides of individual flowers, flower arrangements and masses of flowers and flowering shrubs were shown.

Cofer-Rubley Plans.

Announcement is made today of the wedding plans of Miss Mabel Virginia Cofer and Thomas Andrew Rubley. The marriage will take place on Sunday evening, October 13, at 9 o'clock at the Sharon Baptist church, with Rev. "Happy" White officiating.

Miss Cofer was honored recently at a miscellaneous shower given at her home at 119 Anderson avenue by her mother, Mrs. T. L. Cofer.

Miss Cofer will be honored this week at parties given by Misses Shirley Beasley, Avis Ragsdale and Elizabeth Edwards.

Spanish Classes Open at Y. W. C. A.

The trend toward acquiring more knowledge and understanding of South American countries has resulted in the addition of two Spanish classes in the Y. W. C. A. business girls' department. Professor O. S. Bandy, of the Tech High school faculty, plans to give interesting background material with phonograph records and movies, as well as language study.

Before-supper classes this evening include book reviews and gym. Later, there will be folk dancing, swimming, "charm" and a group discussion on job problems. Louis Bates, of the Georgia Evening school, will speak at the fellowship hour.

On Thursday evening, Business Girls' League begins new classes with music appreciation: "Styling," by Dean Dreyer; Spanish, and "Reviews of News" by Miss Liza King, of NYA. After supper there will be "Correct Speech and Choral Speaking," swimming, gym, folk dancing, by Miss Eugenia Dozier; bridge, Miss Mildred Wells; and sketching, with leader to be announced.

Mizpah Class.

Members of the Mizpah class of the Baptist Tabernacle entertained recently at an annual banquet. New officers for the coming year were installed and outgoing officers were presented with class pins. Miss Elizabeth Rawls, teacher of the class since its organization in 1922, was presented with a wrist watch. Miss Grace Eskew spoke and a program of music was presented by Miss Elmer Slider.

Mrs. Chester E. Martin will preside today at the fifth district meeting of Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs. She is president of the district which convenes at the First Baptist church in Hapeville. Mrs. W. H. Smith is president of Hapeville Woman's Club, the hostess organization. Mrs. Martin was elected at the spring meeting held in Atlanta, and is among prominent clubwomen with state-wide influence.

Women's Meetings

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8.

The Girl's Cotillion Club meets at the Piedmont Driving Club at 3 o'clock.

The Colonial Dames meet with Mrs. J. Edgar Paulin, chairman, at the Piedmont Driving Club at 3 o'clock.

The Fifth District Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs meets at 9:30 o'clock in the Hapeville First Baptist church with luncheon served at 1 o'clock.

The Atlanta Smith College Club meets at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Goodwin, 1732 North Rock Springs road.

The Spade and Trowel Garden Club meets at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. Martin Myers on Howell Mill road.

Brookhaven Garden Club meets with Mrs. J. E. Kuhms at her residence on University drive at 2:45 o'clock.

The Alonzo Richardson P.-T. A. meets at 7:45 o'clock.

Pilot Club of Atlanta meets at 6:30 o'clock at the Henry Grady hotel.

The North Avenue Presbyterian School P.-T. A. meets in the parlor of Thrower Hall at 2:30 o'clock.

The Magnolia Garden Club holds a picnic at Mrs. W. B. DuVall's farm at 10 o'clock. Members meet at 10 o'clock with Mrs. DuVall, on Cascade road.

Boulevard Park Woman's Club meets with Mrs. A. L. Myers, 1180 Boulevard, N. E., at 2:30 o'clock.

Adamsville Masonic lodge, Hemphill P.-T. A. and West Haven P.-T. A. meet at Bethel church in Adamsville.

Executive board, B. W. M. U. Concord Baptist Association meets with Mrs. B. E. Burnette, Winston, at 2 o'clock.

Moreland preschool study group meets in the school auditorium at 9 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the executive board meets and at 11 o'clock an assembly of the Parent-Educational class will be held.

Samuel Inman School P.-T. A. executive board meets at 8 o'clock in the school library.

Evan P. Howell P.-T. A. holds daddies' night.

Capitol View preschool study group meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school library.

J. Allen Couch P.-T. A. executive board meets at 10 o'clock in school library.

The woman's organization of the Covenant Presbyterian church on Peachtree road meets at 10 o'clock in the church parlor. The Business Women's Circle of the Covenant Presbyterian church on Peachtree road meets at 6:15 o'clock at the church.

Morningside School P.-T. A. executive board meets at 8:30 o'clock in the school library.

Highland P.-T. A. meets at 7:45 o'clock. C. E. Coleman will speak on "Citizenship."

The Azalea Garden Club meets with Mrs. R. J. Sims on Emory road.

The Hoke Smith Junior High P.-T. A. meets at 7:30 o'clock at the school.

Directors' meeting of the Kathleen Mitchell branch Fulton County Association for Childhood Education meets at 3:15 o'clock at Davison's.

Frank L. Stanton P.-T. A. meets in the school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock.

St. Anthony P.-T. A. meets at 3 o'clock.

The Mu chapter of the Delphian Society meets at 10 o'clock at the Hotel Georgian Terrace.

The Charities Circle of the Atlanta Child's Home meets with Mrs. Edgar Chambers Jr., 1550 North Decatur road, at 12:30 o'clock.

The Fidelis Class of Woodland Hills Baptist church meets at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. A. W. Volp.

U. D. C. Board meets at the chapter house at 2:30 o'clock.

Atlanta-Fulton County Service Star Legion Chapter meets at the Woman's Club at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Drake Heads Women's Bible Class.

Mrs. Alex B. Brown installed Mrs. R. B. Drake president of Women's Bible Class of Gordon Street Baptist church at the banquet recently at the church.

Other officers installed were enlargement vice president, Mrs. H. L. Johns; stewardship vice president, Mrs. P. L. Wilbanks; fellowship vice president, Mrs. S. E. Baker; class minister, Mrs. V. B. Sossaman; secretaries, Mesdames J. W. A. Davis, W. J. Henry and J. S. Price; corresponding secretary, Mrs. R. A. Yates; birth-day chairman, Mrs. L. A. Garrison; pianist, Mrs. C. A. Brooks; room chairman, Mrs. R. L. Gore; scrapbook chairman, Mrs. T. J. Daniel.

Music was rendered by Mrs. V. C. Cauble, Mrs. Mildred Fambrough, church organist; J. Gordon Moore and the class sextette. A play, "Sunday Morning," was presented by members. Class history was given by Mrs. J. W. Dalhouse. Benediction by Mrs. J. W. A. Davis.

Group captains are Mesdames Ina Stone, C. L. Peacock, H. A. Hancock, W. M. Brown, Ruby Fain, W. A. Guest, J. H. Gheesling, C. M. Brown, H. G. Payne, Ned Reynolds, C. J. Aycock, C. H. Walcott, W. H. Veno, R. A. Woody, J. N. Landers and Berta Layton.

"Build-Up" Important Protector of Women!

A weak, undernourished condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get a foothold; thus leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort. Take CARDUI's principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite, and increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many.

Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!—(adv.)

DAVISON'S

ROUND-THÉ-STORE FLIGHT WITH

IRIS LEE WANTS YOU TO PAMPER YOURSELF AND YOUR FAMILY WITH THESE BRIGHT DISCOVERIES

BOW-WOW MUFF

Soft white Bunny fur with an adorable little dog perched on top. Looks like a real puppy—complete with red ribbon around his neck, 2 blue eyes and... a tail! A gift to delight every little girl's heart.

2.50

Dress Trimmings, Second Floor

COLOGNE IN BUD VASE

Beautiful pastel pottery bud vases filled with flowers of Habana fragrance. Attractive to use in pairs or singly.

1.00

Cosmetics, Street Floor

EARLY AMERICAN BREAKFAST TEA

In gay, old-fashioned crockery jug. Enjoy the delicate flavor of teas popular during the days before the Boston Tea Party.

1.00

Foods, Street Floor

CRYSTAL PEAR

For Japanese gardens, floating rosebuds or fruit bowl this unusual pear-shaped crystal bowl is lovely. Has removable cover to protect fruits and flowers.

1.98

China and Glass, Fourth Floor

THE KIDS WILL LOVE "BIPPY"

A delightful new book by Elizabeth Downing Barnitz, of Atlanta. Bippies are merry, busy elves. A gay and beautiful story with drawings on nearly every page. For boys and girls from five to eight.

1.00

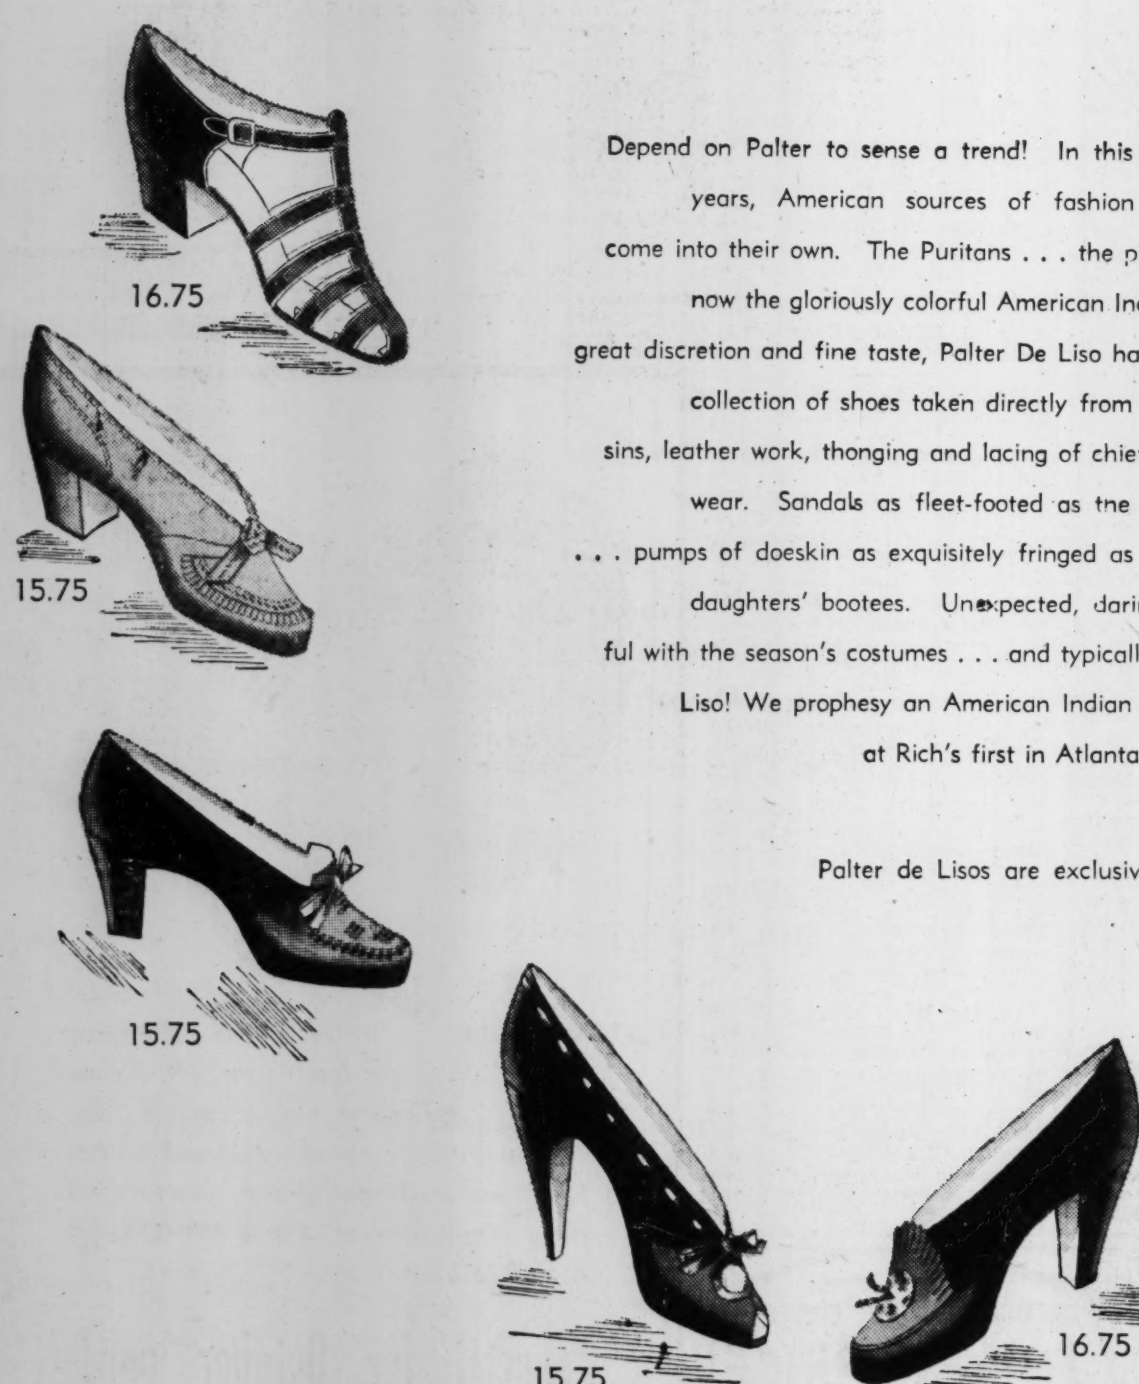

Books, Street Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
AFFILIATED WITH MACYS-NEW YORK

Palter DeLiso brings back the American Indian

Depend on Palter to sense a trend! In this year of all years, American sources of fashion inspiration come into their own. The Puritans... the pioneers... now the gloriously colorful American Indian. With great discretion and fine taste, Palter De Liso has created a collection of shoes taken directly from the moccasins, leather work, thonging and lacing of chieftain's footwear. Sandals as fleet-footed as the tribesmen's... pumps of doeskin as exquisitely fringed as the chiefs' daughters' booties. Unexpected, daring, delightful with the season's costumes... and typically Palter De Liso! We prophesy an American Indian furor... at Rich's first in Atlanta, of course.

Palter de Lisos are exclusives of ours.

RICH'S

Just one of the exciting new fashions in our Salon of Shoes, Street Floor.

Sally Forth

SAYS

Lovely Augusta Belle Weds At Surprise Ceremony Here

• • • WHEN LOVELY Pegram Williams, of Augusta, came to Atlanta Sunday to visit her close friend, Mrs. John M. Slaton Jr., on Peachtree road, little did Mrs. Slaton know that a wedding was about to take place at her house. But that is exactly what happened. For yesterday Pegram became Mrs. Langdon S. Chilcott, of Bangor, Maine, and is off honeymooning with her handsome husband down Florida way.

You see, Pegram and Mrs. Slaton, the former Julia Butt, of Augusta, have been lifelong friends. They played together when they were little girls, they went to school together, made their bows to society together in Augusta, and when Julia became the bride of John Slaton Jr., Pegram was one of the bridesmaids. So last week Pegram and John Slaton sensed a romance, but never expected a wedding 24 hours after the arrival of their guests.

When Pegram and Langdon arrived Sunday evening they revealed the fact that they were engaged. The news, of course, was received with excitement, but far more exciting was the ensuing discussion of an immediate marriage. The result? Pegram telephoned her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Williams, in Augusta and told them of plans for her marriage. The illness of Mrs. Williams prevented a home wedding in Augusta, so due to the close friendship between Pegram and Julia, plans for the wedding at the latter's home were completed, and the bride-elect received the parental blessing.

Dr. Edward G. Mackay, pastor of the First Methodist church, performed the ceremony at high noon, with only Pegram's closest Atlanta friends present, in addition to William Butt, of Augusta who is visiting his daughter, Julia Slaton. The ceremony was performed in the living room of the home, with music being presented by Taylor Flannigan. Julia served as matron of honor and only attendant for the bride and was beautifully gowned in grotto blue crepe trimmed in matching lace and worn with a smart red French hat. Her flowers were lilies of the valley. Pegram was a lovely and dainty figure wearing Windsor rose crepe, with hat and other accessories to match. Her flowers were also lilies of the valley. She was given in marriage by John Slaton Jr., and they were joined in the living room by the groom and his best man, Edward G. Hitt.

The wedding breakfast which followed the ceremony was further proof of Julia Slaton's ingenuity. With less than six hours' notice, she had planned a delicious breakfast, complete with a wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Late yesterday afternoon the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Florida, and will go to Bangor, Maine, by way of Augusta and Chicago.

The bride is no stranger to the rock-bound coast of Maine, for she has spent many seasons there at the summer home of her parents at Blue Hill. It was while at her summer home four years ago that Pegram and Langdon first met. Last week, when Pegram started south, Langdon persuaded the Augusta belle to let him drive her south. For the past few days they have been in Augusta with Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Pegram has two sisters, Mrs. Clinton Irwin-Martin, of Blue Hill, Maine, and Mrs. B. R. Huske Jr., of Fayetteville, N. C. The groom is the son of Mrs. Langdon Chilcott Sr. and the late Mr. Chilcott, of Bangor, and he is a brother of Mrs. A. B. Jackson, of Winchester, Mass.; James C. Chilcott, of Winchester, and T. E. Chilcott, of Bernardsville, New York.

• • • ONE OF the most amusing invitations of the season is that issued by the Saddle and Sirlon Club to the shower-breakfast at which the organization will entertain Sunday for lovely Jean Oliver and her fiancé, Alton Sartor.

Expressed by means of clever sketches, the outside cover of the invitation bears a picture of a little bird bursting with song and perched against a background depicting the rising sun. Inside, the verse reads: "Since Jean and Alton have fallen for each other, the Saddle and Sirlon Club will entertain at a shower breakfast for its members and the bridal party at 10 West Andrews drive October 13 at 10 o'clock. Come, rain or shine, and bring a present the sweethearts can use when they bend the bow of the Saddle and Sirlon Club together. Write to Mr. and Mrs. Frank North, 10 W. Andrews drive, to say you're coming."

Many of the above words are expressed by sketches. For instance, sketches of the bridal couple replace the words "Jean" and "Alton," and the word "fallen" is appropriately represented by a sketch of the honor guests "falling" from a horse! The words "Saddle" and "Sirlon" are conveyed by drawings of a saddle and a sirlon steak, while "shower" is represented by a drawing of a rain shower, and representing the word "shine" is a picture of a smiling sun.

The hour of the party is revealed by a miniature clock with hands indicating 10 o'clock. Replacing the word "rain" is a drawing of a rain shower, and representing the word "shine" is a picture of a smiling sun.

• • • LITTLE Betty Cobb Boyd, young daughter of Jim and Betty Boyd, was christened at St. Luke's Episcopal church last Saturday by the Rev. Olin Beall Jr., of Cedar-town and Carrollton. Her godmothers were Mrs. Russell R. Innis and Mrs. Thomas A. Hart, with Thomas A. Hart standing as godfather.

The Harts, who have just returned to their home in Carrollton after two years at the University of Chicago, were the recent guests of the Boyds at their new home on Dellwood drive.

• • • GLIMPSED at the Tech-Howard football game Saturday: Ruthanna Butters accenting her beige woolen dress

Fate Line Foretells Success

By ALICE DENTON JENNINGS

MISS MARY ELIZABETH BEERS.

The hand of lovely Miss Mary Elizabeth Beers, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert F. Beers, is a blend of the conic or artistic temperament with the spatulate or active type. It is the hand of one who combines vision with achievement—imagination with common sense. The dominant third finger shows talent in one of the arts, either interior decorating or dress designing, and its spatulate tip indicates that she could put this talent to a practical use.

The heart line shows that in matters of the affections, she is warm-hearted, generous and impulsive. The nature responds quickly to these characteristics, and fortunate indeed will be the young man who intrigues this young belle's interest.

Mary Elizabeth was born under the influence of the zodiacal sign Cancer, whose advantages are: Love of home, conservatism, tenacity and dignity. Her hand emphasizes these qualities.

A strong line of fate, running through the center of the palm, bending towards the base of the third finger, becomes the promcenting her chic sport suit with a cluster of yellow and white charming sisters. Mrs. Dargan Cole and Mrs. Alvin Cates Jr., breakfasting together and enjoying animated conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Day, of New York, announce the birth of a son on October 6 at New York hospital, who has been given the name Daniel Jr. Mrs. O'Day is the former Miss Ida Sadler, popular Atlanta belle, and the baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie Sadler, of Atlanta, and Mrs. Daniel O'Day, of New York City.

Mrs. Stuart Witham and Mrs. J. G. Oglesby are in New York City.

Mrs. Henry S. Wright has returned from "Rosedale," near Cedar-town, where she visited her niece, Mrs. W. C. Wright. She also visited her niece, Mrs. Hoyt Brown, on Mount Alto, near Rome.

Mrs. Donald W. Long left Saturday for New York, where she will visit her daughter, Miss Carvel Grant Long, in New York City and Mrs. Lansing P. Shield in Ridgewood, N. J.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Hubert Duckworth, of San Diego, Cal., arrived yesterday to visit the former's mother, Mrs. Hubert B. Duckworth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Landrum announce the birth of a son, Robert Daniel, on October 3 at St. Joseph's infirmary. Mrs. Landrum is the former Miss Roberta Fairley.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Langworthy, of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gillette on Brighton road.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Miss Fillingame And Fiance Plan Wedding Nov. 2

Miss Becky Fillingame, one of the attractive brides-elect of this fall, and her fiance, Walter Daniel Hardee, have completed plans for their marriage, which will be solemnized on November 2, at 5 o'clock at the Peachtree Christian church, with the Rev. Robert W. Burns officiating.

Mrs. Victor Clark, organist, will present the musical program of nuptial music. The bride-elect will be given in marriage by R. E. Matheson, a close friend of the family, and the bridegroom will have as his best man, Malcolm Truitt.

The bride-elect has chosen Miss Emily Matheson for her maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Mrs. Capers Smith, a recent bride who had Miss Fillingame as one of her bridesmaids; Misses Jane Coffin, Sarah Davidson and Ann Cox. Ushers will be Capers Smith, Charles Moore, Dana Kilcrease and Robert Winfree.

The couple leave after the ceremony for their wedding trip and upon their return will reside in Jacksonville, Fla.

The young couple was entertained October 5 at a steak fry given by Miss Ann Cox. The guests, in addition to the affianced couple, were Misses Emily Matheson, Jane Coffin, Sarah Davidson, Mesdames Capers Smith, Charles Moore and Messrs. Malcolm Truitt, Dana Kilcrease, Capers Smith, Charles Moore, Robert Winfree and O. L. Childs. Miss Cox was assisted in entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Cox, and her sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chase.

Mrs. J. L. Cline and Mrs. H. H. Askew give a bridge party and linen shower at the home of the former on North Decatur road for Miss Lillian Carpenter, bride-elect.

Mrs. and Mrs. Roy B. Sewell give a buffet supper at their home on Habersham road for their niece, Miss Frances Sewell, and her fiance, Lamar Rich Plunkett, prior to their wedding rehearsal.

Mrs. J. L. Girardeau and Mrs. A. L. Chase give a luncheon at the Mirador room of the Capital City Club for Miss Mae Bess McArthur, bride-elect.

Misses Caroline Apperson and Martha Mobley, brides-elect, will be honored at a party to be given by the Tau Tau Beta Phi sorority at the home of Mrs. Jack Markert.

Mrs. C. W. Sharman Sr. and Mrs. R. B. Jett give a kitchen shower at the home of the former on Courtney drive for Miss Ruth Keeling, bride-elect.

Miss Sara Thurman gives a linen shower at her home on Euclid avenue for Miss Sara Frances Outhouse, bride-elect.

Mrs. R. H. Cleveland gives a linen shower at her home on D. Lowe drive for Miss Catherine Ann Simons, bride-elect.

Dinner dance takes place in the Mirador room of the Capital City Club.

Mrs. Harvey W. Cox entertains the Dames' Club of Emory University at her home on Clifton road.

Commercial High School Alumni Association gives a dinner at the school cafeteria.

Northside Library Association sponsors a barbecue at Lake-moore at 6:30 o'clock.

Atlanta alumnae of the Gamma Phi Beta entertain at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Kendrick for Mrs. E. H. Schell-berg, of Raleigh, N. C., the newly elected director of Province VIII of the Gamma Phi Beta.

Barrett-Carter. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barrett announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Georgia Carolyn Barrett, to James G. Carter Jr., on Thursday afternoon. The marriage was quietly solemnized in the study of Rev. W. W. Watkins.

The couple left after the ceremony for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Belgrade avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carpenter are in New York.

Mrs. A. C. Shepherd continues ill at her home in Clarkston.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Martin Jr. are visiting in New York.

F. E. Maffett is ill at Crawford W. Long hospital, following an operation last Friday.

Dr. Samuel Green left Sunday for New Orleans, where he will take a post-graduate course at Tulane University.

Mrs. A. B. Buttrill spent the weekend in Savannah with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clay.

I. N. Willis is convalescing from a recent operation at his home on Sells avenue.

Mrs. Ansley Wilcox, of Baltimore, Md., has returned to her home after having visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Floyd, on Glenwood avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Will leave today for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the general convention of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. W. T. Adams, of Troy, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter, Lieutenant Commander Francis M. Adams and Mrs. Adams, at their home on Clifton road.

ise of successful achievement.

A happy marriage and a long life are unusually well defined in this hand.

Her gem is the emerald. Her flower the iris.

On Friday Mrs. Jennings will analyze the hand of another Atlanta debutante exclusively for The Atlanta Constitution.

centing her chic sport suit with a cluster of yellow and white charming sisters. Mrs. Dargan Cole and Mrs. Alvin Cates Jr., breakfasting together and enjoying animated conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Honeycutt announce the birth of a daughter, Diane Louise, on October 6 at Emory hospital. Mrs. Honeycutt is the former Miss Edith Folsom.

Miss Dorothy Sheppard is convalescing from a mastoid operation at the Ponce de Leon infirmary.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carpenter are in New York.

Mrs. A. C. Shepherd continues ill at her home in Clarkston.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Martin Jr. are visiting in New York.

F. E. Maffett is ill at Crawford W. Long hospital, following an operation last Friday.

Dr. Samuel Green left Sunday for New Orleans, where he will take a post-graduate course at Tulane University.

Mrs. A. B. Buttrill spent the weekend in Savannah with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clay.

I. N. Willis is convalescing from a recent operation at his home on Sells avenue.

Mrs. Ansley Wilcox, of Baltimore, Md., has returned to her home after having visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Floyd, on Glenwood avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Will leave today for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the general convention of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. W. T. Adams, of Troy, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter, Lieutenant Commander Francis M. Adams and Mrs. Adams, at their home on Clifton road.

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Society Events

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8.

The marriage of Miss Ann Newton Creekmore, of Athens, and Gordon Jones, of Atlanta, takes place at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church in Athens, after which the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Ross Addison Creekmore, entertains at a reception at her home on Rutherford street.

Mrs. Trammell Scott and her daughter, Mrs. Jack Healey, entertain at a luncheon at the home of the former on Habersham road for Miss Jean Oliver, bride-elect.

Mrs. William Schroder gives a bridge luncheon at her home on Rumson road for Miss Elizabeth Colley, bride-elect.

Mrs. Guy D. Ayer gives a tea at her home on Pace's Ferry road for Mrs. Guy D. Ayer Jr., of Cooperstown, N. Y., and Mr. William Candler and Mrs. Ben Barron Jr., recent brides.

Mrs. J. L. Cline and Mrs. H. H. Askew give a bridge party and linen shower at the home of the former on North Decatur road for Miss Lillian Carpenter, bride-elect.

Mrs. and Mrs. Roy B. Sewell give a buffet supper at their home on Habersham road for their niece, Miss Frances Sewell, and her fiance, Lamar Rich Plunkett, prior to their wedding rehearsal.

Mrs. J. L. Girardeau and Mrs. A. L. Chase give a luncheon at the Mirador room of the Capital City Club for Miss Mae Bess McArthur, bride-elect.

Misses Caroline Apperson and Martha Mobley, brides-elect, will be honored at a party to be given by the Tau Tau Beta Phi sorority at the home of Mrs. Jack Markert.

Mrs. C. W. Sharman Sr. and Mrs. R. B. Jett give a kitchen shower at the home of the former on Courtney drive for Miss Ruth Keeling, bride-elect.

Miss Sara Thurman gives a linen shower at her home on Euclid avenue for Miss Sara Frances Outhouse, bride-elect.

Mrs. R. H. Cleveland gives a linen shower at her home on D. Lowe drive for Miss Catherine Ann Simons, bride-elect.

Dinner dance takes place in the Mirador room of the Capital City Club.

Mrs. Harvey W. Cox entertains the Dames' Club of Emory University at her home on Clifton road.

Commercial High School Alumni Association gives a dinner at the school cafeteria.

Northside Library Association sponsors a barbecue at Lake-moore at 6:30 o'clock.

Atlanta alumnae of the Gamma Phi Beta entertain at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Kendrick for Mrs. E. H. Schell-berg, of Raleigh, N. C., the newly elected director of Province VIII of the Gamma Phi Beta.

Barrett-Carter. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Barrett announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Georgia Carolyn Barrett, to James G. Carter Jr., on Thursday afternoon. The marriage was quietly solemnized in the study of Rev. W. W. Watkins.

The couple left after the ceremony for a wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Belgrade avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carpenter are in New York.

Mrs. A. C. Shepherd continues ill at her home in Clarkston.

Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Martin Jr. are visiting in New York.

F. E. Maffett is ill at Crawford W. Long hospital, following an operation last Friday.

Dr. Samuel Green left Sunday for New Orleans, where he will take a post-graduate course at Tulane University.

Mrs. A. B. Buttrill spent the weekend in Savannah with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Clay.

I. N. Willis is convalescing from a recent operation at his home on Sells avenue.

Mrs. Ansley Wilcox, of Baltimore, Md., has returned to her home after having visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Floyd, on Glenwood avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Will leave today for Kansas City, Mo., to attend the general convention of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. W. T. Adams, of Troy, Ala., is visiting her son and daughter, Lieutenant Commander Francis M. Adams and Mrs. Adams, at their home on Clifton road.

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Dr. and Mrs. Edmund Worrell Carter, of Thomaston, announce the birth of a daughter, Suzanne, on September 13 at St. Joseph's

Parties Continue To Compliment Debutante Club

Parties continue to be planned for the popular members of the Debutante Club. On November 11 Mrs. Norman Coolidge and Mrs. Edward Cauthon will be hostesses at a luncheon honoring Misses Mary Elizabeth Beers, Elsa McCall, Evelyn Harrison and Helen McDuffie.

On December 26 Miss Peggy Dutton and her brother, Wilmer C. Dutton Jr., will entertain at an open house for Misses McCall, Helen Randall, Isabelle Vretnam and Margaret Winslip.

Mrs. Harry B. Harmon has selected December 29 as the date for the eggnog party at which she will compliment Misses McDuffie, Harrison and Winslip.

Misses Elsa McCall and Mary Elizabeth Beers will share honors on December 4, at a luncheon at which Mrs. Hinton F. Longino will be hostess at her home on Habersham road.

Mrs. Fred Cannon will entertain November 25 at a luncheon at the Atlanta Athletic Club, honoring Miss Olive Bell Davis, popular debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Davis.

Miss Jeannette Estes will be honored at a luncheon on November 22, at which her cousin, Miss Mary Frances Broach, a student at Shorter College, will entertain at her home on Oakdale road. Guests for this affair, in addition to the honor guest, will include the entire membership of the Debutante Club.

Mrs. Robert Miles entertains on December 11 at a luncheon for this popular debutante.

Misses Martha Merritt and Helen Randall share honors on December 10 at a luncheon to be given by Miss Mildred Rand at her home on Piedmont road. November 20 has been chosen by Mrs. Cosby Swanson for the dinner party at which she will honor Miss Jean Pentecost.

Mrs. Frances Staten, whose marriage to George M. Carson will be a social event of this month, continues to be honored at pre-nuptial social affairs. Recently the lovely bride-elect was central figure at the bridge-luncheon at which Mrs. John Harte entertained.

Centering the table was a crystal bowl containing an arrangement of white roses and carnations. Marking the guests' covers were shoulder clusters of white rosebuds and tuberoses.

Invited were Mesdames William Staten, C. W. Staten, Frederick Nardin, Christopher Sheridan, Sykes Young, Travers Paine Jr., B. W. Thornton, C. E. Busch, Misses Dorothy Harrison, Marguerite Whittington, Gloria Watson and Ellen O'Donnell.

Euzelian Class. The Euzelian Class of the Baptist Tabernacle held its annual home-coming day Sunday.

Miss Majorie Hynate was hostess recently to the cabinet members of the class. Plans were made for the fall program.

New officers of the class to take office Sunday were: President, Mrs. Ona Gardner; first vice president, Mrs. Henrietta Vaughn; second vice president, Miss Nellie Howard; third vice president, Mrs. Majorie Hynate; fourth vice president, Miss Lillian Sears; secretary, Miss Helen Allen; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Sarah Thompson; chorister, Mrs. Lillie Bell Woolen; reporter, Mrs. Edna T. Franklin; pianist, Miss Nellie Biggins; birthday chairman, Mrs. Katie Peck; personal service, Miss Louise Biggins; bulletin board, Miss Ruth Hutchins.

Group captains are Miss Inez Holbrook, Mrs. Burma Wier, Miss Ruth Howard, Mrs. Margaret May, Miss Willie Mae Moore and Miss Mae Allen.

MERRY-GO-ROUND WHEEL BALANCING ON PONCE DE LEON AT P. 10.11

Of course! Our skilled hairdressers are famous for soft, natural permanent waves, easy to keep, unstudiedly casual. Achieved by Antoine's new blocking-in process, giving tendrils. Try it at once! Phone WA. 4636 for appointment.

special for October only! Piero Paris Permanent Wave

Including oil mask, regularly $15.00

10.85

Antoine Salon, Fourth Floor

"Antoine, I'd like a casual permanent, please!"

Of course! Our skilled hairdressers are famous for soft, natural permanent waves, easy to keep, unstudiedly casual. Achieved by Antoine's new blocking-in process, giving tendrils. Try it at once! Phone WA. 4636 for appointment.

special for October only! Piero Paris Permanent Wave

Including oil mask, regularly $15.00

10.85

Antoine Salon, Fourth Floor

"Antoine, I'd like a casual permanent, please!"

Of course! Our skilled hairdressers are famous for soft, natural permanent waves, easy to keep, unstudiedly casual. Achieved by Antoine's new blocking-in process, giving tendrils. Try it at once! Phone WA. 4636 for appointment.

special for October only! Piero Paris Permanent Wave

Including oil mask, regularly $15.00

10.85

Antoine Salon, Fourth Floor

Jackets-Irish Top Week's Card

All in The Game

BY JACK TROY

Amazing Record

At half-time Saturday at Shields-Watkins Field, students seated in a great square on the east side took their multicolored cards and formed a portrait of Bob Neyland. They then formed the words, "Major Bob."

They think a great deal of the tall, dark and handsome head coach on the "Hill." And well they might.

It is easy to go along and accept a fellow like the Major as a fine coach and let it go at that. Sure, people will say he's a good coach.

But good coach doesn't begin to describe it.

Now that Major Bob is back in the public eye because of Tennessee's great victory over Duke, let's take a look at his record.

MAJOR NEYLAND

This is Major Neyland's 14th season at Tennessee. Including the Mercer and Duke victories, he has won 109 games and lost only 12. Imagine that! Only 12 losses in 14 years. And eight ties.

The 14th year will not be completed until the end of the current season, but the Major has an excellent chance of coming on through with his third straight unbeaten ball club. The Vols won 16 straight before losing to Southern Cal. in the Rose Bowl. They've won two on their new streak.

No coach in America can match the Neyland record. He has had seven unbeaten seasons up to now. And with good luck he'll have eight before December.

The Duke club walloped by Tennessee was advertised as "the greatest team in Duke football history."

Tennessee was considered just another good Neyland ball club. Which was good enough. He doesn't have any bad ones. And there were indications Saturday that it might develop into one of the better Volunteer aggregations as time goes on.

Hold That Line! A few football items of great significance appeared in the Sunday papers. Sewanee scored more points in defeating Cumberland than were scored in all the Tiger games of last season. It was a great start for Jenks Gillem.

Dartmouth Saturday lost to Franklin and Marshall, 23 to 21. Dartmouth, the Big Green, dodged Georgia but accepted Sewanee. Maybe they got a bargain and maybe not.

Fact of the matter, it might not be a bad thought for the Big Green to check up on the playing fields again. Sewanee scored 49 points Saturday.

Another stirring story in the Sunday papers concerned Lafayette's victory over vaunted New York University, coached by the great Dr. Mal Stevens.

I quote from the story of Louis Effrat in the New York Times:

"The final score was 9-7, but neither the margin of victory nor the other statistics gave a true indication of Lafayette's superiority."

Incidentally, the Army Mule really must have it this season, too. Army rose to magnificent heights to lick Williams (not a shaving cream), 20-19.

Among the many odd things is this Sunday headline taken from the Miami (Fla.) Herald:

POTENT VOLS SCARE DUKE BLUE DEVILS, 13-0.

The Vols really would've had 'em going with a couple more touchdowns, huh?

It's 'Canute' Radio listeners and others chancing to hear trailers advertising the picture, Knute Rockne—All-American, were surprised no little at the pronunciation of the late Irish coach's first name.

Hollywood, always different, has had to go back to the Norwegian, which is "Canute."

Despite the fact that the Rock's first name was Anglicized to Knute and that all his best friends, and others, called him Knute, Hollywood thought it best to employ the odd-sounding Canute.

Arney-way Others-bray, which is feeble pig Latin for the corporation, has made the picture which otherwise is said to be a faithful account of the great Notre Dame coach's career.

Special There will be a football special leaving the Terminal Saturday at 10 a. m. for the Ole Miss-Georgia game, giving patrons of the game a chance to avoid the arduous of driving.

Plenty of time is to be allowed following the game, the departure from Athens having been set for 5:45.

Incidentally, the game is certain to be a sell-out. Followers will know after Saturday just how good the Bulldogs really are.

Ole Miss already has indicated a certain greatness by scoring a one-sided victory over L. S. U., easy conqueror of Holy Cross.

Auburn as Strong

As Boston-Dawson

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 7.—(P)—

Coach Red Dawson of Tulane rated Auburn's football team today on a par with that of Boston College, and said the Alabamians would have beaten his club as badly as the New Englanders did "if we had made as many mistakes."

"Boston College has more power in the line but the linemen are not as hard for blockers to get as those of Auburn. The Auburn linemen are faster and jump around more. The Auburn backs, also, are better."

"If we had made as many mistakes against Auburn as we did against Boston College we would have been beaten as bad or worse."

Boston beat Tulane 27-7 and Auburn took the Wave 20-14.

Tennessee-Duke

On Screens Here

Movies of Tennessee's 13-0 victory over Duke, accomplished before an overflow crowd at Knoxville Saturday are being offered at the Capitol and Paramount theaters.

The films present the Vols' two touchdown drives, with the running and passing of Bob Fox as a feature. They will be shown all week.

WIREPHOTO

PACIFIC CHAMP CROWN

Hard-hitting Virginia Wolfenden, of San Francisco (above) won the Pacific coast women's singles championship by outslamming Helen Jacobs, of Berkeley, former queen of the courts and top-ranked player of the tournament, 6 to 4 and 6 to 2.

Tech Stresses Pass Offense And Defense

Ison in Uniform First Time in 2 Weeks; Scrimmage Set Today.

By JOHNNY BRADBERRY.

Upon the good right arms of Johnny Bosch, Dick Bates and Bobby Beers lies Tech's hopes of defeating Notre Dame Saturday.

The Howard game proved to Yellow Jacket coaches their running attack is not going anywhere on sheer power. But if the passers can keep up the excellent work shown against the Bulldogs, the Techs will gain a lot of ground.

With the opposition defense opened up by the passing threat, the little Tech backs may be able to break through for long runs. But without fine passing the attack would be impotent.

It was with this in mind the Jacket coaches opened drills for the Irish yesterday.

PASS OFFENSE.

The backs and ends worked long and hard on pass offense. Bosch and Bates threw the ball, and George Webb, Rob Ison and the other ends made fine catches.

Ison was dressed for practice for the first time in nearly two weeks. His injured knee seems to be all right but it won't be known definitely whether he will be ready to play or not until he takes part in a scrimmage.

Bobby Pair also returned to drills, but he was running with a decided limp. It is doubtful he'll be able to go against the Irish.

Roy Gore, who didn't play against Howard, was not even in uniform and some concern was expressed about his knee. At first it was thought he would only be out for a day or two. But it hasn't responded to treatment as it should. However, he is fairly certain to play unless he gets hurt again in scrimmage.

IRISH REPORTED STRONG.

Ray McArthur scouted Elmer Layden's team against College of the Pacific Saturday and reported Notre Dame looks as good as they did last year.

Although they lost a lot of men, they still have 'em three deep, Roy said.

He was impressed with the play of Fullback Piepul and Halfback Saggau.

The Yellow Jackets came through their opening game with no additional injuries, which made fans hope the injury season is over for a while.

Scrimmages are scheduled today and Wednesday. The team will leave late Thursday afternoon.

Morehouse Plays

Ky. State Saturday

Morehouse College, after a surprise 7-7 tie with Lane College who was favored to win the S. I. A. C. title, will officially open the Negro college grid season in Atlanta Saturday when they engage the strong Kentucky State eleven at Ponce de Leon park at 2 o'clock.

The team from the Blue Grass region is one of the pre-season favorites to cop the national title this year, and Morehouse, with a strong first team but with few reserves, should give the Kentuckians a real battle of it. Tickets for the melee are already on sale at the Morehouse business office on

Wave Battles Fordham Ram At New York

Flock of Big Intersectional Games Features Schedule.

By JACK CUDDY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(UP)—A flock of fine intersectional games, headed by the Notre Dame-Georgia Tech tilt, features this week's national football program. However, a few bang-up regional brawls, like Northwestern vs. Ohio State, challenge for attention.

Georgia Tech, surprise team of '39 and Orange Bowl victor, invades Elmer Layden's formidable Notre Dame outfit at South Bend, Ind., Saturday. Each has had one tune-up for this melee. Last week the Layden men beat College of the Pacific, 27-7, and Tech downed Howard, 27-0. Last year's encounter was a lulu, with Notre Dame the victor, 17-14.

Southern Methodist, another strong contender for national honors, gets an important test at Pittsburgh against the Pitt Panthers, who warned last week that they still have claws in their 19-13 victory over Missouri. Southern Methodist has beaten U. C. L. A. and Denton Teachers. Pitt lost its opening game to menacing Ohio State.

FORDHAM VS. TULANE.

Other noteworthy intersectional tilts match Fordham-Tulane at New York, Southern California-Illinois at Champaign, Ill.; North Carolina-Texas Christian at Chapel Hill, N. C.; Texas-Oklahoma at Dallas; Rice-Louisiana State at Houston; Texas Aggies-U. C. L. A. at Los Angeles; Michigan-Harvard at Cambridge, Mass.; Franklin & Marshall-Richmond at Lancaster, Pa., and on Friday, the Duke-South Carolina at Pittsburgh, and Villanova-Florida at Philadelphia.

The rest of the program may be sectionalized as follows:

MIDWEST—Two excellent tussles are slated in the Big Ten. Powerful Ohio State tangles with Northwestern at Evanston, Ill. Ohio State had difficulty beating Purdue 17-14 last week, while Northwestern was crushing Syracuse, 40-0. The other Big Ten encounter matches Iowa and Wisconsin. Kansas State and Missouri meet in the Big Six. Other pairings are Nebraska-Indiana, Michigan State-Purdue, Kansas-Drake, and on Friday Marquette-Iowa State, and Detroit-Ypsilanti Teachers.

SOUTH—Mississippi and Georgia collide over a bellringer in the Southeastern conference, where Vanderbilt and Kentucky also met. Four games are slated in the Southern conference: Clemson-Wake Forest; Davidson-Virginia Military; Furman-The Citadel, and William & Mary-Virginia Tech. Meanwhile, mighty Tennessee has a breather in Chattanooga. Alabama engages Howard, and Maryland meets Virginia.

ARMY VS. CORNELL.

ARMY—Army, which escaped 20-19 from Williams, is pitted against powerful Cornell. Yale, upset by Virginia, tries a comeback against strong Pennsylvania. Dartmouth, beaten by Franklin & Marshall, tries to bounce back against Columbia. Holy Cross, crushed by Louisiana State, meets Carnegie Tech. New York University, upset by little Lafayette, engages Syracuse. Other pairings are Princeton-Navy, Boston College-Temple; Penn State-West Virginia; Brown-Colgate, and on Friday, Georgetown-Wayneburg and Manhattan-Boston U.

PACIFIC COAST—Two conference games pair California-Washington State, and Oregon-Washington. Other matches are Stanford-Santa Clara, Portland-Oregon State, Idaho-Gonzaga, and on Sunday, San Francisco-St. Mary's.

SOUTHWEST—Arkansas and Baylor meet in the lone conference game.

BIG SEVEN—Three conference tilts are slated: Brigham Young-Wyoming; Utah State-Colorado. Utah engages Arizona in a non-conference game. On Friday, Denver plays Colorado State.

Louisville Beats

Newark Bears, 6-2

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 7.—(P)—Cecil (Tex) Hughson, lanky right-hander, pitched the Louisville Colonels back into the running in the 1940 Little World Series tonight with a 6-to-2 victory over the Newark Bears of the International League. Newark now holds a 3-to-2 edge in games in the best-of-seven series.

GODOY WINS.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—(P)—Arturo Godoy, the South American heavyweight from Chile, took the first step towards a third meeting with Champion Joe Louis tonight by outmanning Gus D'Amico, of Philadelphia, to win a 10-round decision in a rough bout. There were no knockdowns.

Reds and Tigers

Even Money Bet

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Oct. 7.—(P)—It's an even-money bet that your team will win the World Series in tomorrow's decisive game between the Cincinnati Reds and the Detroit Tigers.

Betting commissioners said tonight they were offering "five to six and take your choice." Before the series started, the odds were 17 to 10 against the Reds.

WHAT D'YA MEAN

Double-Checked Fit-

HE CROWLS

1. THIS CUSTOMER comes in about 9:30 this morning and he's plenty tough. "Listen," he says, "I've bought a lot of suits in my time and what gets my goat is the way most of 'em don't fit. Now what's this I hear about Hart Schaffner & Marx double-checked fit?"

"SIMPLE AS ABC," I tell him, "but awfully important. The fit of every Hart Schaffner & Marx suit we sell is checked first in the Hart Schaffner & Marx tailoring shops, then double-checked by our own tailoring experts."

2. HE GIVES ME A FISHY EYE. "How," he wants to know, "can Hart Schaffner & Marx fit in their shops a guy they've never seen?"

"THAT'S JUST IT," I tell him. "Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes are designed for men of all builds. No matter whether you're extra tall, hefty, short, or what have you, they make a model to fit you, for they have developed more specialty sizes than any other manufacturer. Now take a look at these pictures."

3. HE GRUNTS A BIT, but I can see he's beginning to thaw. "Here's a step in the evolution of a coat," I explain in my best classroom manner. "Note how the waistline is beginning to take on a definite shape, both on the sides and in the front. That's so the coat will follow the contours of your body and really fit. All of this work has to be done by skilled tailors, for this is pretty ticklish business, and if anything goes wrong here the coat won't ever fit. See?"

4. "I CATCH," he says, "go on." I show him this picture. "Here they're checking the fit of the shoulders. Shoulders, you know, have to have a certain fullness put in just so, so the coat will hug the shoulders smooth-like but without gripping." He grinned. "I didn't—but it's a good idea."

5. "EVER HAVE a coat collar that didn't fit?" I ask him. "Too many of 'em," he snorted. "Exactly," I say, "now here's a hawk-eye making sure the collar of this coat will lie smoothly around the neck. This is an art and takes a lot of skill—and plenty of checking!" He looked impressed.

6. "WHEN A SLEEVE marries an arm-hole," I go on, "the hitch has to be smooth or you get no comfort out of the suit." Then I drop a bombshell in his lap. "And these few checking operations are only the beginning. There are 27 checks altogether." His eyes popped and he gave a little whistle.

7. BY THIS TIME my tailor is laying a tape on the Triple Test Worstest my customer had slipped into. "And here," I explain, "you see the double-check—an operation that we have pledged ourselves to—in order to make certain that you do get a perfect fit! When this tailor gets through—the collar, back, sleeves, trousers length, will all fit 100%—and the suit will have a longer life simply because it does fit well!"

8. HE STOOD THERE admiring himself and he was all smiles. "I think," he beamed, "you've shown me how to get rid of one of my pet peeves—poor-fitting clothes. Have a cigar—you know your business!" And, wouldn't you know it... the boss didn't even hear him! Just my-luck!

TAILORED BY

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX

$37.50

ZACHRY

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes

87 PEACHTREE

Triple Test WORSTED

—tailored by Hart Schaffner & Marx—is the suit shown here. It's ready for you now in a wide new variety of colors and patterns at a price that offers you one of the best clothing buys in town this fall! And remember this Triple Test suit, like every Hart Schaffner & Marx suit... FITS.

Reds Chase Rowe in 1st, Blank Tigers, 4-0, Even Series Again

Walters Gives But Five Hits, Socks Homer

Great Fielding Helps Bucky; Derringer Faces Newsom Today.

By JUDSON BAILEY.
CROSBY FIELD, CINCINNATI, Oct. 7.—(P)—Bucky Walters, the wonder boy of the National league pitchers for two years, pitched and batted the Cincinnati Reds to a 4-to-0 conquest over the Detroit Tigers today and forced the 1940 World Series to its limit of seven games.

Just as he hurled three-hit ball to tame the Tigers in the second game of the series and level the standing last Thursday, Bucky today pitched a nearly flawless five-hit brand to strangle them into a shutout.

But almost more than his pitching, the 30,481 hopeful hometown fans goggled at the home run their hero hit over the left-field wall in the eighth inning as a sort of disdainful parting gesture to Detroit.

ROWE BLASTED.

This blow, the second homer Walters hit this year, only served to heap humiliation on the Tigers. It came off young Fred Hutchinson long after the Reds had sewed up the victory by shelling Lynwood (Schoolboy) Rowe off the mound in the first inning.

In two respects the struggle followed the pattern of the other Series games—first that each rival alternates victory and second that the games usually are decided early and finish one-sided.

The Tigers banked heavily on Rowe repudiating his performance against Walters in their previous tangle, when he was knocked out by a five-run uprising in the fourth inning. Instead the same stuff that the Reds liked before they liked earlier today.

Bill Werber, the Series' chief troublemaker for opposing pitchers, started the steamup with a terrific line drive to the fence in the first inning, good for a double.

Mike McCormick sacrificed him to third and then Ival Gooden, Frank McCormick and Jim Rippe hit consecutive singles to send Rowe shuffling to the showers.

WERBER SCORES.

Werber scored on a hit by Goodman who raced home from second on Rippe's sharp shot to center.

John Gorsica, who relieved Rowe in his other fiasco, came up with another creditable fireman's performance, stopping this rally and allowing only one run and five hits in the 6-2-3 innings he pitched.

But as on the other occasion.

Continued on Page 19.

NOT A DANCE, IT'S WILSON SCORING—Jimmy Wilson, Reds' catcher, looks as if he's doing some sort of a dance, but actually he's scoring in the sixth inning Monday at Cincinnati.

He came in from third on Bucky Walters' tap to Pinky Higgins. Catcher Tebbetts seems to be having trouble locating Wilson. Umpire is Ormsby.

The Box Score

(SIXTH WORLD SERIES GAME.)

| DETROIT (A.L.) | AB. | R. | H. | PO. | A. | E. |
|----------------|-----|----|----|-----|----|----|
| Bartlett, ss   | 3   | 0  | 2  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| xxBullman, ss  | 1   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Croucher, ss   | 1   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| McCloskey, cf  | 4   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Gehring, 2b    | 4   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Greenberg, if  | 3   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| York, 1b       | 4   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Campbell, 3b   | 3   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Higgins, 3b    | 3   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Tebbetts, c    | 3   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Rowe, p        | 0   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| xxGorsica, p   | 2   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| xxVerill, p    | 1   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Hutchinson, p  | 0   | 0  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Totals         | 31  | 0  | 5  | 24  | 15 | 0  |

xxBatted for Gorsica in eighth.

xxBatted for Bartlett in eighth.

CINCINNATI (N.L.)

| AB.              | R. | H. | PO. | A. | E. |
|------------------|----|----|-----|----|----|
| Werber, 3b       | 5  | 1  | 2   | 1  | 3  |
| McCormick, cf    | 3  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Goodman, rf      | 4  | 1  | 2   | 2  | 0  |
| F. McCormick, 1b | 4  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Rippe, if        | 2  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Wilson, c        | 3  | 1  | 1   | 4  | 0  |
| Joost, 2b        | 4  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Myers, ss        | 4  | 0  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Walters, p       | 4  | 1  | 0   | 0  | 0  |
| Totals           | 32 | 4  | 10  | 27 | 14 |

Detroit (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Runs batted in, Goodman, Rippe, Walters; 2; two-base hits, Werber, Bartlett; home run, Walters; sacrifices, M. McCormick, Goodman; double plays, Joost to Myers to F. McCormick; F. McCormick to Myers to F. McCormick; F. McCormick to Tebbetts to York; earned runs, Cincinnati 4; left on bases, Detroit 6, Cincinnati 11; bases on balls, off Gorsica 4 (Rippe, 2, Joost, Wilson); off Hutchinson 1 (M. McCormick); struck out, by Gorsica 3 (Wilson, Myers, Walters); by Hutchinson 1 (Myers); by Walters 2 (Greenberg, Gorsica). Pitching summary: Rowe, 2 runs, 4 hits in 1-3 innings; Gorsica, 1 run, 5 hits in 6-2-3 innings; Hutchinson, 1 run, 1 hit in 1 inning; losing pitcher, Rowe. Umpires, Ormsby, A. L. Plate; Ballantyne, N. L. 1b; Basil, A. L. 2b; Klem, N. L. 3b. Time, 2:01. Attendance paid, 30,481.

Focus on the Future

Travis Builds 'Paradise'

By JOHN MARTIN.

Georgia has a gentleman farmer who wants just two things. The first is the batting championship of the American League and the second is a "place to go hunt and fish when I'm through."

It takes only one guess—Cecil Travis, the Riverdale boy. Nine years ago Travis was taken from behind a pack of rabbit hounds by Tubby Walton and shipped to Washington via Chattanooga. He's been there ever since and more than once has knocked at the gate of the hitting title.

At 28 he still has ten more years of major league baseball ahead and with it a good chance to realize his batting ambition.

ADDS FISH POND.

Travis was in town yesterday buzzing with plans to add fish ponds to his pine tree-bob white project on his 700-acre farm in Fayette and Clayton counties.

Before he left for the baseball wars with the Senators, in which case it was a futile one for his team, Travis made his plantation a game preserve. He planted over 50 acres of food for quail and placed a five-year ban on hunting on his acreage. In addition, he covered several fields with 30,000 pine seedlings.

Two weeks from now he hopes to have a five-acre lake completed and stocked with black bass and bream. He already has selected a site and was making arrangements for construction yesterday, accomplishing his second desire—a place to have fun when he's through.

If there is anyone who is bold enough to call hunting and fishing anything but the greatest of sports for the retired gentry, Travis and 200,000 more Georgians would like to know about it.

LAUDS NAT HURLERS.

Tricked into talking baseball, Travis admitted in his naive way that he led the Senators at bat again. He clouted for a mark comfortably over 320 and was a member of the American League All-Star team.

There was little he could say for the Senators, but he said that they have three of the "best pitchers in the business—Leonard, Hudson and Chase."

He rates Hudson and Leonard behind only two in the league. Bob Feller and Buck Newsom.

"These boys were good this year," he agreed, "and there is no doubt about Feller being the toughest man in the game."

Vol Bowl Talk Silly, Declares Major Neyland

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 7.—(P)—If you want Major Bob Neyland to think that you are a dumb galoot, just walk up to him and say:

"Well, major, it looks like Tennessee is headed for another New Year's Day Bowl game, doesn't it?"

You don't have to specify which bowl, Orange or Rose or Sugar (the latter is the one in which the Volunteers have not played); all you have to do is just act like Tennessee doesn't have to play Alabama or Louisiana State or Vanderbilt or Kentucky.

"Isn't that the silliest talk you ever heard?" asked the major today when the bowl subject was introduced. "Here it is only the second week in October and we've got eight games yet to play. It sounds silly to me."

The 13-to-0 drubbing the Vols gave Duke's Blue Devils here Saturday caused the bowl talk to mushroom wherever two or more grid fans assembled.

Said Neyland, "Most of our boys have played in bowl games. I don't think they'll get excited about the talk. We're going to play our games one at a time."

So, undisturbed, the Vols set their sights on the University of Chattanooga for this weekend and the Crimson Tide of Alabama for the following Saturday. The experts will tell you the fellow Tennesseans will be easy pickings but that the Alabama affairs will be something else.

Butts Seeking More Accurate Passing Game

Wally Fears Wild Heaves Against Ole Miss; Scrimmage Today.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 7.—Rain cut short Georgia's first practice in preparation for Saturday's game with Mississippi today, but Coach Wallace Butts planned to scrimmage tomorrow regardless of the weather.

The Bulldog mentor said, however, that unless rain held up, the scrimmage would be on defense only. Otherwise, the rough work would take in both offense and defense.

Although it didn't begin to rain until late in the afternoon, overcast skies predicted it hours in advance, and Coach Butts ordered his charges on the field in light tights. He had planned to get in a little knocking but changed his mind.

FOUR INTERCEPTED.

Passing, very ragged against South Carolina, was stressed. The Bulldogs had four aerials intercepted by the Gamecocks and Coach Butts isn't anxious to see that repeated against Harry Mehre's Rebels.

"We can't hand those Mississippi backs the ball on intercepted passes and still hope to win," he said. "So we've got to get it across to our boys that it is essential to throw the ball where it won't be caught by the opposition."

Cooter Bryant, reserve sophomore wingback, who has been running on the Red Devils off and on all this season, was shifted to fullback today and looked pretty good. Bryant's shift will be permanent in all probability, since Andy Dudish is apparently completely recovered from an injury suffered early in the year and is now ready and rarin' to go.

KEUPER READY.

Big Red Keuper, No. 2 fullback, who was held out of service in the South Carolina game, will be ready for the Mississippi game. Keuper has had a charley horse and could have played Saturday if it had been necessary.

Johnny Broadnax, assistant director of athletics, reported Monday was the heaviest day yet in ticket sales, and reiterated his prediction that the Mississippi game would be a sell-out.

Tickets between the 20-yard line on the south side have been sold and most of those between the 35-yard line on the north are exhausted. Fifty-yard line seats—there are approximately 3,000 of those—have been sold for ten days.

Ole Miss' Les Dodson Will Face Georgia.

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 7.—(P)—Definite assurance today that Les Dodson, senior tailback, would see service against Georgia Saturday brightened prospects for the University of Mississippi as a badly battered rebel team went through its first workout in preparation for the Bulldogs.

Coach Harry Mehre said the club looked poor in the session, and appeared very pessimistic over the game. He said he did not see how Frank Sinkwich and the other Georgia backs could be stopped.

HALL WINS.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Oct. 7.—(P)—J. Gilbert Hall, of New York, defending champion, smashed out a straight victory, 6-2, 6-2, over J. Potter Stockton, of New York, today in the opening round of the 28th annual Hot Springs fall tennis tournament.

World Series Facts, Figures

By The Associated Press.

THE STANDINGS:

First game (at Cincinnati):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Newsom and Sullivan; Derringer, Moore, Riddle and Wilson, Baker.

Second game (at Cincinnati):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Rowe, Gorsica and Tebbetts; Walters and Wilson, Baker.

Third game (at Detroit):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Turner, Moore, Bease and Lombardi; Baker, Bridges and Tebbetts.

Fourth game (at Detroit):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Derringer and Wilson; Trout, Smith, McKain and Sullivan.

Fifth game (at Detroit):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Turner, Moore, Bease and Thompson; Moore, Vander Meer, Hutchings and Wilson.

Sixth game (at Cincinnati):

Det. (A.L.)

Cincinnati (N.L.)

Batteries: Rowe, Gorsica, Hutchinson and Tebbetts; Walters and Wilson.

Attendance, 30,481.

Sixth game attendance and financial figures:

Attendance, 35,189.

Receipts, $142,424.99.

Advisory Council, $21,513.75.

Clubs' and leagues' share, $121,911.24.

Total attendance and financial figures (six games):

Attendance, 255,073.

Receipts, $1,101,023.09.

Players' pool (first four games only):

(x) $373,820.56.

Advisory Council (x) $165,153.86.

Clubs' and leagues' share (x) $562,039.07.

(x) Does not include share of $100,000 radio rights money.

Seventh game at Cincinnati today.

MIDGET AUTO MEET.

The Atlanta Miniature Car Race Club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at 604 Peachtree street. There are 18 members and others interested are invited, officials announce.

Scarborough, Doyal Fight 'Let-Downs'

Overconfidence Big Worry as Teams Work for Typists, Poets.

By JOHN MARTIN.

Collar Sidney Scarborough in the north end of Piedmont Park and he's frowning, even with the sun behind the clouds. Step across the white walkway that separates the Smithie and Purple squads and Shorty Doyal would take no smile prizes—not even with his team rolling along into another G. I. A. goblet.

Take a look at the cards and you find that Tech High has Commercial and Boys' High has Lanier down for the weekend. The Typists can show only one victory in four starts and the Poets have been battered by Jordan and tied by Columbus.

ALWAYS TOUGH.

Nothing to worry about there. But listen to Scarborough:

"We're not taking Commercial lightly. They always have been tough and this should be no exception. Yeah, I'll start the first team and just hope it'll be enough. I'm afraid the boys will be taking the game as a soft one. This always backfires into your lap."

Mere mention that the Smithies shouldn't lose another before the Boys' High game November 1 gave the Smithie coach and his sidekick, Allen Shi, a set of chills and fever.

Doyal himself is guarding against overconfidence among his Purples, who, if beaten, will do it themselves. The Purples are weakened with injuries to Jake Cox and Kalex Alexander, and Carroll and Bradenburg are out of the Lanier game Thursday night, but they are expected to win without pressing.

Too much of this kind of thinking by the players, however, may prove fatal, Doyal fears. And his way of keeping them in the right groove is lots of hard knocking. This they were doing on Blue Monday afternoon.

DECATUR VS. ATHENS.

Although these G. I. A. battles headline the prep card here this week, there will be action aplenty in all corners of town.

Canton will come to North Fulton and Russell crosses town to West Fulton. G. M. A. will open its home season with Jesup Friday night and should win their second of the year.

At Decatur a tremendous struggle looms between the rebounding Bulldogs and Athens, one of the outstanding teams of the season. This big N. G. I. C. game is set for 8 o'clock Friday night and a record crowd is predicted, with a large turnout driving over from Athens to watch Alex McCaskill's heavy eleven move.

Hapeville tackles the North Fulton B team Friday afternoon, and Marist, riddled with injuries, will take a rest after four tough ones in a row.

PENN. TELEVIEWED.

Football fans who visited Franklin Field Saturday, to witness the opening game of the University of Pennsylvania's eight-game schedule, noticed several new structures suspended from the upper tier of the south stand at either 20-yard line. Somewhat of the appearance of motion picture studio scaffolds, these platforms housed television cameras which will telecast the seven remaining football games this fall.

BACK FOR BULLDOGS—Wobble Davidson, left, junior left flankman for the University of Mississippi football team, gives rangy Chick Gladding a warm welcome on Gladding's return to uniform and active service after a layoff of nearly five weeks. Gladding, 195-pound right end, also a junior letterman, broke a small bone in his left foot with the beginning of pre-season practice. Action in the Georgia tilt will be his first for the campaign.

Oct. 12, 1929 Mehre Beat Yale Saturday He's a Foe

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 7.—Two particularly significant dates crossed today when Mississippi's Harry Mehre began checking plans for the Johnny Rebs' invasion of Athens Saturday for the game with the University of Georgia.

The dates cross because they are identical—the 12th day of October in each case, and yet they are 11 years apart.

Back in 1929 the Bulldogs of Georgia upset tradition in beating a favored Yale team, 15 to 0, to dedicate Sanford Stadium. The job was accomplished with a group known as Mehre's "Twelve Flaming Sophomores," and it took place on October 12.

But great as that triumph was to Mehre and to Georgia, it won't be more than a parallel to his first invasion of Sanford Stadium as head coach of another team, which is being made on October 12.

Mehre isn't the only one with a personal interest in the game, for Catfish Smith, Rebel end tutor, was one of those "Flaming Sophomores," and later went on to All-America honors as an end, and Wernie Baskin, Ole Miss line coach, was a member of the Georgia staff for several years.

That the Bulldogs' great sophomore team, mixed with a squad of unheralded but potent veterans, will be dangerous and probably a slightly-favored foe is understood by Rebel coaches, but Mehre, while he doesn't possess a dozen of those sophs of the type he had in '29, does figure to make a real try in his first coaching return to Athens.

The reasons are threefold—California's galloping Merle Hapes, L'il Butch Hovious and Captain George Kinnard, Ole Miss ends.

They led play in Mississippi's 19-6 victory over Louisiana State ten days ago, and they'll figure prominently in any surge propelled by the Rebels—and guided by Harry Mehre.

BUY WHAT YOU NEED NOW

Take 30-60-90 Days

MARCUS

MEN'S WEAR SPECIALISTS

62 PEACHTREE ST.

Cornell Replaces Duke as Top Eleven

Vols Are Rated 6th Nationally By Williamson

'Upset Saturday' Gives System Worst Beating of Career.

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON.
The Big Red of Cornell takes the place of Duke's Blue Devils at the top of the nation's football teams after about the craziest weekend of upsets imaginable.

Cornell blanked Colgate, 34 to 0, to gain the top rating of 99.9, while Duke was losing to Tennessee 13 to 0 for a toboggan out of the leading 10.

The system had picked Duke and we offer no alibi. Coach Bob Neyland's Volunteers were just more horse than we figured. For it's victory, Tennessee moved into the first 10 at sixth place.

Credit the System with some mighty good picks, even with the deluge of upsets that cut us down to a win-or-lose efficiency of 81 per cent—the lowest since the Williamson system's inception. We picked a lot of winners that most other experts didn't.

Closest pick in the major games was Colorado 7, Kansas State 6. Both teams were rated at 81.3, but we shaded in favor of Colorado.

Michigan's 21-to-14 triumph over Michigan State vindicated our choice in a battle of the giants. Oklahoma came through in a close one to justify a reverse of our preseason ratings, by nosing out Oklahoma Aggies 29 to 27. The System was practically alone in picking Auburn to knock over Tulane, 20 to 14.

Outstanding picks were Richmond over V. P. I., 13-7; Texas over Indiana, 13-6; George Washington over Manhattan, 21-18; Minnesota over Nebraska, 13-7; and Ohio State over Purdue, 17-4.

Other good picks were Western Reserve over Akron, 6-0; Baylor over Denver, 14-7; Detroit over Catholic U., 13-0; South Dakota State over Omaha, 12-7; Georgetown over Temple, 14-0; Stanford over Oregon, 13-0; T. C. U. over Arkansas, 20-0, and Washington State over Montana, 13-0.

Fireworks on the upsets started when the fine little Franklin and Marshall team from Philadelphia toppled big Dartmouth 23-21 in one of the greatest of all football upsets. While that was going on, Army just got by Williams 20 to 10 in what was supposed to be a "pushover." New Hampshire was swamping Bates 27 to 6; Princeton was barely skinnin' by Vanderbilt 7 to 6; Lafayette was nosing out N. Y. U. 9 to 7, and Louisiana State was blanking Holy Cross 25 to 0 in spite of everybody from newboys to experts picking the other way.

Among the mild upsets were Santa Clara 9, U. C. L. A. 6; California, St. Mary 6; Connecticut, 13, Massachusetts 0; Iowa State 7, Kansas 0; Clemson 26, North Carolina State 7, to stop the Wolf-pack's surprising early season stride; Pittsburgh 19, Missouri 13; Southern California tying Oregon State 0-0, and Virginia 19, Yale 14. Virginia beating Yale caused plenty of comment, because it was the first time in 24 years the Cavaliers defeated the boys from the Ivy League. Last week we barely shaded Yale over Virginia, with respective ratings of 84.5 and 84.2.

PREDICTION RECORD.
Games ..... 181
Won ..... 143
Ties predicted by ratings ..... 6
Other ties ..... 2
Lost ..... 32
Percentage ..... 807
Season to date ..... 831

Finals Scheduled In Doctors' Meet

Finals in the Fulton County Medical Society's 15th annual golf tournament are scheduled Wednesday afternoon at Druid Hills. Play will begin at 1:30.

A dinner is scheduled at the clubhouse following the tournament. Prizes will be awarded to the flight winners and to victors in special events. A motion picture on sports will be shown.

Approximately 100 golfers entered the tournament which began six weeks ago. Dr. T. R. Staton, last year's champion, is chairman of the committee in charge of the tournament.

Today's final pairings follow: Championship Flight—Dr. A. O. Linch vs. Dr. J. R. Childs.
First Flight—Dr. Harold McDonald vs. Dr. Julian Riley.
Second Flight—Dr. Harry Lange won from Dr. George Eubank.
Third Flight—Dr. W. L. Thompson vs. Dr. Noah W. Baird.
Fourth Flight—Dr. H. G. Eates vs. Dr. J. K. Fancher.

NOW... 5 YEARS OLD!
This Whiskey is
CENTURY CLUB
STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY
$1.25
AND BETTER THAN EVER...
PINT

DOWN THE MIDDLE—Principal W. O. Cheney, of Tech High school, rolls the first ball in opening the season for the Prep League bowlers yesterday at the downtown

Williamson

These post-game ratings represent each team's efficiency of consistent performance to date this season, calculated by the Williamson National Rating System. The ratings indicate each team's relative strength in comparison with its scheduled opponents, but not always the strength of each team as compared to all the others in the table. The final ratings of the completed season, however, should be close to a 100 per cent measure of the strength of the respective teams. The percentage figures below (left-hand column) are for convenience, although it is expected that at the end of the season the teams will finish in their true 1-2-3 order.

| PERF. TEAM        | 100 PERCENT TEAM      | 100.0 |
|-------------------|-----------------------|-------|
| 1 Cornell U.      | 99.959 Temple         | 96.8  |
| 2 Texas A&M       | 99.760 Arkansas U.    | 86.8  |
| 3 S. M. U.        | 98.681 Wash. St.      | 86.7  |
| 4 Northwestern    | 97.602 Texas Tech     | 86.4  |
| 5 Michigan U.     | 96.763 Alabama        | 86.4  |
| 6 Tennessee       | 95.784 Oregon U.      | 86.2  |
| 7 Ole Miss.       | 95.465 W. Virginia    | 86.0  |
| 8 T. C. U.        | 94.566 Holy Cross     | 85.7  |
| 9 Boston Col.     | 94.367 Virginia U.    | 85.4  |
| 10 Ohio St.       | 94.168 Furman         | 85.4  |
| 11 Wake Forest    | 93.869 Bucknell       | 85.2  |
| 12 Minnesota      | 93.570 Geo. Wash. U.  | 85.1  |
| 13 Iowa U.        | 93.471 Marquette U.   | 85.0  |
| 14 Iowa St.       | 93.172 San Jose       | 84.7  |
| 15 Kentucky       | 93.073 Frank-Mash.    | 84.7  |
| 16 Stanford       | 92.974 Drake          | 84.7  |
| 17 Duke           | 92.775 Yale           | 84.5  |
| 18 Purdue         | 92.676 Denver         | 84.5  |
| 19 Auburn         | 92.577 Illinois U.    | 84.3  |
| 20 Princeton      | 92.178 Richmond U.    | 84.0  |
| 21 Michigan St.   | 92.079 Marshall       | 84.0  |
| 22 Fordham        | 92.080 Dartmouth      | 83.7  |
| 23 Georgetown U.  | 91.881 Manhattan      | 83.7  |
| 24 Georgia Tech   | 91.882 Hard-Sims      | 83.7  |
| 25 So. Calif.     | 91.783 Fresno St.     | 83.2  |
| 26 Georgia U.     | 91.784 San Fran. U.   | 83.4  |
| 27 Clemson        | 91.685 Catholic U.    | 83.4  |
| 28 Penn U.        | 91.486 California U.  | 83.4  |
| 29 Oklahoma U.    | 91.387 Navy           | 83.1  |
| 30 Vanderbilt     | 91.288 Army           | 83.1  |
| 31 S. U.          | 91.289 Wash. & Lee    | 82.9  |
| 32 Notre Dame     | 91.190 St. Mary, Cal. | 82.9  |
| 33 Wisconsin      | 90.991 Florida        | 82.8  |
| 34 Wash. U., Cal. | 90.892 Syracuse       | 82.7  |
| 35 Villanova      | 90.693 Rutgers        | 82.7  |
| 36 Nebraska       | 90.494 Myville, Mo.   | 82.5  |
| 37 Indiana U.     | 90.495 Davidson       | 82.4  |
| 38 Oklahoma A&M   | 90.396 Colorado U.    | 82.3  |
| 39 Georgia Inst.  | 90.397 Pacific Col.   | 82.1  |
| 40 Pittsburgh U.  | 90.198 Utah U.        | 81.6  |
| 41 Santa Clara    | 90.099 Wh. U., St. L. | 81.5  |
| 42 Rice           | 89.900 St. Louis      | 81.5  |
| 43 Penn St.       | 89.701 Kansas St.     | 81.3  |
| 44 Carolina       | 89.402 W. P. I.       | 81.0  |
| 45 Detroit U.     | 89.403 Miami, Fla.    | 80.9  |
| 46 Creighton      | 89.104 S. Carolina    | 80.8  |
| 47 U. C. L. A.    | 89.005 Montana U.     | 80.7  |
| 48 Baylor         | 88.906 Wyoming        | 80.6  |
| 49 Tulane         | 88.807 Colo. St.      | 80.6  |
| 50 N. Caro. St.   | 88.708 Texas Mines    | 80.0  |
| 51 Missouri U.    | 88.409 Arizona U.     | 80.2  |
| 52 Duquesne       | 88.110 W. Va. Mary    | 80.1  |
| 53 Tulsa          | 87.711 Brown          | 80.1  |
| 54 Miss. St.      | 87.612 Emporia St.    | 80.0  |
| 55 Colgate        | 87.613 Texas Mines    | 80.0  |
| 56 Carnegie T.    | 87.514 Centenary      | 79.9  |
| 57 Columbia       | 87.415 Lafayette      | 79.7  |
| 58 Texas A&T      | 87.316 Harvard        | 79.6  |

Waivers Asked On Kellogg, Wood

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Coach Jimmy Conzelman, of the Chicago Cardinals, of the National Professional Football League, announced today he had asked waivers on Bobby Kellogg, halfback from Tulane, and Robert Wood, former Alabama tackle.

Conzelman also said Bill Dewell, end from Southern Methodist, playing his first year with the Cards, would be out of action for at least six weeks because of a fractured right ankle, suffered in Saturday night's game with the Detroit Lions.

Today's final pairings follow: Championship Flight—Dr. A. O. Linch vs. Dr. J. R. Childs.
First Flight—Dr. Harold McDonald vs. Dr. Julian Riley.
Second Flight—Dr. Harry Lange won from Dr. George Eubank.
Third Flight—Dr. W. L. Thompson vs. Dr. Noah W. Baird.
Fourth Flight—Dr. H. G. Eates vs. Dr. J. K. Fancher.

Vitt Tells His Story; Blames Club Officials

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Failure of club officials to give him proper support was the chief reason for the dissolution on the Cleveland Indians this season, Manager Oscar Vitt declared today when he returned home from a "nightmarish season."

Vitt charged two or three disgruntled athletes with inspiring the player rebellion which some observers believe cost the Indians the American League pennant and which was climaxed when Bobby Feller, Indian pitching ace, and a number of teammates demanded from Club President Alva Bradley that Vitt either cease riding them or quit his job.

The Cleveland pilot said he had not resigned because "I'm no quitter," but wouldn't know where he stood until the board of directors meets.

Vitt declined to name the player or players he thought responsible for the trouble but he told interviewers he was satisfied "the Cleveland fans were for me 100 per cent. They really stuck with me. They acted like champions even if we weren't."

"I knew nothing about the trouble until I got back from a father and son meeting at Lynn, Mass., where I appeared as a speaker earlier in the evening. Bob Feller was to have gone down there with me. And I guess at the time I was telling what a fine boy he was and apologizing for his failure to show up, he was among those present on the firing squad at what was supposed to be my execution."

"Only two or three did the talking. The others who appeared before Bradley were only onlookers. I believe the boys are sorry for what they did. After the final game of the season every last one of them shook my hand, wished me a pleasant winter, and with one or two exceptions, said they hoped I'd be back with them as manager next spring."

Wiley Moore Golf Tourney Starts Today

Match play starts this morning at Bobby Jones in the Wiley Moore annual trophy tournament. Mrs. W. D. Tumlin, president of the Atlanta Woman's Golf Association, took top honors for medalist.

Immediately following matches today, there will be a driving contest in classes, also an approaching and putting contest.

TODAY'S FAIRINGS.
CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT.
Mrs. W. D. Tumlin vs. Mrs. J. C. Wright; Mrs. O. B. Keeler vs. Mrs. Joe Varella; Mrs. M. V. Larnet vs. Mrs. L. H. Kelley; Miss L. Wilburn vs. Mrs. Gus King; Mrs. Morton Bright vs. Mrs. M. K. Bailey; Mrs. Frank Reddy vs. Mrs. Warren Pollard; Mrs. J. O. Rhine vs. Mrs. R. B. Ward; Mrs. Sidney Smith vs. Mrs. C. D. Fields.
FIRST FLIGHT.
Mrs. Geo. Griffin Jr. vs. Mrs. Thos. Miller; Mrs. C. C. Sloan vs. Mrs. Roger Martin; Mrs. J. G. Wilburn vs. Mrs. T. R. Staton; Mrs. W. S. Eakin vs. Mrs. T. A. Branch.

G. M. C. CAPTAIN.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., Oct. 7. John McManus, veteran tackle, has been named captain of the Georgia Military College football team. He was elected to the post in Athens, Tenn., shortly before the Cadets took the field against Tennessee Wesleyan Friday night.

Domestic help of the better class—the kind that stay with you—worthwhile help—can be secured through a Help Wanted Ad in The Constitution.

FOOTBALL SPECIAL TO ATHENS
GEORGIA VS. MISSISSIPPI—OCT. 12
(Game Called 3:00 P. M. (E. T.))
LV. ATLANTA 10:00 A. M.—LV. ATHENS 5:45 P. M. (E. T.)
$3.00 1st Class ROUND TRIP—$2.10 Coaches
Round Trip Pullman Seat $1.10
SEABOARD—WA. 7322—62 LUCKIE ST.

Walters Gives But Five Hits, Socks Homer

Continued From Page 18.

Gorsica's work was wasted because Walters kept whipping his fast downer to the plate where the Tigers could do nothing with it. Bucky also benefitted from the sort of tight defense that brought the Reds their pennant, but which has shown only in spasms in this series.

As the result of the Reds' triumph, the 1940 World Series will be the first to go seven games since the St. Louis Cardinals beat these same Tigers in 1934 for the last world championship won by a National League club.

DERRINGER TODAY.
Cincinnati was in a good strategic position to repeat this victory by having big Paul Derringer ready for the final game with two days' rest since whipping the Bengals in Detroit Saturday.

Manager Bill McKeechie for once had no hesitation in naming Derringer as his certain starter. The Tigers appeared almost as certain to come back with Buck Newson on one day's rest and hope that he can continue the mastery that subdued the Reds last Wednesday and again on Sunday. He thus would be in line to join five other pitchers who have won three games in a series of seven or fewer games.

The Reds, although making two errors behind Walters today, looked the best they have during the series in batting out a 10-hit barrage against the three Detroit pitchers and supporting Walters with three double plays and many remarkable individual stops and throws.

ALL WALTERS.
Walters struck out only two men, but he walked only two and with the help of his teammates kept out of serious jams. He retired the first five men he faced in order and after giving up a walk and a single in the second round Birdie Tebbetts to ground out.

In the third when Dick Bartell doubled with one out and went to third on a fly, Walters made Charley Gehring pop up foul to Catcher Jim Wilson.

In the fourth, sixth and ninth innings Frank McCormick, Eddie Joost and Billy Myers helped out with double plays. The two errors had no effect on the game. In the eighth inning First Baseman McCormick tried to beat Pinchhitter Earl Averill to the bag after fielding a grounder and dropped the ball in a collision with Umpire Lee Ballanfant and in the ninth Myers made a wild throw after a nice fielding play on a grounder by Gehring.

TWO REACH THIRD.
Only in the third and ninth did a runner get as far as third and in the latter case it was Averill who dashed across while the Red infielders were busy making a double play on two others.

The Reds' filling the bases in both the sixth and seventh innings netted only one run, but this lack of punch was their handicap all year and the fine fielding and pitching more than made up for it. Cincinnati's third run came during the sixth inning threat. Ripple and Wilson hit successive singles and Joost walked to fill the stations. Myers hit the first ball at the pitcher and Gorsica threw to the plate to force Ripple. Then Walters came to bat and knocked a grounder at Pinky Higgins and Wilson was able to beat the throw to the plate. A double played ended this uprising.

In the seventh Mike McCormick led off with a sizzling single right between Gorsica's legs, went to second on a sacrifice and, after

AROUND Atlanta

WITH THE CONSTITUTION STAFF

Harding Paine, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paine, of 1042 Lullwater road, Atlanta, has enrolled in Harding College, at Searcy, Ark. He is a sophomore and active in school affairs.

Rev. Harry G. Walker, rector of Trinity Episcopal church at Augusta, will speak before the Kiwanis Club at its meeting at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Ansley hotel.

Anyone interested in the four youth hostels which have been set up in the section may get full information at 604 Peachtree street, N. E., this afternoon between 3:30 and 5 o'clock, it was announced yesterday.

E. L. Graydon will address the Optimist Club at 12:15 this afternoon at Davison-Faxon's tearoom.

Neal Douglas Frazier, professor of English at State College for Teachers, Murfreesboro, Tenn., will address the Atlanta English Club at 8 o'clock tonight at the Georgian Terrace hotel. Mrs. W. C. Griffith will present harp selections.

Georgia League of Women Voters will convene in Atlanta November 12 and 13, Miss Josephine Wilkins, president, has announced.

Dr. Clyde Wilcox, headmaster of Darlington school, at Rome, will address the Atlanta English Club at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at Rich's.

Dr. Rufus E. Clement, president of Atlanta University, will speak on "The Negro as a Factor in the 1940 Presidential Election" at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night at the university.

Bank clearings yesterday were $11,900,000 as compared with $10,800,000 on the same date last year.

Morgan Blake will address a rally at the Marshfield Methodist church next Sunday afternoon.

Dr. N. C. McPherson Jr., pastor of Peachtree Road Methodist church, will deliver the principal address when Gammon Theological Seminary holds its formal matriculation exercises at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Atlanta Commercial Club will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at the Robert Fulton hotel for a bingo party.

Decatur Lions' Club will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the Chandler hotel.

George Jackson, clerk of the DeKalb county police department, returned to his desk yesterday after an illness of three days.

New courses in retail advertising will be conducted at the Atlanta Opportunity school, 417 Piedmont avenue. The first class will be organized at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Barbecue marking the 88th anniversary of the Fairburn Masonic Lodge and the closing of Judge J. Wilson Parker's term as grand master of the Georgia Masons will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the cafeteria of Fairburn school. Dr. Harry Bledsoe, mayor.

Mitchell, McRae Win at Piedmont

Cam Mitchell and Dr. Floyd McRae won the men's doubles championship last night in the Piedmont Driving Club's Badminton tournament, by defeating Haygood Clarke and M. E. Kilpatrick, 15-3, 15-13.

Mixed doubles, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Bell reached the finals by turning back Miss Sally Jenkins and Haygood Clarke, 15-8, 15-11. Also gaining the finals in mixed doubles were Cam Mitchell and Mrs. Rufus King, who conquered Mr. and Mrs. Stockton Broome, 15-9, 15-9.

Finals in ladies and mixed doubles are scheduled later in the week.

er another out, Gorsica loaded the bases with two walks, one of them intentional. However, Wilson grounded out to retire the side.

Every one of the Reds except Joost and Myers shared in the hitting spree and Werber's two safeties boosted his total for the series to 10, the most for any player on either club.

Only three of the Tigers managed to hit off Walters, Bartell and York getting two and Higgins one. Bartell was removed for Pinch-hitter Billy Sullivan in the eighth.

After the game Wilson revealed he had pulled a muscle in his right leg racing home in the sixth, but he said he expected to be able to play in tomorrow's finale.

Tickets for the last game went on sale immediately after today's tussle and a capacity crowd was expected. Rain today made the sixth game of the series doubtful until almost noon and caused vacant seats in the stands, but skies cleared during the afternoon. Clear weather was anticipated tomorrow.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their teeth dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plate. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not hurt. Checks "plate odor." (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.—(adv.)

at the COURTHOUSE

William Ashe and Harry Martin, both of Chattanooga, yesterday entered pleas of guilty to robbery of a filling station attendant on Spring street August 24. Judge Walter C. Hendrix deferred sentence until Thursday. The youths were captured 20 minutes after the crime.

Ernest (Buck) Bell, deputy county tax receiver, was back on duty yesterday after an illness of six weeks.

Third Ward Civic Club To Hold Meeting Tonight

The Third Ward Improvement Civic Club will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the Lula Kingsbery school to discuss the reopening of the Federal Farmers Market Exchange.

Members of the market committee will be present and J. E. Bowden will read a resolution on which a fight to obtain the market will be based.

seniority and pension benefits to those who are called even while serving.

Five street stretches around the Candler warehouse now being used as southeastern headquarters of the army ordnance department, yesterday were made nonparking by act of council to expedite the movement of army supplies incident to the national defense and rearmament programs.

A bill for $109.85 to repair the dairy truck belonging to D. A. Pirkle, which was damaged when two Atlanta policemen drove into Pirkle's machine two miles outside the city limits, was sent yesterday to the finance committee for a recommendation. It has the approval of the police committee despite a ruling by City Attorney Jack Savage that the officers and not the city are responsible for any damages to which Pirkle is entitled.

Councilman J. Allen Couch told council yesterday he will bring a modified ordinance to abolish yellow nonparking curbs restricted to loading and unloading to council at its October 21 meeting. He said he realized his insistence that all be eliminated might work a hardship, but reiterated his contention that many of them are not needed.

Council paused yesterday to pay tribute to the late Joseph Gregg Jr., executive secretary to Mayor Hartsfield. A resolution praising Gregg was passed unanimously and Hartsfield's communication designating George A. Cole as Gregg's successor was received and filed.

A resolution empowering Mayor Hartsfield to name a committee to investigate causes of objectionable noises and report them to council yesterday was sent to the ordinance and legislation committee for study.

Erection of 17 new street lights in various parts of the city was authorized yesterday by council. Dewey L. Johnson, head of the electrical department, will authorize them installed immediately.

Warren Company yesterday was authorized to expand its plant off Memorial drive over another 15 acres and the names of two streets were ordered changed. Senn street will be Westboro drive and Stewart street will be Pinehurst terrace, under actions of council which followed recommendations of the zoning subcommittee of the City Planning Commission.

C. A. Strickland, acting Georgia WPA director, yesterday was asked not to approve any WPA funds for expansion of the Albert Steiner Cancer Clinic in resolutions passed by the board of trustees of the Fulton County Medical Society. Copies of the resolution were filed with Mayor Hartsfield. WPA recently sanctioned a $17,500 fund to enlarge shops at Steiner.

City employees who volunteer or are drafted for military service will get the maximum pay for military leaves, and may be assured of their jobs when they return from service, if the Georgia legislature amends the city charter to allow such a procedure. Council yesterday approved resolutions by Councilman J. Allen Couch asking the changes in the charter, which would preserve a trial will convince you Thousands know of the amazing benefits of S.S.S. . . . scientists have proved it, too. Try it yourself to build sturdy health . . . the kind that will give you new zest to enjoy work and play. At all drug stores in two sizes. Ask for the big 20 oz. size . . . a saving in the purchase price. © S.S.S. Co.

TRY JUST TWO DROPS ON THAT NOSE-DIPPING AGENT OF A COLD—PENETRO NOSE DROPS.

Any Used Stoves Around Your Home?

Have you an old stove around home that's not being used? You can turn it into cash and use the money for things you need.

Now that the weather is getting cool, you can find someone that needs a stove and is willing to pay a fair price for it.

The easiest way to reach prospective bargain-hunters is through the WANT AD PAGES of The Constitution. Call WANTED 6565 and let an AD-taker list your offering. You'll be pleased with results. Call NOW . . . you may "charge it."

CONSTITUTION WANT ADS

"First in the Day—First to Pay"

OF HEAVEN'S BENEDICTION

By MARGARET GORMAN NICHOLS.

Jim Says He's Going To Be Married. Brooke Calls Barney for a Job.

SYNOPSIS. Brooke Carter, her mother dead, her father remarried, quits as secretary for a Chatham, N. H., physician and goes to New York as secretary-companion to Mrs. Kingsbury, whom she met while the wealthy old lady was boarding in the New Hampshire town with Rod West's mother, Grace. Really Brooke wants to be near Rod to whom she has been engaged for four years and who has made himself valuable in business to her mother. Brooke is a college graduate, a fine singer, and a clever seamstress. She is now an accountant. Rod is a wealthy divorcee who has a better living quarters necessary. Hesitatingly, Jim tells Brooke about Irene Davies, a wealthy divorced woman, years older than Rod, and when she meets Irene at a social party given by Grace, she knows Irene loved Rod. As she goes to dinner with Rod one evening, she gets a telegram stating for Hawaii. Brooke agrees to go with Mrs. Kingsbury to Hawaii and to the ship meets Tony Morrison, who falls in love with her. He says he inherited a fortune 10 years ago, but the creditors have become impatient he go to Harvard to study business administration and become a banker. Liking him, Brooke is sorry to leave him. He is going to his mother's home in Los Angeles and she is astounded to find she is Irene. Rod is much embarrassed. Kingsbury dies at sea. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY:

INSTALLMENT XXV.

When she finished her story he did not say anything for a few minutes but sat, frowning, looking at her. Then he said slowly, "I expected you to run into all sorts of things, adventures, but not death, and most of all not Rod. He must have felt like a gigolo when he saw you—if he hadn't felt like one before. Is he happy, do you think? Is he getting out of it what he thought he would?"

"I don't know. He was so embarrassed."

"I wonder why he didn't play up to the part. But, no, he couldn't. He hasn't the imagination. I can't see Rod with people like that. He's too plain, too unsophisticated, too serious. He takes himself too seriously. And Tony Morrison—Poor kid. Tough on him. But that's so much water under the bridge now, isn't it? You look . . ."

"I look tired, I know it. I sleep on trains." To relieve him of any feeling of responsibility he might feel, she said, "Jim, I'm going to see Barney Glass and ask him to help me find a job."

"You've decided to stay, then?" "What else?" She nodded. "Yes, I'll go home for a weekend but not until I find a job. I suspect the house is being turned into two apartments." At his absent stare, she smiled and asked, "Why are you looking at me like that, Jim?"

He chuckled. "Like what? Well I've something to tell you. Hold onto your chair. I'm—I'm going to be married next week."

"Married?" She had never seen him with a girl and had never heard him speak of one.

"I'd have told you about it before. I wanted to, in fact, but she was married and she just got her divorce after waiting three years for it. It was one of those elopements of a 19-year-old. It didn't last a year. When she left him she came to New York and she's a secretary at the office. Because of the circumstances, I didn't talk about it, didn't tell Rod about her. At the time I thought I'd shock him if he knew I was lunching every day with a married woman! Her name is Jean Carver and she's . . . well, I can't get worked up to big romance, I guess. I just haven't got it in me. But we have a lot in common, we don't clash, and I think we understand each other. She isn't beautiful but she's . . . I want you to meet her. I've told her about you."

What had he told her, Brooke wondered. . . "I hope you'll be very happy, Jim."

He smiled. "Thanks. I believe I will. We're trying to kid ourselves about love and marriage and our future, and we're both content to be small people for the rest of our lives. We'd like to get out of New York, too, because the one thing we both want is a family. So I'll probably use part of the time they're grudgingly giving me for a honeymoon to look for another job in a smaller city. That's the height of my ambition and Jean is satisfied. I wasn't cut out for big things or a grand passion . . ."

Brooke said, "I envy you. I was content to be a small person, too."

He looked at her. "I was in love with you for a few weeks. Could not sleep because of it. That was when I first knew you. But there were reasons other than Rod that made me put it aside. I knew I'd fall you in so many ways . . ."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

"I'm not sure I'm a good one." His grin showed small yellow teeth. "I'll bet you're a swell one." The shrewd little eyes appraised her smooth, flushed face and vivid mouth and warm interested dark eyes. "I'll get in touch with you in a day or two . . ."

And when relief softened her expression, he said, "I sold my yacht, by the way. I was a bum fisherman, anyway, and bought a place in Connecticut. I can get more people in the house than I could on the yacht. Have you up some weekend . . ."

His next grin held a secret highly amusing to him and which he was obviously unwilling to divulge. "Probably I'll see Julian tonight. I'll tell him you're back in town."

Brooke's heart beat faster but she was not certain she wished to see the enigmatic Julian again. When she began to offer her thanks for his kindness, Barney interrupted by saying that he did not often have the opportunity to lunch with a girl so pretty.

Strangers have been my friends, she thought, walking back to the hotel. At Rockefeller Plaza she did not stop but her eyes were intent with remembrance of a cold March day and Julian Carlton and herself. She had been nearly mad then. She was better now, she told herself, but her thoughts turned to Rod and as she crossed a street she felt suddenly faint. She had come to the end of things and people. Would she ever come to the end of loving Rod? And she felt faint, she knew, because not until this moment and for no apparent reason had she wanted to come to the end of loving him.

"You've never failed me as a friend."

"Yes, Brooke, I loved you," Jim said, "but knowing I'd fail you in many ways helped me get over it. And Jean is my kind of person. We won't worry if dust gets on our new furniture or about keeping up with our neighbors. She doesn't care about clothes. But she does care about music."

Jim lighted a cigarette. "I suppose some people will call us failures or cowards. We could stay on here and both work, live in a small apartment, buy a car and save to go to Europe. We've talked it over and we prefer a cottage with roses and mortgages and kiddie cars which you stumble over on the porch. It's too tough for me here—the efficiency, the drive, the strain. And what have you got when you've worn yourself out? My boss has a bad stomach, an annual nervous breakdown and a neurotic wife. We're going to clear out and go back to the simple life."

Brooke smiled. It was good to find some one who wasn't grasping, one person with a small plan for his life and some one to share it.

"It sounds to me like a recipe for happiness, Jim . . ."

Before they parted, he said, "I'll see Jean tonight, of course, and call you tomorrow. Maybe we can have dinner together tomorrow night. Tonight I'm moving into a hotel. When I start cleaning out the apartment, I'm probably going to find a lot of things I thought I'd lost."

Brooke walked back to the hotel, her own perplexities temporarily forgotten in pleasant thoughts of Jim and Jean's future. She thought, "That's what I want. I don't know what I want now. Yes, I do know this—that I don't want to run away and I don't want half measures, and I don't want to live in a rosy world of my own creating again."

When she reached the hotel, she called Barney Glass. "Brooke," he said with characteristic gusto. "Back in town? Good!"

His informality cheered her and put her at ease. But before she spoke Barney said, "I'm sorry but I'm very busy just now. How about lunch tomorrow? Want to hear about your trip. Always thought I'd like to go to Hawaii."

They lunched in a showy expensive place the following day and Barney proved to be not only a gay humpty Dumpty but also a helpful one. Briefly Brooke had told him of Mrs. Kingsbury's death. But she did not mention Rod or Irene Tony, feeling that repetition was futile and unrelated to the present situation. Simply and frankly she told him that she needed a job.

Lighting a cigar, Barney puffed for some time, his dark little eyes intense with thinking. "I can't do anything for you at my office," he said finally in his blustering voice. "But I'll see what I can do on the outside. Seems to me there are too many poor secretaries."

SUPERMAN—By Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster

TERRY AND THE PIRATES

MARY WORTH'S FAMILY

SMILIN' JACK

TARZAN—No. 344

They'll Do It Every Time

Map Your Life According to Its Plan

If you would like to have an Astrological Chart covering your sign of the Zodiac, THE CONSTITUTION will be glad to send it to you. All that is necessary is to fill in and follow directions in this coupon:

1. enclose:
 2. Self-addressed stamped envelope.
 3. Ten cents in coin to cover mailing.

I was born: MONTH _____ DATE _____ YEAR _____

Name _____ Address _____ City _____

You may obtain as many Astrological Charts as you wish for your family and friends. There is nothing to do except to send in the birthdate, address, self-addressed stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover EACH birth-day, in accordance with this coupon.

Storm Ahead!

Today's Radio Programs

Today's Hour-by-Hour Calendar

WGST, 890 Kc. WSB, 740 Kc. WAGA, 1450 Kc. WATL, 1370 Kc.

Note: Where no listing is given, last program in preceding listing is continued.

5:30 A. M.
 WSB—Farm Hour; 5:55, News.
 6 A. M.
 WGST—News and Sunday; 6:10, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 6:15, News and Sunday.
 WSB—Farm Hour; 6:15, Studios.
 WATL—Sign On; 6:00, News; 6:05, Variety Program.

6:30 A. M.
 WGST—Happy Rhythm Boys; 6:45, Hal Burns Varieties.
 WSB—Happy Dan's Folks; 6:45, Merry-Go-Round; 6:55, Weather News.
 WAGA—Morning Pick-Me-Up.
 WATL—Top of the Morning; 6:45, Charles Smithgall.

7 A. M.
 WGST—News; 7:15, News and Sunday; 7:15, News.
 WSB—Merry-Go-Round; 7:15, News.
 WATL—News; 7:05, Charles Smithgall.

7:30 A. M.
 WGST—News and Sunday; 7:45, News; 7:50, News and Sunday.
 WSB—Studio; 7:45, Merry-Go-Round.
 WAGA—Vocal Vogue; 7:45, Harvey and Dell.
 WATL—Charlie Smithgall.

8 A. M.
 WGST—News and Sunday; 8:10, News; 8:15, News; 8:15, News and Sunday.
 WSB—News; 8:05, Penelope Penn; 8:20, WAGA—Breakfast Club.
 WATL—News; 8:05, Charlie Smithgall.

8:30 A. M.
 WGST—News; 8:35, News and Sunday; 8:35, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS.
 WSB—Merry-Go-Round; 8:45, Gospel Singer.
 9 A. M.
 WGST—Arnold Grimm's Daughter; 9:15, Myrt, Marge.

9:15 A. M.
 WSB—News, Music and Women in the Headlines.
 WAGA—News and Music; 9:15, Morning Music.
 WATL—News; 9:05, Ink Spots; 9:15, Women in the News.

9:30 A. M.
 WGST—To Be Announced; 9:45, Women Best Tunes.
 WSB—Ellen Randolph; 9:45, Guiding Light.
 WAGA—Morning Music; 9:45, Viennese Ensemble.
 WATL—Keep It Choice; 9:45, John Metcal.

10 A. M.
 WGST—Mary Lee Taylor; 10:15, Life Begins.
 WSB—The Man I Married; 10:15, Against the Storm.
 WAGA—Love Linda Dale; 10:15, Clark Dennis.
 WATL—News; 10:05, Martha; 10:15, Studies in Black and White.

10:30 A. M.
 WGST—Big Sister; 10:45, Aunt Jenny.
 WSB—Road of Life; 10:45, Lang-Worth Music.
 WAGA—Rev. J. M. Hendley.
 WATL—To Be Announced.

11 A. M.
 WGST—Kate Smith; 11:15, News; 11:20, Best Tunes.
 WSB—News and Band for Today; 11:15, Lang-Worth Music; 11:20, Jimmy Beers.
 WAGA—Rev. J. M. Hendley; 11:15, Glen Darwin.
 WATL—News; 11:05, Kay Kyser's Music; 11:15, Inquiring Reporter.

11:30 A. M.
 WGST—Linda's Love; 11:45, Meet Miss Julia.
 WSB—National Farm and Home Hour.
 WAGA—Rev. Hale; 11:45, Jamboree.
 WATL—Rein Wain; 11:45, Designs in Melody; 11:55, News.

12 Noon.
 WGST—ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS.
 WSB—Farm and Home Hour; 12:15, DeWaga—News; 12:15, Ted Malone.
 WATL—Here's Frank Luther Again; 12:15, World Series.

12:30 P. M.
 WGST—Time; 12:45, Snoozers.
 WSB—News; 12:45, Weather, Markets and Orchestra.
 WAGA—Dr. J. Sutherland Bonnell; 12:45, News; 12:50, Harvey Harding.
 1 P. M.

WGST—Young Dr. Malone; 1:15, George West.
 WSB—Music We Love; 1:15, For Your Health's Sake.
 WAGA—Middie Varieties.
 WATL—World Series.

1:30 P. M.
 WGST—Musical Pickups; 1:45, My Son and I.
 WSB—Follies.
 WAGA—Army Band.
 WATL—World Series.

2 P. M.
 WGST—To Be Announced; 2:15, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 2:20, Invitation to the Waltz.
 WSB—Mary Martin; 2:15, Ma Perkins.
 WAGA—Orphans of Divorce; 2:15, Amanda of Honeydew Hill.
 WATL—World Series.

2:30 P. M.
 WGST—American School of the Air; 2:55, Interlude.
 WSB—Pepper Young; 2:45, Vic, Sade.
 WAGA—John's Other Wife; 2:45, Just Plain Bill.
 WATL—World Series.

3 P. M.
 WGST—Portia Blake Faces Life; 3:15, News.
 WSB—Backstage Wife; 3:15, Stella Dal.
 WAGA—Mother of Mine; 3:15, Club Matinee.
 WATL—News.

3:30 P. M.
 WGST—Hilltop House; 3:45, Kate Hop.
 WSB—Lorenzo Jones; 3:45, Young Wilder Brown.
 4 P. M.

WGST—Simple Melodies; 4:15, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 4:20, His and Hers.
 WSB—News; 4:15, Airport Reporter.
 WAGA—Honorable Archie; 4:15, Little Brass Band.
 WATL—News; 4:05, Mitchell Ayer's Music.

4:30 P. M.
 WGST—Yella Pessi; 4:45, Scattergood Baines.
 WSB—Organ Moods; 4:45, The O'Neill.
 WAGA—Evening Dance Varieties.
 WATL—Ray Herbeck's Music.

5 P. M.
 WGST—Snoozers; 5:15, Singin' Sam.
 WSB—Lil' Abner; 5:15, Rhumba Band; 5:25, A Song for Today.
 WAGA—News; 5:15, Irene Wickers; 5:25, Geppert Man.
 WATL—News; 5:05, The Monitor View; 5:15, Spreadin' Rhythm.

5:30 P. M.
 WGST—Paul Sullivan; 5:45, Edwin C. Hill; 5:55, Lucky Numbers.
 WSB—Dr. Walter W. Van Kirk; 5:45, News.
 WAGA—Don Winslow of the Navy; 5:45, News.
 WATL—Music Masters; 5:45, Captain Midnight.

6 P. M.
 WGST—Amos 'n' Andy; 7:15, Lanny Ross.
 WSB—Sports News and Views; 6:15, News.
 WAGA—Easy Aces; 6:15, Mr. Keane.
 WATL—News; 6:15, News; 6:20, Interlude.

6:30 P. M.
 WGST—Second Husband.
 WSB—Shooting Adventures; 6:45, H. V. Waga—Woody Herman's Music; 6:45, Baseball Scores; 6:30, Woody Herman's Music.
 WATL—Hollywood on Parade; 6:45, Dinner Dance Music.

7 P. M.
 WGST—Court of Missing Heirs.
 WSB—Johnny Presents.
 WAGA—Ben Bernie's Variety Show.
 WATL—News; 7:15, Cat 'n' Jammers.

7:30 P. M.
 WGST—First Nighter.
 WSB—Horace Heidt's Music.
 WAGA—Information Please.
 WATL—Ned Jordan.

8 P. M.
 WGST—We, the People.
 WSB—Battle of the Sexes.
 WAGA—Uncle Jim's Question Bee.
 WATL—News; 8:05, Sports Parade; 8:15, Tomorrow's Top Tunes.

8:30 P. M.
 WGST—Professor Quiz.
 WSB—Fibber McGee.
 WAGA—News; 8:35, Bishop and the Gargoyles.
 WATL—Laugh 'n' Swing Club.

9 P. M.
 WGST—Glenn Miller's Music; 9:15, Selective Service Period; 9:20, Super Dance Melodies.
 WSB—Bob Hope.
 WAGA—Dance Music; 9:15, Vaughn Monroe's Music.
 WATL—News; 9:15, News; 9:20, Eddie Oliver's Music.

Radio Highlights

6:30—Second Husband, WGST.

7:00—Court of Missing Heirs, WGST.

7:00—Johnny Presents, WSB.

7:00—Ben Bernie's Show, WAGA.

7:30—First Nighter, WGST.

7:30—Horace Heidt's Orchestra, WSB.

7:30—Information Please, WAGA.

8:00—We, the People, WGST.

8:00—Battle of the Sexes, WSB.

8:30—Professor Quiz, WGST.

8:30—Fibber McGee, WSB.

9:00—Glenn Miller's Orchestra, WGST.

9:00—Bob Hope, WSB.

9:30—Uncle Walter's Doghouse, WSB.

10:00—Hal Kemp's Orchestra, WGST.

10:30—Dick Jurgens' Orchestra, WATL.

11:30—Art Kassel's Orchestra, WATL.

9:30 P. M.

WGST—Paul Benson; 9:45, News of the Day.

WBS—Uncle Walter's Dog House.

WAGA—Fibber McGee's Show.

WATL—Roll Up the Rug; 9:45, Vagabond Trail.

10 P. M.

WGST—Hal Kemp's Music.

WBS—Fred Waring in Pleasure Time.

WAGA—Dance Music.

WATL—News; 10:05, Lawrence Welk's Music.

10:30 P. M.

WGST—News; 10:35, Teddy Powell's Music.

WBS—Weather News; 10:35, Fan-America.

WAGA—News; 10:45, Emil Coleman's Music.

WATL—Dick Jurgens' Music.

11 P. M.

WGST—ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS.

WBS—News; 11:10, Music That You Want.

WAGA—News and Glen Gray's Music.

WATL—News; 11:05, Vaughn Monroe's Music.

11:30 P. M.

WGST—Music That You Want.

WBS—News; 11:35, Sign Off.

WAGA—Dance Music; 11:35, News.

WATL—Art Kassel's Music.

12 MIDNIGHT.

WGST—Sign Off.

WBS—Sleepy Hollow.

WAGA—News; 12:15, Phil Harris' Music.

WATL—News; 12:15, Sign Off.

12:30 A. M.

WBS—News and Band for Today; 12:15, Jimmy Beers.

WAGA—Rev. J. M. Hendley; 12:15, Glen Darwin.

WATL—News; 11:05, Kay Kyser's Music; 11:15, Inquiring Reporter.

1:30 A. M.

WGST—Linda's Love; 11:45, Meet Miss Julia.

WBS—National Farm and Home Hour.

WAGA—Rev. Hale; 11:45, Jamboree.

WATL—Rein Wain; 11:45, Designs in Melody; 11:55, News.

12 Noon.

WGST—ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS.

WBS—Farm and Home Hour; 12:15, DeWaga—News; 12:15, Ted Malone.

WATL—Here's Frank Luther Again; 12:15, World Series.

12:30 P. M.

WGST—Time; 12:45, Snoozers.

WBS—News; 12:45, Weather, Markets and Orchestra.

WAGA—Dr. J. Sutherland Bonnell; 12:45, News; 12:50, Harvey Harding.

1 P. M.

WGST—Young Dr. Malone; 1:15, George West.

WBS—Music We Love; 1:15, For Your Health's Sake.

WAGA—Middie Varieties.

WATL—World Series.

1:30 P. M.

WGST—Musical Pickups; 1:45, My Son and I.

WBS—Follies.

WAGA—Army Band.

WATL—World Series.

2 P. M.

WGST—To Be Announced; 2:15, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 2:20, Invitation to the Waltz.

WBS—Mary Martin; 2:15, Ma Perkins.

WAGA—Orphans of Divorce; 2:15, Amanda of Honeydew Hill.

WATL—World Series.

2:30 P. M.

WGST—American School of the Air; 2:55, Interlude.

WBS—Pepper Young; 2:45, Vic, Sade.

WAGA—John's Other Wife; 2:45, Just Plain Bill.

WATL—World Series.

3 P. M.

WGST—Portia Blake Faces Life; 3:15, News.

WBS—Backstage Wife; 3:15, Stella Dal.

WAGA—Mother of Mine; 3:15, Club Matinee.

WATL—News.

3:30 P. M.

WGST—Hilltop House; 3:45, Kate Hop.

WBS—Lorenzo Jones; 3:45, Young Wilder Brown.

4 P. M.

WGST—Simple Melodies; 4:15, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 4:20, His and Hers.

WBS—News; 4:15, Airport Reporter.

WAGA—Honorable Archie; 4:15, Little Brass Band.

WATL—News; 4:05, Mitchell Ayer's Music.

4:30 P. M.

WGST—Yella Pessi; 4:45, Scattergood Baines.

WBS—Organ Moods; 4:45, The O'Neill.

WAGA—Evening Dance Varieties.

WATL—Ray Herbeck's Music.

5 P. M.

WGST—Snoozers; 5:15, Singin' Sam.

WBS—Lil' Abner; 5:15, Rhumba Band; 5:25, A Song for Today.

WAGA—News; 5:15, Irene Wickers; 5:25, Geppert Man.

WATL—News; 5:05, The Monitor View; 5:15, Spreadin' Rhythm.

5:30 P. M.

WGST—Paul Sullivan; 5:45, Edwin C. Hill; 5:55, Lucky Numbers.

WBS—Dr. Walter W. Van Kirk; 5:45, News.

WAGA—Don Winslow of the Navy; 5:45, News.

WATL—Music Masters; 5:45, Captain Midnight.

DRAMA—"Too Many Babies," an uproarious comedy-romance by Addison Simmonds, will be dramatized on the "First Nighter" program over WGST at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

Barbara Luddy and Les Tremayne are co-starring in this stork derby which gets under way when Connie Bradley, played by Miss Luddy, learns she is to receive $100,000 from an Australian uncle. That is—if she is married, which she isn't, and has five children, which she hasn't. Connie goes to the man she has just jilted, played by Les Tremayne, and contrives to outwit her wealthy uncle.

MUSIC—Back in New York from his long tour of cities throughout the east and middle west, Glenn Miller and his orchestra resume their regular programs from the big town, New York, over WGST at 9 o'clock tonight.

Glenn's New York fans are planning a royal welcome for the king of moonlight melody and his supporting company. Beautiful Marion Hutton and Ray Eberle are the singing stars who broadcast on the program. Glenn opens an engagement at the Pennsylvania hotel in New York on October 7.

INFORMATION—Louis Bromfield, author of "Night in Bombay," and one of America's leading novelists, joins the board of experts of "Information Please" during the broadcast to be heard over WAGA at 7:30 o'clock tonight. With him as his fellow-judge will be Jan Struther, noted English writer, who has appeared once before on the program.

Along with his visiting celebrities, "Information Please" will have its experts-meritists, John Kieran and Franklin P. Adams. Grilling them in his usual thorough manner will be Clifton Fadiman.

COMEDY—"Give a Guy a Hand," novel audience participation feature, will be added to Ben Bernie's program during its second performance over WAGA at 7 o'clock tonight. In "Give a Guy a Hand," someone with a particularly pertinent problem is chosen from the studio audience. He presents his problem to a girl advisor, also chosen from the audience. She "gives the guy a hand" with the answer she thinks solves the problem.

Lovely Carol Bruce, Broadway singing star, will be heard as usual and will be supported by the Bernie orchestra.

DJD, 11.77 meg., 25.4 m.; DKB, 15.11 meg., 31.6 m.
 TOKYO—3:30 P. M.—Dance Music.
 JLS, 17.84 meg., 16.6 m.
 LONDON—7:30 P. M.—"British Speaks." Talk by J. E. Priestley.
 GSC, 9.88 meg., 31.3 m.; GSD, 11.75 meg., 25.3 m.
 ROME—7:40 P. M.—Symphony Orchestra.
 2R3, 9.83 meg., 31.1 m.; 2R4, 11.81 meg., 25.4 m.; 2R5, 13.30 meg., 19.6 m.
 LONDON—7:45 P. M.—Headline News; News Commentary by J. H. Williams.
 GSC, 9.88 meg., 31.3 m.; GSD, 11.75 meg., 25.3 m.
 ROME—8:00 P. M.—News in English.
 2R3, 9.83 meg., 31.1 m.; 2R4, 11.81 meg., 25.4 m.; 2R5, 13.30 meg., 19.6 m.
 BERLIN—9:00 P. M.—News in English.
 DJD, 11.77 meg., 25.4 m.; DKB, 15.11 meg., 31.6 m.
 LONDON—9:30 P. M.—Radio Newswear.
 GSC, 9.88 meg., 31.3 m.; GSD, 11.75 meg., 25.3 m.
 GUATEMALA—10:00 P. M.—Hawaiian Music.
 TGWA, 9.88 meg., 31 m.
 TOKYO—11:20 P. M.—Radio Drama.
 JZL, 11.80 meg., 25.4 m.

TUNE IN
 "KATE HOPKINS,
 Angel of Mercy"

F. N. :

MARTIN, Master George W. (Gid)
—died Sunday afternoon. He is survived by father and mother,
Mr. and Mrs. Buell Martin; four brothers and one sister, all of Alpharetta, Ga., R. F. D.; Mr.

and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin and family, all of Cumming, Ga. Funeral services will be held today from Coal Mountain Baptist church, in Forsyth county at 2 o'clock (E. S. T.). Ingram & Moore, funeral directors.

and relatives of Mrs. E. A. Camp, Mrs. V. A. Steed and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Camp and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Condor and family. Mrs.

L. Cochran and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. A. Camp this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2:45 from the Palmetto Methodist church. Rev. T. L. Rutland will officiate. Interment in Floral Hill cemetery. Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

HUTCHINSON, Mrs. Isabell—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Isabell Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Z. Granade, of Conyers, Ga.; Mrs. Leola Williams, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hutchinson, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, of Atlanta, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Isabell Hutchinson this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 p. m. (E. S. T.) from the residence of Mr. Z. Z. Granade, of Conyers, Ga. Rev. Joe Leitch will officiate.

HILL, Judge B. C.—Age 62, passed away at his residence in Winder, Ga., Sunday afternoon. He is survived by his wife; two sons, Messrs. B. C. and Pat Hill; both of Winder; four brothers, Messrs. Edwin M., Jack, Ledford and Ike Hill; three sisters, Mrs. Laura Cheek, Mrs. Annie Mahaffey and Mrs. Lenora Waters. Funeral services will be conducted from the residence at 2:30 o'clock (E. S. T.) Tuesday.

lins, M. C. Foster, W. H. Clark and John R. Smith will officiate. Interment, Rose Hill cemetery. F. Q. Sammon Funeral Home, Winder, Ga.

E. Higgins, Miss Patricia Higgins, Mr. Donald Higgins, College Park; Miss Mary Higgins, Miss Agnes Higgins, both of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mr. Dennis Higgins, Miami; Mr. Park Higgins, Mr. Frank Higgins, Buffalo, are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Patrick L. Higgins Tuesday.

Oct. 8, 1940, at 2 o'clock at Spring Hill, Rev. James L. Duncan officiating. Interment, College Park. The pallbearers will be: Capt. Noble Buice, Capt. S. F. Whitaker, Capt. George Shealy, Capt. L. W. Williamson, Capt. W. L. McBride, Capt. R. B. Reinhardt, Capt. J. H. ...

LOWERS, Mr. William H.—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. William Hampton Flowers, Dr. and Mrs. John Fitts, of Atlanta; General and Mrs. R. E. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Steiner, of the American Legion. H. M. Patterson & Son.

Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. E. P.
Flowers, Mr. and Mrs. John J.
Flowers, Mr. and Mrs. J. D.
Flowers, Montgomery, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Flowers, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Flowers, Birmingham, Ala., are invited to attend the funeral of

Mr. William Hampton Flowers (Tuesday) morning, October 8, 1940, at 11 o'clock at the residence, 31 LaFayette drive, N. E. Rev. Edward G. Mackay will officiate. Interment, West View cemetery. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and meet at the residence at 10:45 o'clock: Mr. Quin Flowers, Dr. Lee Bivings, Mr. James Gilbert, Mr. G. Hanscomb Wilson, Major Phil H. Brewster and Mr. Henry Flowers. Brandon - Bond - Condon. (Please omit flowers.)

AGNOLIA ..... BE. 9137
Florists
HUGH KARSNER Flower Shop—Floral designs deliv. Modest prices. VE. 8422.
LOWERDELL Florist. Reasonable prices. Prompt deliv. 282 P. de Leon. VE. 2141.
Monuments, Wall Coping

ARK every grave, small cost, buy directly from manufacturer. Save salesman's commission. Single monuments $10. Double monuments for father-mother $50 up. Family monuments $50 up. Dixie Marble & Granite Co. DE. 2321. Established since 1900, Decatur, Ga. 318 E. Howard St.

---

(COLORED.)

WICKENS, Mrs. Mollie — of near

207 Houston street. The friends and relatives are invited to attend her funeral today at 2 p. m. from Greater Liberty Hill Baptist church, Hilliard street, Rev. O. T. Clopton officiating. Interment, South View cemetery, Hanley Co.

JEFFERSON, Mrs. Catherine Mitchell—passed at her residence, Stone Mountain, October 7. Friends and relatives of Mrs. Catherine Jefferson and family are invited to attend her funeral Wednesday at 2 p. m. at Ebenezer Baptist church, Stone Mountain.

MAHONE, Master Grady—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Mahone, of 402 Elm street, N. W.: Mr. and Mrs.

Simon Castlebury and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parker and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook are invited to attend the funeral of Master Grady Mahone today (Tuesday) at 1 o'clock at the graveside, Mahone cemetery, Waverly Hall, Ga. The cortege will leave our Chapel at 10 o'clock. Sellers ros.

48 Nominees Of State 'Bolt' 'Willkie-Crats'

Notify Wilson To Omit Names From New Party Ticket.

More than half of the Democratic nominees for state office already have notified Secretary of State John Wilson that they do not go on the general election ballot as "Willkie-crats," Wilson said last night.

Every nominee who does not want his name to be included on the ticket of the Independent Democratic party, which is supporting Wendell Willkie for president, must write a letter to the secretary of state asking that his name be omitted.

Wilson said 48 of the 77 nominees have given him written notification and added he expected to complete his certification list to the Governor today. The Governor actually prepared the ballot from the list submitted by the secretary of state.

Wilson pointed out that state legislators and local nominees must make their rejections, if any, to their county ordinaries, although all other nominees, including superior court judges, solicitors general and congressmen must report to him.

Still missing from the list of rejectors were the names of Governor-nominee Eugene Talmadge and three of his staunch followers—Tom Linder, commissioner of agriculture nominee, and Homer C. Parker, comptroller general nominee.

Following is a list of those who have asked that their names be omitted from the hybrid party ticket:

State treasurer, George B. Hamilton; secretary of state, John B. Wilson; attorney general, Ellis Arnall; state school superintendent, M. D. Collins; labor commissioner, Ben T. Hulet; state prison and parole commissioner, Royal K. Mann; public service commissioner, Chairman Walter McDonald and Allen Chappell; congressmen, Carl Vinson, sixth district; Paul Brown, tenth; M. C. Tarver, seventh; Stephen Pace, third; John S. Gibson, eighth; A. Sidney Camp, fourth; Frank Wheeler, ninth; supreme court judges, Charles S. Reid, Warren G. B. Gardner, Hugh J. McIntyre and I. H. Sutton; superior court judges, John C. Mitchell, Cherokee circuit; C. J. Perryman, Tomb; Walter Hendricks, Atlanta; T. S. Candler, northeastern; A. M. Anderson, Macon; Clifford Pratt, Piedmont; Clark Edwards, northern; Paul Etheridge, Atlanta; Chester Byars, Griffin; A. L. Etheridge, Atlanta; W. B. Smith, Alapaha circuit; R. Earl Camp, Dublin circuit.

Solicitor general, R. Howard Gordon, northern circuit; W. Glenn Thomas, Brunswick; W. H. Boyer, Oconee; R. A. Patterson, Fataula; Lee B. Wyatt, Coweta; Charles H. Garrett, Macon; Henry West, western; Fred T. Lanter, Ogeechee; C. Cecil Davis, Toombs; Henderson L. Lanahan, Rome; George Hains, Augusta; George R. Lilly, southern; F. E. Strickland, Griffin; J. H. Paschall, Cherokee; Hope D. Stark, Piedmont; Frank B. Williamson, Flint circuit.

No television necessary—Constitution Want Ads bring Dollars to Light and put Used Furniture out of sight.

MERRY-GO-ROUND
EXPERTS ON BRAKES
ON 'PONCE DE LEON AT PIRE'

Haverty's Harvest Sale Feature

DOUBLE SIZE WARDROBE CLOSET

LARGE FAMILY SIZE MOVABLE
WOOD GRAIN FINISH
HOLDS CLOTHES, SHOES HATS AND BLANKETS

$5.45

Closet space is always at a premium in every home—and here's a remedy that offers convenience, and protection at a most moderate cost! The Giant Savoy Wardrobe shown here is sturdily built with roomy spaces for things you need to safely put away. It has ample protection against moths and in size measures 66" high, 28" wide, 21" deep.

Pay Only 45c Cash, Balance 50c Weekly

HAVERTY
FURNITURE COMPANY

'Petty Hitler' P. L. Higgins Aid Roosevelt, Willkie Says

President Seeking To Perpetuate Power, Nominee Charges.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 7.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie said tonight that Democratic "bosses" of New Jersey, New York and Illinois were "the pillars of the New Deal Democracy" and charged that President Roosevelt sought "to perpetuate his power through petty Hitler."

The Republican presidential nominee spoke in Newark city stadium, ending a day-long motor tour of the heavily populated areas of northern New Jersey, including Jersey City, the Democratic stronghold of Frank Hague, mayor and state Democratic leader.

Near the close of his prepared address tonight, Willkie said "the head of the New Deal party has had some things to say recently about the attitude of Hitler and Mussolini toward our elections in America."

"Not only has he pushed America and Asia," Willkie added. "He has close to the wars in Europe now seeks to drag the wars of Europe and Asia into American politics."

"He tells us that he, and he alone, represents democracy."

"But I say—that he cannot represent the democracy that I stand for while he seeks to perpetuate his power through petty Hitler right here in our own land."

Referring to Hague, a vice chairman of the Democratic national committee, as "vice chairman of the party of the New Deal," Willkie said:

"I know that there are many here—and I was one of them—who looked forward with great hope to the liberal movement that swept over this nation in 1932. It is a tragedy that the leader of this movement—the present third-term candidate—should now have among his closest lieutenants a man whose machine had to burn the voting records of the people in order to hide crimes."

WILLKIE'S SCHEDULED STOP AT PRIEST'S SHRINE HIT

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—(AP)—Representative James H. Fay, Democrat, New York, said in a letter to Wendell L. Willkie today that he questioned the Republican presidential nominee's "motive" in scheduling a stop at the monument of Father Francis P. Duffy, wartime chaplain of the "Fighting 69th."

The stop in Times Square is planned for net Tuesday during a tour of Manhattan.

Fay, chairman of a committee for illumination of the monument, wrote Willkie: "I look upon this act," Fay wrote Willkie, "as a desertion of this shrine to further your political aspirations."

NORRIS BLAMES WILLKIE IN NEWSPAPER'S DEATH

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Senator Norris, Independent, Nebraska, replying to a speech made last week by Senator Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire, asserted in the senate today that Wendell L. Willkie must share at least a part of the blame for the death of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) News.

Bridges had branded as "malicious lies" charges that a subsidiary of Commonwealth and Southern, which Willkie formerly headed, had brought about the suspension of the News, an advocate of public power development.

Today in Atlanta's Churches

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Druid Hills Methodist church will meet at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the church.

Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Pottsville Memorial Methodist church, Business Women's Circle No. 1, will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight with Mrs. W. E. Scott.

Business Girl's Circle of the Grace Methodist church will meet at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Following supper Mrs. J. I. Almand will speak.

Intermediate Girls' Auxiliary of the Gordon Street Baptist church will meet at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the church.

Druid Hills Circle of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon with Mrs. W. A. Hartman, 575 Park drive, N. E.

Executive board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, of the Epworth Methodist church, will meet at 10 o'clock this morning at the church. The entire society will meet at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Mrs. J. Attaway Cox will preside. Circle No. 4, Mrs. F. O. George, chairman, will have charge of the program. Mrs. H. G. Thompson will lead the devotional, and Mrs. Young H. Fraser will speak on "Our Inheritance."

Thousands Visit Bier Of Governor Horner

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Thousands of citizens filed past the bier of Governor Henry Horner in the flag-draped 122nd Field Artillery armory tonight while Illinoisans prepared to pay a final mass tribute to him at the public funeral there tomorrow.

The body of the state's chief executive was placed in state in the center of the huge auditorium at noon. The bronze casket was banked with ferns and flanked by an honor guard of four National Guardsmen.

P. L. Higgins Funeral Here Planned Today

Airline Firm Executive Will Be Buried in College Park.

SERVICES for Patrick L. Higgins, 46, operations manager, vice president and director of Delta Airlines, who died Sunday, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Spring Hill.

The Rev. Woolsey Couch will officiate and burial will be in College Park cemetery. Pallbearers will be Captains Noble Buice, S. F. Whitaker, George Shealy, L. W. Williamson, W. L. McBride and R. R. Reinhardt. Members of the American Legion will form an honorary escort.

One of the best known figures in southern aviation, Higgins was a veteran of nearly a quarter of a century of flying experience. He lived at 430 East Columbia avenue, College Park.

Dalton Newspaper Chosen For Study

SPECIAL TO THE CONSTITUTION. DALTON, Ga., Oct. 7.—The Dalton Citizen, weekly publication, has been chosen as one of the outstanding weekly community publications of the United States as a model for study in classroom work at the University of Southern California, it was announced recently by Dr. Roy L. French, director of the school of journalism at that institution.

The Citizen will be used in connection with a study of community publications of the United States and their problems. The Citizen is published by the Showalter Company and E. A. Burch is the paper's editor.

Judge B. C. Hill Dies in Winder At Age of 62

Had Been Barrow County Ordinary for 12 Years.

WINDER, Ga., Oct. 7.—Judge B. C. Hill Sr., 62, widely known resident of Barrow county, died yesterday at his home in Winder after a lingering illness. He had been ordinary of Barrow county for the past 12 years, holding office at the time of his death.

Born near Auburn, in Gwinnett county, he had resided in Winder for the past 30 years. A successful merchant before assuming ordinary's office, he was very prominent in civic improvements of the city and Barrow county.

He was a member of the First Baptist church and Winder Lodge No. 333, F. and A. M. Masons will conduct services at the graveside. Services will be held at the residence at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, the Rev. E. H. Collins, the Rev. W. C. Foster, the Rev. W. H. Clark and the Rev. John R. Smith will officiate. Interment will be in Rose Hill cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, the former Miss Emma Patrick, of Winder; two sons, B. C. Hill Jr. and Pat Hill, both of Winder; four brothers, Edward M. Jack, Leoford and Ike Hill; three sisters, Mrs. Laura Cheek, Mrs. Annie Mahaffey and Mrs. Lenore Waters.

DO YOU KNOW that on the Want Ad pages of The Constitution a man is advertising who wants to lay your new cement walk or do any kind of concrete work?

WE KNOW OUR JOB
L. N. HUFF OPTICAL CO.
54 Broad St. N. W., Healey Building

Mrs. W. M. Rigdon Dies in Fort Valley

Special to THE CONSTITUTION. FORT VALLEY, Ga., Oct. 7.—Mrs. W. M. Rigdon, 74, died at her home here yesterday. Funeral was held this morning at the Methodist church with interment in Oaklawn cemetery. She was a member of a pioneer family of Peach and Crawford counties.

Surviving are four sons, Louis T. Rigdon, director of the Atlanta Journal School of the Air; A. Hill Rigdon, of Logan, W. Va.; W. Irwin Rigdon, of Norton, Va., and Bennett F. Rigdon, of Fort Valley, and a daughter, Mrs. J. O. Culpepper, of Cordele.

STEEDS IN SHOW.
LAFAYETTE, Ga., Oct. 7.—(AP) Owners from both north Georgia and Tennessee entered their steeds in the light horse show arranged as a feature of the Walker county fair here Thursday.

HOW TO OPEN NOSE THAT CLOSES UP AT NIGHT

Put 3-purpose Va-tro-nol up each nostril... (1) It shrinks swollen membranes; (2) Soothes irritation; (3) Helps flush nasal passages, clearing mucus, relieving transient congestion.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

When you want to borrow money, convenience and speed are all-important.

Our SIMPLIFIED Method provides this.

Amounts up to Several Hundred Dollars

COMMUNITY Loan & Investment CORPORATION

82 1/2 Broad St. N.W. Room 210, Palmer Bldg. Room 207, Connally Bldg.
Second Floor 41 Marietta St., Cor. Forsyth 98 Alabama Street
Tel. Walnut 5293 Tel. Walnut 9332 Tel. Main 1308

Also offices in La-Grange, Athens and Rome

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

Community Investment Certificates Pay 3% Per Annum

"In YOUR Opinion"

By NORMAN CHANDLER

Chairman, Newspaper Publishers Committee

NORMAN CHANDLER

YOU may or may not be worried about the size of the national debt.

You may favor or disapprove farm loans or pensions to aged stockbrokers.

You have a perfect right to your own opinion on any subject that affects this community or this nation. But, if your opinion is going to count, it must be based on knowledge.

If you told me you favored a law controlling traffic on Mars, I would question your right to that view—simply because we haven't any news reports on Mars.

You can interest me in the Polish refugee problem or in the November elections or the 1941 model cars. Those things have been duly reported by people you and I know to be trustworthy and accurate in what they report.

In fact it is your duty to have opinions—and to express them—on two important phases of life.

1. You must have opinions on the laws and the men and the policies of the government. We are a SELF-governing nation. If we don't watch and help and control, we don't deserve to be free.

Read, for instance, these few sentences from Adolph Hitler's "Mein Kampf":

"Propaganda has always to be directed more and more towards the feeling, and only to a certain extent to so-called reason. All propaganda has to be popular and has to adapt its spiritual level to the perception of the least intelligent of those towards whom it intends to direct itself."

"The masses, however, with their inertia, always need a certain time before they are ready even to notice a thing, and they will lend their memories only to the thousandfold repetition of the most simple ideas."

Now turn through the newspaper you are reading. Notice the news. See how carefully it is put together to give you a quick and accurate picture of what actually happened everywhere. Look at the respectful way the merchants and manufacturers ask for your patronage. Can you imagine an American advertiser commanding you or threatening you if you refused to like his wares?

Can you imagine your newspaper editor writing down to you, treating you like an animal, to be trained "by the thousandfold repetition of the most simple ideas"?

In your opinion, isn't your role as a free citizen, armed with accurate news and truthful facts about values, a rather desirable role?

It's your opinion that counts. If you and enough of your neighbors want some other system, you can have it. And if you like our present system, it's really up to you to preserve it!

★ ★ ★

NOTE: The purpose of these regular Tuesday institutional advertisements is to make American life and American business better. Your suggestions, criticisms or reactions will be appreciated by the Newspaper Publishers Committee and its chairman. Address the committee in care of the Business Office of this paper.